The Coxeyites,

The followers of Coxey are getting bolder. The attempts to capture trains in Montana and Ohio last week were successfully accomplished, but by speedy and judicious actions on these armies marching on to Wash- his house to a new coat of paint. ington are actuated by the purest motives, their means must still be condemned. In the first place, we doubt the expediency of the motives. because we cannot conceive that professional tramps, vagaries, swindlers, full-blooded anarchists, counter-fitters, prostitutes, vagabonds and idlers could have very pure motives. Secondly. It is establishing a bad preland, a cor. hich is a relic of barbarism and which can be traced to the darkest period in the world's history. In the days when the greater portion of the world, large bands of men moved toward place.

Coxey with 350 men has moved into Washington. There are over 13, Rev. S. E. Davis, J. A. Lumbard. Rev. W. W. Rhodes. now marching on to Washington, Would it not be a good idea for the Washington police to "cage" Coxey's 350 men and put them on short rations? We think that this would be the best of medicine for accomplishing the dispersement of the vagabonds.

the capitals to overthrow the ruling era of intellectual advancement

These "tramp" armies deserve no consideration. They are not to be confounded with the honest, respectable, law-abiding unemployed. They are in no way identified or associated with the great body of American workingmen who are deserving of public respect and sympathy.

Such summary dealing as that in Montana and Ohio will soon cure the Coxey craze.

BEAVERTOWN

It sadly behooves us to chronicle the untimely death of Mrs. Gertrude Dreese. She was the oldest (aughter of A. M. Carpenter, and was married to Charles Dreese & little more then three years ago. On Saterday night Apr. 20, she was taken violently ill, and at the same time became unconscious in which state she remained until the following Thursday when she died at 5 A. M. She was aged 23 yrs., 4 mos. and 8 days. The funeral took place last Saturday forenoon when alarge concourse of people followed the remains of one respected and loved to their last resting place. Rev W. H. Fahs officiated. Gertrude Dreese connected herself with the Evangelical Lutheran church June 18th, 1886, and remained a consistent member of the same until God in His infinite wisdom saw fit to remove her from the church militant to the church triumphant. The death of this young woman, has caused a vacancy in her home, in the church, in the Sabbath school and in the hearts of her many friends. Truly death loves a shining mark. It is a bitter blow and our deepest sympathy is with the bereaved husband, parents, brothers and sisters of the departed. We commend them to Him, who best knows what is needed to guide His people home ... Prof. J. Palmer Carpenter, and wife of Sunbury, Samuel Carpenter and wife of Lancaster, and Charles Carpenter of Camel, Clinton Co. were here to attended the funeral of Mrs. Dreese
