The Coxey Movement

either a fool or is eagerly searching "Oh! so far-brilda kinner" .... Next for notoriety or it may be both. Monday the trout season opens, the His band could make no advancement on the Pittsburg and Alle- fry mentioned in my last week's gheny police force. They hadn't any letter were recieved on Thursday, hesitation whatever in corraling the and a healthier set of little 'trouties' tramps in a stockyard and locking are seldom received. They were them up there, whence they can be planted in our mountain streams, judiciously distributed among prison and I will now renew my offer of reformatories and dime museums. It is said that Coxey's leading lieutenants are old fakirs and the probknaves as fools in the precious army. Movements like that of Coxey's are paid as soon as a conviction is oba disease that springs from a mere tained. pimple on the body and becomes epidemic. Nothing in the exact form - ave to top-of the Coxe. ed before, but the disease has always been the same whatever the symptoms. But the principle has never been attending Central Penna. College at known to swell without a Coxey. Just what/ these pumps want when is down with scarlet fever. But at they get to Washington (if they ever this writing is improving . . . Mrs. get there) is not known, -no not by Anna Hummel is visiting her sister the leaders themselves. If the goal at Shamokin Dam ... 'Squire Daubobject is accomplished. He can now west .... Miss Laura Yearick is visitfold his arms in peace and surrender ing her sister Mrs. M. K. Hassinger, his body to the undertaker without ignorant undertaker who needed instructions in such a case.

PAXTONVILLE.

Wm. Harner left for Shamokin on Monday ... Howard Schambach and family made a trip to McClure last Sunday ... W. W. Swengle is home from Shamokin on a visit .... Lester Derr left for the Lumber regions last week .... George Prutzman (our black-smith) moved to Kantz one day last week. He intends to work at his trade there ... C. Melvin Harner left for Shamokin last Friday. From there he intends to go to work near Glen Union Trvin Graybill made a trip to Shamokin this week to sell some of his stands ....Mrs. Della Duck from Selinsgrove visited her mother Mrs. Frantz

MONROE TOWNSHIP.

Flitting is over in this vicinity and strange as it appears two houses are left unoccupied, viz: Wm. Jarrett's and Norman App's .... P. R. & John Lenig have purchased an old reliable plater in Sunbury and will soon be ready to do white metal plating such as knives, forks &c., superior to silverplating . . . Sunbury has a case of smallpox on Linden Street and the board of health is busily engaged horses. ... The new tin roof on the ....John Heckman had a slight stroke of palsy Wednesday morning 4th inst. He had about a mile to walk to a store where he was to meet the improvement has been made to the teamsters and just before he reached the said store he felt a fainting sensation and with difficulty reached the store. He has so far recovered that he can use his arm very well kin, is visiting Carrie and Nettie but his left foot is still insensible | Hendricks ... Absalom Roush of to touch ... Sunbury people are still confident of a wagon bridge being spanned across from that place to the Snyder County side. A bridge would be a great convenience to

TROXELVILLE.

Dr. E. M. Miller has the rough wall just about finished for his new house....Our jolly blacksmith, Irvin Fetterolf, put a new slate roof Arthur E. Cooper, Manager. on his house last week .... The following changes took place last week: Amos Benfer moved on his farm; Mrs. Hannah' Nerhood into the house vacated by Mr. Benfer which she had previously bought from Mr. cents per line (nonparts) measure for first inser-tion and in cents per line for every subsequent querton.

B.: Jere Moyer on his farm which he bought from the Administrator of the estate of Jacob Nerhood, dec'd.: Henry Hartman from Centreville on the farm vacated by Jere Moyer : John D. Sipe into the house bought from Harrison Brininger; Mrs. Sarah Brininger in with Ada Erb; M. A. Swartz into the house vacated by Mrs. Brininger; Cal. DeLong to Adamsburg: Philip J. Ocker on the John Good farm ... The cold snap has done lots of damage to the cherry and peach buds ...Jere Moyer sold to John F. Zechman that part of his farm which lies east of the public road leading from Troxelville up to Ner. M. Middleswarth's, Consideration $1,000. Those persons who had contemplated working in the Seven mountains this spring, are as yet out of a job. There is no telling when operations will be resumed. This upsets many a calculation, and is hard on some people. For seven long years the peaceful slumbers of "mule whacker" John A. Fetterolf were unweek his faithful wife presented him with a brand new baby boy that will no doubt give John an occasional wake up, with which he has for so long a time been unaccustomed, and will no doubt exclaim: "Oh! so far-brilda kinner"...Next Monday the trout season opens, the Coxey is a phenomena. He is tomed, and will no doubt exclaim: 15th falling on Sunday. The trout-$25 reward for any information that viction of any person or persons abilities are that there are as many using dynamite in any of our mountain streams. The reward to be CAL. JOE.

KRATZERVILLE.

Our schools have closed for the season ... Miss Gertrude Good is New Berlin ... It would be an has gone to Central Pa. College to resume his studies in the senior class. Barnhard Kline's infant child was buried last Friday. Rev. Ochenford officiating ... Our boys report plenty of fun at the party on Tuesday evening at Luther Kratzer's and also on Friday evening at Perry Kratzer's

> ...Our fisherman are counting the days until the opening of the trout season ... Kratzerville Band Uniforms and Drum Major suit will be sold at public sale on Saturday. I hope the boys are just disposing of the old instruments and will then get a new outfit. Boys, do not let the band go to nothing for we want music.

SELINSGROVE.

George Burns has accepted a position as shoe agent, and started on the road on Monday. His many friends wish him abundant success

... Harry Laudenslager, a former Selinsgrove boy, who is learning pharmacy in the city of Brotherly Love is home on a visit ... William H. Bratton and family of McClure, have moved to this place for the purpose of educating their daughter

.. A fair sample of Coxey's "Commonwealers" passed through this burg on Monday. It was the largest party of gypsies seen here for many years, having no less than sixty vaccinating people free of charge 2nd Lutheran church is nearly completed ... John H. Bailey sold his meat market to Percival Nerhood, who has moved to town....Quite an campus at the Institute by Dr. Dimm tearing down his barn and placing it at the rear of his residence

... Miss Bertie Hamilton of Shamo-Hendricks ... Absalom Roush of Fremont, the father of Elmer Roush who accidently shot himself, was in Empty whiskey barrels $1.50. town on Monday.
