FISH WARDEN'S NOTICE. - Having been appointed a fish warden, under the laws of this state I hereby caution all persons against the violation of the fish laws of this state. Any persons caught in any manner of illegal fishing, or on the Sabbath day, will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. B. F. TANNER, Warden, Aug. 8, 1894. Selinsgrove, Pa.

The whipping post as a punishment for crime has not yet been established in Perry county, but similar punishment was last week meted out to a negro named Charles Magee, of Harrisburg, at the annual frolic known as the colored campmeeting, now in progress at Montebello Park, on the line of the Perry County Railroad. Magee was caught in an attempt to assault a young colored girl, and after being stripped of nearly all his clothing, was marched through the camp to the music of rifying the blood, restoring strength and rothe merry-go round organ and at every step one of the colored men lashed him fu riously across his nude body with a switch, while the indignant women in the camp looked on approvingly. Magee's punishment The Dr. J. H. McLean Medicine to., was swift and severe and he suffers greatly therefrom.

Bank Examiner Miller on Friday fter-noon committed suicide in Altoons by shooting himself through the temple. The cause is attributed to trouble in sifting out the perplexities of the Second National Bank

Nathan C. Schaffer, State superintendent of public instruction, said in Pittsburg last week: "In my next report to the Legislature I will ask for a school census, which will be the first step for compulsory education. I will ask that assessors be instructed to inquire as to the number of births in families and in this way the county authorities will know the age of children and whether they should be in school. I will recommend that all schools be clos-MISTER DROOKER:-Fargeshter wor ed in districts where the population ch widder in der shtodt, un bin has so decreased that there are but parbes gonga far widder amohl mit a few scholars in each school and em Yarrick shwetza un broveera that the State provide transportaous finna weller fun de tzwae os mer tion for the pupils to the nearest schools."

> A successful jail delivery was effected at Huntingdon Tuesday night, making ten prisoners who have given Sheriff Oaks the slip within a year and a half. John Beatty, Robert Deamitt, and John Spooneybarger, prisoners, carried a long table into the jail yard and, piling several boxes upon it, reached the top of the main wall and jumped over. Beatty, who had acted in the capacity of turnkey, although a prisoner, carried off the jail and cell keys with him, and the services of the local police were needed to guard against the escape of the other prisoners, who had to be huddled together in the main corridor.
