

BEAVERTOWN.

William E. Herbster and Miss Odessa Haines were quietly married on the evening of the 9th inst. by Rev. W. H. Fahs. May pleasant weather attend the couple down life's journey... Fifteen acres of land adjoining the northern limits of town belonging to the heirs of H. Kern, dec'd, have been laid out in building lots... The new barn on Reuben Zechman's farm about 1 mile south west of town is nearing completion... Rev. W. H. Fahs preached his farewell sermon in the Lutheran church on Sunday forenoon from Acts, 22:32... Messrs. Howard Sallada and Frank Buck of New Ringgold, Schuykill Co., rode on their wheels to this place to visit the former's brother, Dr. J. G. Sallada, at the Central hotel... F. E. Specht, wife and son, Schaeffer, are spending the week at Eagle's Mere... Mrs. Frank Beaver and her mother Mrs. Mary Aigler visited the latter's sister at Phillipsburg, last week... Mrs. Jacob Freed and her daughter, Jennie, attended the Port Royal fair... Miss Annie J. Snyder has returned from a trip to Newport and various other points... Miss Maggie Schambach of Adamsburg, spent last week with friends here... Mrs. T. A. Shortiss and children are the guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher... W. B. Rudy and wife of Millinburg spent last week in town... Mrs. Susan Hoekbroch of Richfield is visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. B. Winey... Mrs. John Heimbach is on the sick list.

TROXELVILLE.

Our Farmers have about all finished sowing, and have commenced cutting off corn... Last week Esq. James Middleworth, J. O. Goss and John F. Zechman were up to Huntingdon Co. to testify in a case pending against H. W. Troxel, one of our townsmen. Mr. Troxel was acquitted, but given 1/3 of the costs. He was defended by A. W. Potter Esq. of Selinsgrove, who showed the "legal lights" of Old Huntingdon that he is no baby lawyer... Our nimrods report quails to be exceedingly scarce... The indications are that we will have an abundance of chestnuts: that insures fat raccoons... Jacob B. Rigel, an old gentleman from this place, is not expected to live till this is seen in print... The Troxelville "Sweaters" are of the opinion, that the "Index Medicines" have so thoroughly cleansed the Kratzerville Rip Van Winkle of his impurities, so that he is now gaining flesh at the rate of 1/4 an inch a month; and that this superficial flesh is what makes him think that the weather is so hot. Next time he wakes up—six weeks after the game is played—he will find the "Sweaters" wearing heavy overcoats.

Notes From Bucknell University

The prospects for a large attendance next year are very bright. The number of applications for catalogues and rooms is unprecedented.

Prof. T. A. Edwards, the new Principal of Bucknell Academy, has arrived and is getting things in shape for the opening of the preparatory school.

Miss Minnie Gould, of Uxbridge, Ontario, a graduate of the Artists' Department of the Conservatory of Toronto, and a teacher of five years experience, is the new vocal teacher in the Bucknell school of music.

A quarter of a mile cinder track will be put on the athletic field before the next spring meet. Football is booming, and there will be plenty of new material to work on besides the number of old players. Manager Cregar has made a schedule of good dates.

The five departments open September 13th. On the day before, there will be introductory addresses to both new and old pupils by some distinguished speaker. This is a new feature in the opening program and one that will likely prove popular.
