SELINSGROVE.

We gave n our last communication the proceedings of commencement up to Wednesday noon. In the afternoon the exercises connected with the laying of the corner-stone took place. The usual campus exercises followed, consisting of an Address of Welcome, Oration, History and Valedictory. In the evening, Rev. M. H. Havice delivered the annual address to the Alumni Association. The Reverend drifted away from the routine form of address on such occasions and advocated a greater energy and spirit in all undertakings. At 9.30 p. m. the banquet of the Collegiate Alumni was held at the National Hotel. Eighty-two persons partook of the repast. C. P. Ulrich, Esq., presided as toast-master and did himself great credit. The following toasts were responded to: "Our Lady Members," Miss Mattie Dimm; "Depopulation of Selinsgrove" (ministerial weddings), Prof. J. I. Woodruff; "The Future College" Dr. J. R. Dimm; "The New Building," D. K. Ramey; "Our Members and their various Avocations," Geo. W. Wagenseller; "Class of '94," W. M. Rearick. On Thursday morning was the commencement proper.
