

Appointed Store-Keepers.

On Monday morning Mr. A. L. Spangler of Middleburgh, and Newton C. Gaugler of Selinsgrove, were notified of their appointment as Store-keeper and Gauglers of this 9th internal revenue district. They are considered very strong appointments. Mr. Spangler came to this town five years ago and took charge of the primary department in our public schools, in which he was most successful. In the fall of 1883 he accepted the deputy postmaster-ship of this place under J. W. Runkle, and his efficiency in that position soon became a matter of favorable comment. He intends to move his family away—to where we have not learned, but we realize that our town will lose one of its most esteemed and beloved citizens when he takes his departure.

SELINGSGROVE.

The Board of Directors of Missionary Institute met here last Tuesday and decided to build an additional building at once. The structure is to be 55x85 with a wing of 13x26 feet, and three stories in height. The cost is estimated at $20,000. Will Gross of Philadelphia is visiting his father, A. J. Gross of Water street. John Trutt, 16 years old, died last week of pneumonia. He was buried last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Yutzky officiating. Al Marburger is building a stable on his lot and intends hereafter to keep a horse. Guy Snyder of Liverpool, visited his brother on Water street last week. Passion Week will be observed in the Evangelical Lutheran church this week. Services every night except Saturday evening. Holy Communion on Sunday forenoon. Rev. Ekersly of the M. E. church was prevented from attending the Methodist's annual conference on account of sickness in the family. MENTOR.

BEAVERTOWN.

On Tuesday of last week Miss Ida Bubb, John D. Kern and William Haddley left this place for Bellevue, O. Mr. Andrew Bowersox recently spent a few days with his daughter Mrs. Frank Kern. Mrs. Thomas Lowenauer and daughter Nannie returned to their home at Lewistown after having spent a few months with Mrs. Aaron Specht, the former's mother. Chas. Weideman and wife of Binghamton, N. Y., recently visited friends here. Mrs. Seth Winey and Mrs. Abel Winey were to Middleburgh one day last week. Rev. and Mrs. Wetzler spent last week in Dauphin Co.—County Supt. Bowersox paid our schools a visit last week. A lot of trees have been planted on the school grounds by our citizens. This is a move in the right direction. Jennie Bingham went to Sunbury to remain some time. Last week one day while Oscar Freed was cutting wood on his mother's lot, he cut a deep gash in his foot. W. G. Snyder is seriously ill. Drs. W. M. Baker and A. M. Smith are the physicians in attendance.
