WEST BEAVER.

Being a new hand at this business I will try to give the new firm a few items from the bone and sinew of Snyder County. The exhibition held at the Battery school House on last Thursday was a grand success at every point. T. A. Wagner, teacher, tries to make every thing a success A few movings have taken place at this end, namely: James Brower McClure, Andrew Romig to the House vacated by Brower; C. Knepp to the house vacated by Romig; C. Snook to W. G. Wagner's farm near Bannerville. It has been reported that Emanuel Peter, Jacob Erb and U. No. have enlisted in Coxey's army and they will sing the song, "We will hang Hoke Smith and his Pal on a rotten apple tree as we go marching along." Our Associate Judge (Crouse) was at this end last week. I suppose the Lowell fisherman have all the black birds shot by this time for the purpose of making artificial flies as the fifteenth will soon be here. J. J. Steely made a business trip to Big Valley on last Saturday. It has been reported that Za blacksmith from Mauch Chunk, Pa. will open up business at Bannerville.

BEAVERTOWN.

Communion services were held in the Union church last Sunday by the General Council Lutherans. Thos.
Kohler has returned from the eastern cities with a fine supply of spring and summer goods. Miss Libbie Dunkelberger of Swineford spent several days in town last week trim-ing hats for Mrs. A. B. Specht. A number of fittings passed along our street last Thursday. Amongst them we noticed John S. Kern who moved into town from his farm. Mr. Kern is a desirable citizen and we extend a warm welcome to him and his family.
Quite a number of our children are down with pneumonia. A pleasant party was held at the residence of John Aigler last Thursday evening in honor of his daughters, Hattie and Florence. One night recently James H. Bingaman's hen house was visited and left minus all the chickens. Mrs. J. P. Kearns and children spent a few days last week with friends at Lewistown. Mrs. J. P.
Shirk and daughter Nettie will go to Philadelphia to-day (Thursday) for medical treatment. Mrs. J. Freed has gone to Lock Haven to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Anna Boyer. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Beaver visited friends in Union County Sunday of last week. Miss Annie Gilbert spent last week in Middleburg with her sister, Mrs. Anon Bohig.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease.
Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by G. M.
Shindel, Middleburg, and J. W. Sampsel, Peunscreek.

Dear Sir—The Otto Gas Engine we purchased from you is giving the greatest satisfaction. The quickness with which it can be started and stopped, the very small amount of attendance it requires and the economy of fuel make it a model motor for moving any kind of machinery. Very respectfully,
