

A DETROIT BUILDER.

TELLS A REMARKABLE STORY OF HIS LIFE. He is Detroit About Forty Years Ago.

LESLIE'S EXPERIENCE WORTHY SERIOUS ATTENTION. (From the Detroit Evening News.)

Way out Gratiot avenue, far from the din of the business centre, there are attractive homes.

There are many pretty residences, but more inviting in its nature and homelike than that of Mr. Levi Elsey, the known builder and contractor.

He has created a number of houses in different parts of the city and points with pride to such buildings as Newberry & McMullan and Campway.

He has seen Detroit grow from a village to a city, and he has seen it prosper.

PATTISON ON LABOR TROUBLE

The Governor Charles Immigration as the Cause. In explaining the labor situation in Pennsylvania, Pattison in an interview said the most dissatisfied class was the miners.

"The present commercial and financial depression," he said, "is not as bad as others that we have had. The country has been plunged into a financial panic and trade stagnation about every twenty years."

"Now, what will become of the men who were thrown out? They will have to go hungry or work for the reduced wages which the men who pushed them out get."

"All these concerns are connected with the immigration of foreigners from the business world in this, and the only way we can keep out people who do not come here with the expectation of making good citizens of themselves is to impose fines and penalties upon the corporations which make money out of the passenger traffic."

Took Charge of Him.

It is often said that a benefit conferred does more to promote friendship than a favor received.

Mr. A. told me that he once wounded a tiger which afterward sprang on him, knocked him down, and seized him by the hand and a m.

The dog was driven off three or four times, but the tiger was all the while losing strength, and finally died.

When Mr. A. was carried to the doctor, some thirty-five miles away, the dog went, too, and on the doctor's applying carbolic acid and setting the bones, which caused the patient to cry out, the dog at once seized the doctor by the leg.

In about three months Mr. A. was quite cured. After that the dog lost all interest in him, and returned to his master; and if he met Mr. A. by chance, merely acknowledged his recognition of him by the faintest wag of his tail.

A year afterward, happening to meet the doctor, whom he had not seen in the meantime, he at once flew at him and seized him by the trousers.
