MONROE TOWNSHIP.

Considering the pleasant March we had a cold Easter Sunday and Monday....People are busy plowing the soil for corn and oats, while some have sown oats already....The Strawberry crop will be rather slim this season, as dry weather, insects and the hail storm, last summer, were very unfavorable to the plants and kept them from vining....Flitting is on the program now and many moved in their new abodes last week....Horse flesh is very cheap this spring, but cattle bring good prices....P. R. Lenig and son John made a business trip to Sunbury last Saturday and called upon Jackson Lenig who contracted with P. Oberdorf for the making and burning of brick V. T.

DANIEL WEBSTER said: "My opportunities in youth for acquiring an education were limited; but I had the great good fortune of being well supplied with useful books and these gave me my success in life." He canvassed for books to pay his expenses at college. We would advise any young man out of employment, or ladies or others, with some spare time on their hands to write to P. W. Ziegler & Co., whose advertisement will be found in another column. The opportunity they offer is one that does not come every day. Success to the lucky applicant.

LOWELL.

There has been very little oats sown at this end up to this time....Mr. Frank M. Musser, the druggist of Lewistown, was seen on our streets last week. Frank seems to be a good whole soul fellow. Call again.....According to the calculations of our weather prophets, there are still sixteen snows to come before harvest....Coxey can get about five hundred recruits at this end when he makes a move for Washington. The boys are anxious to hear if there is any bounty....J. Irvin Howell of Siglerville spent Sunday with some of his Snyder County friends....Most of our schools close this week, and the result seems to have been a success in almost every branch of study....The program at the Ridge Sunday School on last Sunday was a grand success, until the distribution of the eggs and then there seems to have been a good deal of dissatisfaction the way it was conducted. U. No.

Editor Schoch of the Mifflinburg Telegraph comes out with a strong endorsement for the entire Union County Republican ticket. We are glad to see Bro. Schoch take this strong stand.
