For Jury Commissioner, J. H. KNEPP.

Committee Meeting.
The new Republican Standing Committee of Snyder County met at Middleburgh on Saturday for organization. The following officers were elected:
Chairman—C. M. Arbogast, West Perry.
Secretary—A. M. Aurnand, Spring.
Treasurer—Dr. J. W. Samspeil, Centre.
The following resolutions were unanimously adopted and ordered to be sent to the various Republican papers in the county for publication:
"The Republican Standing Committee assembled for the purpose of effecting an organization and preparing for the gubernatorial campaign about to be conducted in Pennsylvania during the next six months, submits the following to the party organization within the County:
1. We call upon all earnest and loyal Republicans to buckle on their armor to meet the common enemy, the Democracy, in a campaign about to open in one of the greatest Protection States of the Union, to the end that we may sustain our well earned position in the ranks of the Republican Counties of the State, and aid in recording for our party the greatest and grandest political organization ever maintained in this Commonwealth. We call upon you to awaken the interest of the people in the political campaign which we are now prosecuting, and which were the proud, unselfish inspiration of the birth of the organization to which we pay fealty.
2. We commend the patriotic course of our Representatives in Congress, both of our Senators, one of whom, the brilliant party leader, Hon. S. M. QUAY, is now reminding the party in the majority in Federal affairs, by his great speech upon Tariff of the futility and deceit of Democratic promises, pledges and legislation, and warning the country by the array of facts, figures and arguments, against the repetition of the commission of the national political blunder of 1892 which drove from authority and power that Statesman, President Benjamin Harrison, and conveyed the mantle of Executive supremacy to Grover Cleveland, the silent but effective exponent of "hard times," "Coxey Armies," and national business prostration.
We also refer with pride to the distinguished course of Hon. Thad. M. Mahon, who by his intelligent conduct upon the floor of the House of Representatives, has manifestly proven his ability, industry and sincerity as a faithful representative of the people, at a period, when to be a Republican with unswerving lips and undaunted heart in a Democratic Congress, is to be a patriot fearless in the discharge of civil duties at the Capitol of the Nation in 1894, as he was brave on the field when treason bore the bloody flag north of the Potomac in 1862.
3. It is a matter of congratulation that the signs of the times point to an overwhelming Republican majority throughout our State next fall and with the assurance of great leadership upon our State Ticket, in the nomination of General Daniel H. Hastings, at the Harrisburg Convention on May 23rd, a man, the hero Statesman whose obscure birth, early life and splendid manhood's career, fitly typify the grand possibilities of our free institutions, we may well hope that with this candidate at the head of our column, one whose heart beats in unison with all classes and conditions of the thousands of free and untrammelled electors, the election, in November next will wipe away every vestige of Democratic existence in Pennsylvania and place in the gubernatorial chair, the scholarly patriot and example of American manhood, whose progress and achievements, poverty and obstinate circumstances could not hold in check.
4. We present to our local organization in Snyder County the ticket chosen on March 16th last and call upon all loyal party men to stand by it during a period of thirty days since the inception of the Crawford County system in selecting candidates for local offices our primary nominations have been uniformly satisfactory to the people and although within that time there have been fierce and uncompromising struggles for the preliminary honors and many instances in which the victor gained the ascendancy by the meagre majorities ranging from one to fifty, happily the results left no divided party, passion subsided before reason and discord sank before the written verdict of the majority. It is therefore important that trivial causes of dissatisfaction in our ranks, well founded though they may seem, should, now when the people have spoken at the polls, fade before the potency of the majority and yield to the popular wish and.
WHEREAS, The Representatives of the Republican Party of Snyder County, in Convention assembled on the 15th day of March, 1894, after receiving and computing the returns of the primary nomination held the 10th day of March, 1894, found that the following named persons had received a plurality of votes cast and were therefore declared to be the nominees of the Republican party:
For Assembly, Chas. W. Hermann,
For Prothonotary, J. C. Schoch,
For Reg. & Rec., G. M. Shindel,
For Dist. Atty., J. M. Baker,
For Jury Conser., J. H. Knepp,

For State Delegate, H. C. Samspeil.
Therefore be it Resolved, That we, the Representatives of the Republican Party in Committee met, do hereby heartily ratify and endorse the verdict of the people as declared by the convention of March 15th, and that any and all efforts directed to thwart the will of the people will receive no encouragement from this Committee.

Factional clamor can bode no good and our party united and aggressive will march from the field in the fall victorious throughout.
The delegate to the State Convention was instructed to vote for the men endorsed at the late Republican Primary. Adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman.

Penny Postage.

Not content to wait for penny postage to come about in the usual and proper way, some self interested people are now engaged in a movement to provide for this reduction by increasing the rates on other kinds of mail matter. They demand that the rate on second-class matter be increased from one to eight cents a pound. Second-class matter embraces newspapers and periodicals "published for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, to the sciences, arts or some special industry." A self-appointed agent has been traveling over the country representing to merchants and manufacturers that the only impediment in the way of one-cent letter postage is the low rate on second-class matter, and that to get a reduction on letters they must demand and get an increase on newspapers and periodicals. After levying $10, this agent left printed petitions against the second-class rate for the business man to distribute to his patrons, to be signed by them and forwarded to "my dear congressman." Congress has been flooded with these petitions and the House has already gone part way by adopting an amendment raising the rate on certain kinds of second-class matter from one to eight cents a pound. It is the opening wedge for an increase on other kinds. It is apparent to all that this is an unfair way to provide for one-cent letter postage. To reduce one postal rate by raising another does not benefit the general public. It is an attempt to benefit the writers of private and business letters at the expense of the subscribers of periodical publications. If second-class postage is increased, publishers must advance subscription rates to correspond, and subscribers will inevitably pay the increased postage. Publishers emphatically oppose this proposed increase because an advance in the price of their publications, particularly in this day of downward prices, will greatly decrease circulation. It is a direct blow at their business.

The total receipts for the year ending June 30, 1893 were $75,896, 933.16. Nearly one-sixth of this amount (or $12,000,000) was expended entirely for the free delivery system. If the price of postage on newspapers is raised, publishers can not afford to furnish reading matter at the same price and the people will be the losers. Write to your Congressman and Senators and ask them to vote against an increase in postage on second-class matter, because a low rate will benefit the masses of the people who live in the country and small towns. Our readers should demand this consideration as an offset to the free-mail delivery by letter-carriers in large towns and cities which costs nearly $12,000,000 each year and is no earthly benefit to the vast majority of the people of these United States. As soon as the postal service can afford it, we would recommend Penny Postage, but not until then.

WEST BEAVER.
W. Y. McGlaughlin spent a week in the mountains trout fishing and found the fish small and the catch smaller. Henry Goss Sr., an old soldier, was buried last week at the St. John church. He was the father of 16 children, the grandfather of 88, and the great grandfather of 18. The funeral was largely attended. Frank, Peter and John Steely accepted a contract to peel the bark from twenty trees but gave up the job upon being told the tract was infested with bears and snakes. Andrew O'Donal and his son Harry, spent a few days last week fishing in our neighborhood. Call again Andy. Merchants Steely and Knepp of Middlecreek are doing a big business in the lower end of West Beaver. Their business is done altogether on wheels. A short ad. in our popular paper the Post would increase your trade ten fold, you can bet your horse and wagon on that every time. Since Coxey arrived at Washington, W. H. Knepp the Crossgrove blacksmith, has been able to run but one fire in his shop. John Fisher of Lowell has been shipping trout, pigs, etc. to Sunbury. Jockey George and the Gypsey could not make a trade last week as Geo. proved too much of a gyp. himself. Bon-
