

REV. DR. TALMAGE.

THE BROOKLYN DIVINE'S SUNDAY SERMON.

Subject: "Home Religion."

Text: "Return to thine own house and dwell with thine own people..."

After a fierce and shipwrecked night and his disciples are climbing up the steep shelving of the beach...

Back to the boats, ye fishermen, and out into sea and ocean assiduous! But Christ says to His disciples...

Yes, the home, the home is the first place where our religious gratitude ought to be demonstrated...

Well, one would say a house with great parlors with sculpture, and bric-a-brac, and dining hall with easy chair, and plenty of light, and engravings of game on the wall...

There is contention already among ministers of the gospel as to the mastery of that immortal spirit...

TEMPERANCE.

ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY.

Text: "Abstainance from alcoholic drink is absolutely necessary..."

The Outlook says "The W. C. T. U. has won a name which has gone to the ends of the earth..."

The late George W. Childs was a strong temperance man, and was especially opposed to moderate drinking...

These cases very similar have come to public notice lately in New York City...

The third was found dead in her room. Alcoholism was the cause. These three isolated cases, happening almost simultaneously...

Archbishop Thompson, of England, when a member of the Lords' Committee on Intemperance said...

"Such being the opinion of the great authorities in the medical profession, and such being the popular practice, it is very much to be wished that the education of the public on this subject could be carried somewhat further..."

A large number of persons, whatever their weight that they attach to higher motives, desire to regulate their food and habits according to the rules of good sense...

Archbishop Ireland speaking of the sobriety of the nation in politics, says, "The average of the nation's suffrage in many places is a meaningless word..."

The Tennessee Baptist Convention resolved that "every child of God should do what he can to secure legal prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating liquors..."

What is alcohol? A poison—a brain poison—a soul poison—a poison of virtue, of morals and religion—the cause of more sin than all other causes combined...

The renewal of the license of a London publican was opposed because, being deaf, he could not hear when bad language was used in his house...

Dr. Bode, of Haldesheim, declares that the manufacture of intoxicating liquors in Germany robs the country yearly of 4,500,000 men of their faculties...
