Williamsgrove Notes

About 125 people from Snyder county were at the picnic.

Tent 85 was the dirtiest on the ground. The whole floor was covered with loose straw all smeared over with Snyder county butter and other fabrics too numerous to mention. It was only two doors from Hotel de Hoo.

Kieffer Wolf, the celebrated doctor of three years fame from Hartleton, is the man who disturbed the quiet proclivities of a young fellow and his girl along the Yellow Breeches Creek.

The police were looking for "misterious Harry" because he would not let the Dutch Doctor sleep.

Tent 85, that oft frequented spot where you got noodles for dinner, was noted both for harmony and discord. Even "Cally" Gutelius called there Friday evening. Geo. Cleland was a friend of the family.

Cottage 9 was where the ladies all kept early late hours.

Cottages 19, 32½, and 35 were noted for 85, cold ladies, lemonade and boat rides.

SPECTATOR.

SELINSGROVE.

Miss Mable Wagenseller, daughter of M. L. Wagenseller, died on Sunday afternoon. She had been ill several months ...Miss Lizzie Dill of Patterson, N. J., who has been spending the summer with Miss Agnes Sholly, has returned home... Dr. Miller of Middleburgh, was in town last Friday ...Mrs. Mary Getz and Mrs. Lydia Eisenhart of Sunbury, visited friends in the East End.... Two spans in the lower creek bridge are completed and the last span is nearly finished. ...Gerson Heyman, Oppenheimer's clerk, is visiting his brother Joe in New York City....M. O. Snyder, John Thompson, James Charles and Geo. Fisher have bought a car load (1400) of watermellons....Rev. and Mrs. D. E. McLain are visiting Editor Lumbard's family....Sun fish are "ripe" and every morning at 5 o'clock a certain quartette can be seen on Schnure's dam, waiting for a bite....L. R. Hummel has been appointed post master at this place. The appointment was a great surprise to many. However Mr. Hummel will no doubt make a good officer ...Somebody visited "Nigger" Island on Sunday night and stole several bushels of peaches....Mrs. Henry Schoch has gone to Elkhart, Ind., on a visit....I. N. Catherman has secured employment in a drug store in Philadelphia....Mrs. H. Alleman is sojourning in Gettysburg.

PENNSVILLE.

The picnic on Saturday at this place was very largely attended; and the speech making was so interesting that 12 o'clock was at hand before any body was aware of that fact. The addresses were all good productions, but if I would be allowed to express my opinion on them, I would unhesitatingly say, that the address of Prof. F. C. Bowersox was the ablest production of the kind I ever heard. A very interesting game of base-ball was played on Saturday at this place between the Jr. club of New Berlin, and our home team. Seven innings were played, and the score stood 15 to 12 in favor of the New Berlin club. Considerable difficulty was had in deciding who the umpire should be. It was a very close game throughout, and was chuck full of enthusiasm, as each side had to submit to "skunks." On Saturday the squirrels became free, and, notwithstanding the gay attractions of a monster picnic, 'Squire Jim Middleswarth went out a while in the morning and gathered a few of the frisky nut-crackers ... We have some people, who evidently misconstrued the new tariff law as it now stands. It seems they take the measure to mean "free trade," but they do all their trading in the dark of the night, and without even giving you the privilege of recommending your goods. In other words, there is too much stealing done....Last Thursday Dr. Miller moved into his new house, and is now as happy as a canary bird in a new cage.

CAL. JOE.

The Income Tax.

The bill provides that from and after January 1, 1895, and until January 1, 1900, every citizen of the United States, whether residing at home or abroad, and every person not a citizen residing in the United States who has an income in excess of $4,000 a year, shall pay a tax of two per cent. upon the excess. That is, a person with an income of $6,000 must pay a tax of two per cent. upon $2,000, or $40, the $4,000 being exempt. The individual exemptions to this rule are the officials of States, counties and municipalities. The Governors of New York and Pennsylvania, who each receive $10,000 a year and live in mansions provided by the State, will pay no tax, but men in private life, who must provide their own places of residence, are taxed upon all income above $4,000.

The tax is on the income of the year previous to that for which it is levied. Therefore, the first tax will be levied on incomes received in 1894.

There are two classes of incomes recognized by the bill—the incomes of individuals and the incomes of corporations. The taxable income of a corporation is all its income above its operating expenses, including the sums paid to shareholders. The tax of two per cent. is paid by the corporation. Therefore that part of an individual's income which is derived from dividends on the shares of a corporation that has paid the tax is deducted, on his return, from his own taxable income.

There are exemptions allowed by the bill in computing an individual's income besides the $4,000. They are as follows: The necessary expenses of conducting a business, all interest paid or due within the year, local taxes, losses in trade or from fires, storms or shipwreck, not compensated for by insurance or otherwise; worthless debts and income on which the tax has been paid by corporations.

As to corporations, charitable, religious and educational corporations are exempted, as are States, counties and municipalities, building and loan associations, savings banks having no stockholders, receiving no more than $1,000 in a year from any one depositor, and dividing all the yearly profits among the depositors except a contribution to a ten per cent. surplus. Mutual companies, including insurance companies, are all exempt.

An Innocent Man.

The man who blew out the gas and tied his stocking over the jet to shut off the smell isn't in it in point of ingenuity with an innocent old gentleman, hailing from near Edinboro, who "put up" at the Phoenix hotel in Meadville a few nights ago. The Tribune says the old gentleman had never seen an electric light, and when he was finally ready for bed, and wished to extinguish the one which lighted his room, he was in a dilemma. For the life of him he couldn't figure how the tarnal thing worked, until at last a happy thought struck him and the mystery was solved. He had been wondering for some little time why so much extra cord was used in hanging the lamp from the ceiling, but now it was all as plain as day, and carefully unwinding the loose bunch of cord, which had at first seemed to be a useless extravagance, he proceeded to stow the lamp away snugly in a bureau drawer and closed the drawer for the night.

Here is something it is said that is worth five dollars to every farmer in the land to know: Sprinkle a little lime in your stock tank and not a particle of green scum will form on the water. When the lime loses its strength and the scum begins to form, which may be twice during the season, wash out the tank and repeat the dose. It is cheap, harmless, wholesome, keeps the water sweet, and saves work.

Tired, Weak, Nervous Could Not Sleep.

Prof. L. D. Edwards, of Preston, Idaho, says: "I was all run down, weak, nervous and irritable through overwork. I suffered from brain fatigue, mental depression, etc. I became so weak and nervous that I could not sleep, I would arise tired, discouraged and blue. I began taking and now everything is changed. I sleep soundly, I feel bright, active and ambitious. I can do more in one day now than I used to do in a week. For this great good I give Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine the sole credit.

It Cures."

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1, 6 bottles for $5, or it will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
