Prof. Bowersox was present at all the sessions except that on Saturday evening and took an active part in the work. Dr. P. Herman gave an interesting lecture on physiology.

WILD ROSES.

LOWELL.
The late snow caused many happy hearts as the sledding parties could be heard during every hour of the night; but the rays of the hot sun on Sunday spoiled their fun... It is reported that our horse jockey, George, has purchased Henry Knepp's farm for $2,000 and expects to take possession in the Spring... Wm. Ritter, of Millin county, visited Jacob Erb's several days last week... There are still a few ice houses to be filled at this end of town... The debating society at Bannerville has been a grand success. The orators, H. Knepp, Reuben Smith and many others, are hard to beat on a good square question... Mrs. Michael Weiland is still confined to her bed... Our jolly little school teacher of the Ridge can make a full hand at fun when with a sledding party if he has the opportunity to be with U. No.

PANTONVILLE.
Mrs. George Shambach was buried last Friday. She had been ailing for a few years but suffered severely the last few months. We sympathize with the bereaved family... Quite a number of our citizens attended the musical convention last week at Middleburgh and reported it to be a grand affair... Charles Shambach of Michigan, came here last week to attend his mother's funeral. He left for Michigan eleven years ago and has not been here since. He looks very natural... Harry Frantz still pays attention to his best girl in Swineford every Saturday night... Mrs. Weirick and Mrs. S. Bowersox are on the sick list but are improving slowly... A few families from here went to Aline last Saturday evening for a sleigh ride. They took their supper along and enjoyed themselves very much.
