 barrels of vinegar, 800 pounds of candles, 1,920 gallon cans of tomatoes, 3,840 cans corn, 3,000 pounds soap. The Guard will fare well.

If the Troxelville club reported at home what our correspondent from there writes this week, they are in error. Only two members of Saturday's team practiced more than a few weeks.

 Sunbury on the Middleburgh grounds in the near future.
 Prof. John I. Woodruff, President of Palatinate College, Meyerstown, was in town last week and handed us a catalogue of the institution over which he presides. He speaks very encouragingly of his new venture. Write to him for a catalogue.
LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.—I have on hand three barrels of All Rye Whiskey, two years old, which is a little musty. I am offering it at $1.25 per gallon. Come and try one gallon and be convinced that you are getting the worth of your money.

"MISTAKEN SOULS WHO DREAM OF BLISS."—The following marriage licenses have been granted since our last publication:
 J. F. Straub, Potty Twp.,
 Mary A. Bilger, Middlecreek,
 W. H. Smith, Middleburgh, Nettie Swineford, Swineford.
 The figure 9 in dates is with us and has come to stay. Few men or women now living will ever date a document without using a 9. It now stands third—1894—where it will remain the same and that move to second place—1900—and there rest the hundred years.
 The algerines who advertised their captured logs, according to the law in our statute books, and according to the opinion of Ex-Judge Barnett, are the sole owners of the logs now.
 The Lumberman's Exchange failed to come and redeem the logs within a month after their capture.—*Liver-

 A postal card to Wm. C. Gretzinger, Registrar, will bring the 320 page year book, showing the five departments—College, Academy, Ladies Institute, Music School, and Art Department, and cuts of the ten buildings, of Bucknell University, at Lewisburg, Pa. Next year begins September 13, '94. 8-30-94 The Reformed congregation of New Berlin will open their lately remodeled church with appropriate ceremonies on Aug. 19th, 1894. Regular preaching service will be held in the morning and evening. In the afternoon a special service in the interest of the Sabbath-school will be held.
FISH WARDEN'S NOTICE.—Having been appointed a fish warden, under the laws of this state I hereby caution all persons against the violation of the fish laws of this state. Any persons caught in any manner of illegal fishing, or on the Sabbath day, will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. B. F. TANNER, Warden, Aug. 8, 1894. Selinsgrove, Pa.
 On Sabbath evening at 9:30, a quiet wedding took place at Gray-bill's Hotel in Swineford. The contracting parties were Wm. Smith, manager of Hotel Central and Mrs.
 Nettie Swineford. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. S. Kohler of New Berlin. May the union prove a blessing and a continuous round of pleasure to those having effected the bond of matrimony.
 The Post this week publishes its solution of the "Labor Problem." It shall be the aim of the editorial management from time to time to discuss all questions of public interest. While our space will not permit an extensive discussion as our metropolitan dailies, it shall be our aim to have the matter as thoroughly sifted and digested and we trust as carefully prepared.

Republican League Club.
 A movement is on foot to organize a Republican club in Middleburgh.
 This should not be delayed as the State League of clubs meets in Harrisburg on Sept. 5th. Delegates should be chosen in order to have representation in the State League meeting. Our country is laboring and suffering under a financial depression such as has not been known in the history of our country. All citizens who love prosperity and are anxious to lend a helping hand to restore business activity and open the avenues of trade, should not hesitate to unite in a progressive movement. We want the idle mills to be pouring forth smoke from the chimneys. We want to see the farmer get a fair price for his products, and we want to see business revive.
 Remember the adage, "In union their is strength." So let the Republican club spring into being.
 Five Hungarians were stabbed at a wedding in Mt. Carmel on Saturday night of last week, and two of them will in all probability die. The stabbing was done by John Bolton while he was under the influence of liquor. Bolton refuses to admit or deny that he committed the deed, but witnesses swear that they saw the uplifted dagger in his hand.
 Michael Kokosh, one of the victims, cannot live.
ODD FELLOWS REUNION AND PICNIC.
 —The L. O. O. F. and Daughters of Rebekah Lodges (twenty in number) of the counties of Union, Millin, Juniata and Snyder, will hold a re-union and picnic at Adamsburg, Snyder county, along the Sunbury road, in an O. G. R. on Saturday, August 19th. Music will be furnished by four or five brass bands, and an interesting program is being prepared for the occasion.
 All members of the Order and the public in general are cordially invited to attend. Com.
 On Tuesday forenoon Ira Fry, Harry Foelt and Frank Zechman, who call themselves the Snyder county Jesse James gang, and have locked up in our jail since early in May for assaulting with intent to rob Jacob Ludwig, of Monroe township, Juniata county, on the 30th of April, had a hearing before Esquire Horning after which they were committed to jail to stand their trial at September court. If at court the Commonwealth does not make out a stronger case against them than it did before the Justice, they will hardly cross the mountains at Juniata's expense this time.—Mifflintown Herald.
UNION PICNIC AT McCLURE.—The three Sunday schools, Sons of Veterans and G. A. R. of McClure, and Adamsburg Lodge of Odd Fellows will hold a union picnic at McClure on Saturday, August 18th. The different schools will meet at the respective churches at 8:30 a. m., and march to the grove, followed by the different Orders. Addresses will be delivered in the fore-noon by Revs.
 Zimmerman, Weidemeyer and Laudis, and Prof. C. W. Herman: in the after-noon by Dr. A. M. Smith, Hon. E. W. Tool and Co. Supt. Bowersox. Music will be furnished by the Adamsburg and McClure Cornet Bands. Refreshments will be served on the grounds. By order of Com.
 Judge Bucher has finally consented to remain on the Democratic ticket for Congressman-at-large. We are sorry to see Mr. Bucher allowing himself to be made amenable for the sins of his party in the canvass this fall, but as such submission convey a great deal of political influence to him and as he has a number of political scores to settle which will afford him great comfort, he is not making such a big sacrifice after all as some might suppose. He is a man who always knows his friends and allows his enemies to know him, and there is no doubt but that some one else than Judge Bucher will occupy the alter when the fires are kindled.—Bellefonte Gazette.

BASE-BALL!
 Middleburgh was the Stage for Two Brilliant Games on Saturday.
MIDDLEBURGH DOWNS TROXELVILLE 12 TO 2 AND SELINGROVE TIES NEW BERLIN.
 Saturday the people of our town awoke from their lethargy and were inspired to a thrill of enthusiasm by the presence in our midst of three foreign base-ball teams and a host of other sports. The announcement made in the Post last week that there would be two games here attracted universal attention, and the town and the old fair grounds presented a scene of activity and enthusiasm during the entire day. At 9:30 a. m. the game between Middleburgh and Troxelville began. W. H.
 Walker of New Berlin was selected as a second umpire and all disputed points were settled satisfactorily.
 The game was finished at 11:45 with a score of 12 to 2 in favor of the home team.
THE AFTER-NOON GAME.
 Promptly at 2 o'clock the game between Selinsgrove and New Berlin was called.
 The Selinsgrove team was strengthened by the Ritter brothers of Liverpool. The New Berlin team offered no protest to allowing the Ritters to play as catcher and 1st baseman respectively. The New Berlin men have been playing baseball long enough to know that they must expect to meet such combinations. The spectators saw that the teams were now evenly mated and the anticipations for a warm and closely contested game were not in the least frustrated. Ritter, the catcher, is one of the best and most popular players in the state outside of the State League and Philadelphia Clubs. Mr. Ritter on Saturday stood second in the Press voting contest as the most popular amateur player in the state, and for several days he stood first. His friends have over 2000 votes lying back yet and those cast already aggregate nearly 14,000. During the game Ritter's catching was a most interesting feature. Bolig's pitching for Selinsgrove was by no means to be despised. However the long continuance of the game tired him somewhat. The team from Snyder's metropolis is composed of players small in stature, but enthusiastic workers for the goal. New Berlin's manliness in facing this team deserves more than a passing notice.
 They are all steady, plucky players and put up a strong game. Walker's pitching all through the game fully proved that he was equal to the emergency. The team is composed entirely of gentlemen who know the value of fair and honorable dealing and at no time did they allow their love for winning to run away with their better judgment. The score of innings is as follows: Selinsgrove, 2 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 x-4 New Berlin, 0 2 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 x-1 The score indicates full well how carefully the game was played. The eleventh inning had already begun.
 Three of the Selinsgrove men were on bases. The third strike was called on the batter who started for 1st base. The catcher failed to hold the ball, but picked it up, stepped on home plate and threw it to the 1st baseman before the runner arrived. A dispute arose as to whether the runner on 3rd base was forced or not. The batter and the runner on 3rd base were declared out. Selinsgrove refused to submit to this at first, but finally agreed to play.

 The umpire acknowledged his error in declaring the man out on 3rd base but refused to change his decision. He decided the game was a draw with a score of 4 runs for each team. Thus ended the gala baseball day for Middleburgh. We again welcome our friends to Middleburgh and hope for their speedy return.
The Labor Problem Solved.
 The recent labor trouble is perplexing philanthropists and social reformers. It is evident that some change in the present social system or in the laws of the nation must be made in order to avoid these sharp conflicts between labor and capital.
 Edward Bellamy, some years ago, wrote his book, "Looking Backward." In this work, he tells his readers what kind of a social system he would like to see in 1900.
 His scheme works well enough in theory, but in practice it must prove to be a dismal failure. Bellamy would put all the instruments of production in the hands of the common government. No money would be used as none would be necessary under his system. Every man must make a fresh start in the world and his success will depend upon his energy and economy. At death his inheritance will be turned into the hands of the government.
 These are a few of the many changes Bellamy and some of his associates suggest for improving the social system.
 The fallacy of such argument is once apparent. The inheritance of the past is not to be discarded to encourage industry. All the instruments of production in the control of the government will place more value in the hands of officials and hence the tendency to political corruption will increase. A free people will not submit to sudden or radical changes and what the American people now want is a system so adjusted as to avoid these sharp conflicts between labor and capital.
 Here comes the tug. What adjustment will provide this panacea?
 The labor party has its merits and the capitalists have their rights.
 To condemn the one at the expense of the other is unjust and unreasonable. The most effectual way of bringing about a change that will benefit both at the expense of neither party is to cultivate more sympathy between the two. Laboring-men can not live without the capitalists and the latter can not prosper without the assistance of the former. The two classes are as mutually dependent upon each other as the knife and fork at the dinner-table. The knife can not cut without the fork and the fork is useless without the knife. With more sympathy between these warring elements, the interests of both will be enhanced. If the wages paid by the capitalist are not satisfactory to workingmen, the laborer has the privilege of withdrawing his services, but he is not entitled to the right of preventing others from working who wish to comply with the capitalists' terms. As each individual has rights, so each has duties.
 Rights, on the one hand, bring duties on the other. As long as one party fails to respect the rights of the other, so long will this contention continue. When the money power inherits a soul that can feel for and sympathize with its subjects and when the labor power of this country can understand the perplexities of a capitalist, then and not till then, will strife be allayed. This to us seems to be the only correct interpretation of the enigma which has so long baffled solution.
 Union and Northumberland county commissioners are at loggerheads over an island roadway to be built between two bridges.
