

In run by the editors, it is not an "organ," it wears no "collar," it never makes an issue, and never sold out. Subscription $1.50 a year.

ITEMS of LOCAL INTEREST

The Roll of Honor will be found on page 5.

The Lewisburg fair is in progress this week.

The Milton Fair will be held Oct. 3, 4 and 5th.

The Republican Club meets next Tuesday evening.

Now is the time place your Fall advertisements.

A chewing gum factory will be built at Sunbury.

The Oriental Band will hold a festival next Saturday evening.

James G. Crouse, Esq. has a new case to plea for at this week's court. It is a girl.

Geo. B. M. Arnold and B. Frank Arley of Adamsburg were in town Sunday.

Gen. Daniel H. Hastings will speak at the Lewisburg fair on Friday of this week.

Dr. Emerick, Selinsgrove guarantees satisfaction in fitting of glasses and treatment of catarrh.

We are glad to hear that Bucknell University is booming with a large number of students this year.

Sunbury has a total of 1,216 children in her public schools, 89 of which have reached the highest grade.

D. T. Rhoads was brought home from Pittsburg last week having become sick in the Smoky City.

Coming to many cases being settled in court the attendance was comparatively small.

M. Aurand, the wife of the grand of Adamsburg, was seated visitor on Saturday.

A. W. Lentz of Millersville preached a very able sermon on Sunday evening from Psalms 17:15.

E. Davis of Sunbury is the executor of the estate of his father the late James K. Davis of Selinsgrove.

The Foot-Ball season is opening and every college bred youth wear a Foot-Ball hair cut.

The business man who don't advertise loses far more through lack of trade than he pays the printer.

Robbers broke into E. G. Shaffer's store at Oriental last week and stole $100 worth of goods and dry.

Republicans, turn out next Tuesday evening to make arrangements for the reception of our Congressmen.

When the merchant stops advertising people get the idea into their heads, that his business is "going down."

Coming to Hebrew Holidays on the 10th and 11th of October, H. Oppenheimer's store at Selinsgrove will be closed.

W. H. Kales is 73 years old, so the lawyer statesman from Columbia County was mistaken when he said he was 70.

The old kind of stove pipe, the cheapest stove repairs you can get, go to M. L. SHANNON.

For the thing for apple butter, the best cleaning time! Old newspapers for sale at this office at 10¢ a hundred.

Swengel of Paxtonville, who graduated at C. P. College last June, matriculate as a law student at the University.

Republicans of the Eighth district at Mauch Chunk nominated ex-Senator General Kirkpatrick of Luzerne, for congress.

Before in the knowledge of the most citizens was it known that corn, rye and potatoes brought the same price in the markets.

M. L. Emerick, specialist on diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, has opened an office on High Street, Selinsgrove, Pa.

A heavy frost was observed on Wednesday morning.

Cool nights and cooler weather in general was observed this week by the weather cranks.

Elon Snook of Troxelville raised a cabbage head that measured 36 inches in circumference.

Prof. I. L. Herman, formerly Principal of the Middleburgh school, goes to Conyngham, Luzerne Co. to teach this year.

My store will be closed Monday October 1st and Wednesday Oct 10th both being Hebrew Holidays. M. Millner, Kantz, Pa.

The September issue of the ISSUETTE JOURNAL will be mailed from this office the latter part of this week.

My store will be closed on Monday Oct. 1st and Wednesday Oct. 10th both being Hebrew Holidays. R. GUNSBURGH.

T. H. Harter, Editor of the Bellefonte Gazette, was in town this week in the interest of a libel suit against James P. Smith.

The Mifflinburg Telegraph says: "Buckwheat harvesting has been begun in Snyder county, the land noted for hills, bank barns and hardy people."

A western man was recently shot by a neighbor who objected to his singing "Sweet Marie." The local paper headed it accounts: "Sold his life for a mere song."

W. H. Rhoads, a brother of our townsman J. H. Rhoads and a member of the firm of the Keyston Printing Company, Pittsburg, Pa. is visiting D. T. Rhoads.

Teachers should provide themselves with certificates of scholarship. A very neat design that will last all winter can be had very reasonably at this office.

President Cleveland never misses an opportunity to send a congratulatory message, but no record has yet been made of him having sent any to Maine.

The Milton Furniture Company, whose Advertisement appears in this issue is a new company and is in no way, connected with any other concern.

What s-t-i-n-g-y spells depends upon whether you refer to the business department of a bee or to the man that borrows his neighbor's paper to save a penny.

SHINGLES! SHINGLES!! I have just received 100,000 No. 1, 2 and 3 24-inch White-pine Shingles. Call and see them before buying elsewhere. F. H. MAUREN, New Berlin, Pa.

Many of our subscribers called on us this week. Space forbids us giving all the names. The names of those who have paid appear in the Roll of Honor.

The Schnure Bakery at Mifflinburg was sold to Royer and Close. They in turn sold it to James Beaver. His wagon will be driven to Middleburgh regularly by Charles Rudy.

Among those of our citizens who attended the picnic at Centre Hall last week are the following: C. C. Seibold and wife, J. W. Runkle and family and Jennie Stahnecker.

NOTICE.—As I intend to close out my stoves, you can buy them at first cost. They are first class goods and all insured. M. L. SHANNON, Swinesford, Pa.

FOR SALE.—A jet black, chuck mare, 4 years old, solid, sound and all right. Good actor. Warranted in every particular. Will be sold cheap. Too much stock. I. L. KLINE, Troxelville, Pa.

Last year a dollar was good for twenty-two pounds of granulated sugar but now you get about sixteen pounds. These are the "good old Democratic times", promised by the Democratic leaders and orators a couple of years ago.

AMOS H. MYLIN, Republican Candidate for Auditor General.

Gen. JAMES W. LATTA, Republican Candidate for Sec. of Internal Affairs.

Hoch and Oldt of New Berlin have reserved space in another column. Their announcement will be made next week.

Dr. J. O. Mohr of Centreville moved into Dr. Geo. P. Miller's house on the French Flats on Tuesday. He will take charge of Dr. Miller's practice.

We direct the attention of our readers to the space reserved by H. Oppenheimer, the clothier at Selinsgrove. The advertisement will appear next week.

Rev. Jacob R. Gearinger, pastor of the Nagle Street Church (Church of God), Harrisburg was committed to jail Monday, in default of bail, for criminally assaulting one of his female Sunday school scholars, aged about 15 years.

The Republican conference for the sixth Senate district was held at Bedford and on the second ballot nominated Allison Edwards, of Fulton county, who received the support of the conferees of Fulton-Somerset.

Shippensburg business men are making great preparation for a big industrial trades display Thursday, October 18, in celebration, as it were, of the fact that the town has so thoroughly withstood the recent depression in business affairs.

Rev. T. Bruce Birch of Boiling Springs and Sarah C. Himmelreich of Cowgoc were quietly married at the home of the bride on Sept. 15th. The first mentioned was a class mate while the latter was a former student of the writer. We wish them much happiness.

Wm. K. Miller, Esq. of Salem, Pa. was last week admitted to practice as an attorney in Union county. Mr. Miller is a bright, aspiring young man and a fine people of Union county will find him an honest counselor and a vigorous advocate for his clients.

The autopsy held on the remains of thirteen year old Harry J. Smith, of Antes Fort, who died recently in Williamsport hospital, revealed the fact that the lad had three kidneys. The discovery created great surprise among the physicians.

The Board of Public Buildings and Grounds awarded the contract for the chandeliers, wall brackets and other electrical fixtures for the House of Representatives and the new executive and library building to the Harrisburg electric light company.

Now that you have registered and have been assessed, the next thing to be attended to is the payment of your tax. Examine your receipts and see whether you have one dated since Nov. 1892. If not, and you are over 22 years old, you must pay a county or State tax before October 6.

The new bank building in Middleburgh is a substantial and ornamental structure. That town has attained to a higher standard of cleanliness. —Mifflinburg Telegraph. Right you are. We allow no factories to smoke our town or dirty it with cinder. The streets dare not be dug up for anything, not even for telephone poles.

The Thirtieth Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath-school Association will be held in the Presbyterian Church of Huntingdon, commencing at 7:30 P. M., Tuesday, October 9, 1894, and continuing through Wednesday and Thursday.

The Republican Congressional conferees took fifty ballots in Williamsport, in all 259, without result. They then adjourned to meet next Tuesday in Williamsport. It was rumored that Hopkins had been formally withdrawn, but his conferees deny the statement. They hope to continue the deadlock and have Hopkins chosen as a compromise candidate. The vote is a tie—Packer 6, Lewis 6.

MIDDLEBURGH, Sept. 18th, 1894. At a regular meeting of Capt. G. W. Ryan Post, No. 364 G. A. R., the following was adopted. Resolved: that all Comrades of Capt. G. W. Ryan Post assemble at the Post room on Oct. 16, 1894 at 8 o'clock A. M. to participate in the re-union of the 49th Regt. P. V. V. JAS. P. SMITH, P. C. G. C. GUTELIUS, Adjt.

Congressman Bill McAleer has been defeated for re-nomination in Phila. This did not please Colonel Bill Singler who had hoped to work his harmony scheme. Bill No. 1 got what he deserves. He was something and he was nothing. He claimed to be a Democrat and a Republican at the same time. Bill No. 2 is furiously mad. The one Bill is past defeat and the other one is expecting it.

We are informed that there was a bogus pension examiner traveling through Oriental and vicinity recently charging each one who he pretended to investigate a dollar and making big promises. All the pension officials are paid salaries by the government, and have no right to charge pensioners anything. If any one does, you can be sure that he is a fraud. Liverpool Sun.

The Baptist brethren of Northumberland are having a controversy over the doctrine of "Divine healing" and "Sanctification." It appears that some of their pastors, such as Revs. E. C. Pauling and A. S. Barner advocated the idea that their parishioners should cure all manner of diseases by faith and prayer. The committee from the church denounced these men as heretics.

The moon was full on Saturday night and had an eclipse on it—so were a good many fellows in this place full and had an eclipse over their eyes.—McVeystown Journal. We thought the Lord treated His people all alike, but since he gave us the eclipse on Friday evening and the McVeystown people one day later, it seems such is not the case, or perhaps His people don't live at McVeystown.

The Walter Re-union on Saturday in Bower's grove was largely attended. The various branches of this extensive family came from different parts of the State to lend a hand in making the Re-union of a time honored lineage a perfect success. Speeches were made by John Yoder, Prof. F. C. Bowersox, J. A. Snyder, Revs. J. S. Shambaugh and Rearick. These annual gatherings have the tendency to cement the bonds of union and make them more lasting.

The case of the Perry County Railroad Company against Constantine Maginnis and Francis R. White, contractors, and their sureties, Joseph C. Miller, C. W. Schaffner and Jonas White's estate which was on trial at Lancaster for a week or more, was concluded on the 13th inst., the jury rendering a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $6,946.67. Maginnis & White of Manheim, Lancaster county, contracted to build a railroad for the Perry County Railroad Company, but abandoned the road before it was completed. An appeal has been taken by the defendants.—Bloomfield Advocate.

RUSK'S STORY DENIED.

His Companions Say that Rusk is the Leader.

On Saturday evening, August 25, George Rusk, Horace Krumbine and Norman Long, from Chestnut Ridge, were attending a festival at Salem. They started for home about midnight. On the way home Rusk laid a plan to steal a chicken and roast it. This was opposed by the other two and a crock of milk vouched for. When they came to Thomas Bailey's they took a crock of milk from the spring house, drank it and set the crock in again. Then Rusk laid a plan to steal potatoes and chickens and sell them so they could hire a horse and buggy to attend a festival the following Saturday evening at Kratzerville. Finally, it was agreed to meet at Krumbine's the following Sunday evening in the wagon shed. They met at the proposed time, took some bags and a fork and started for William Hile's potato patch about three-fourths of a mile distant. They dug about four bushels, took them home and hid them in the barn. They then started for William Hile's residence took ten spring chickens from the roost and carried them home and hid them in the barn. The following week Krumbine sold them in Lewisburg and pocketed the funds. Rusk afterward stole a sack of sweet corn, carried it to Krumbine's house and hid it in the barn. In the meantime Krumbine had left his place and the corn was found in the barn. Rusk afterward told the story of the floating ark from Mr. Ira T. Clement, and live totally on stealing. He was trying to entice his companions to go along to the neighborhood of Danville to steal a horse. He said he knew where they could steal a horse, take it to Juniata county and sell it to a man for ready cash. They decided to meet the next morning at a certain place for committing the theft, but Krumbine's courage failed when it was to go in that deep and he backed out. Rusk went to Juniata county and perhaps being angry because his companions deserted him, gave away the robberies that had been carried into execution. He also volubly accused his companions of having made attempts to rob John Bailey and the stores at Shamokin Dam, but this his companions deny. He also accused five or six more of being in the gang, but his companions have given affidavits that the gang consisted only of the three aforesaid. Rusk was raised near Oriental, Juniata county. He had been employed by a farmer near Danville for several years and last summer he was employed by Jere Hummel, near Shamokin Dam, and confesses that he had been in such gangs at different times and says that no officer could arrest him.—Sunbury Item.

We have learned from R. C. Fiss, Justice of the Peace, of Shamokin Dam that Grumbine has not yet made his appearance and that Norman Long gives the same story that Rusk gave in our columns last week. Hence, the statement that Grumbine has made an affidavit is false.

The Soldier's Re-union.

The forty ninth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteer will hold their annual re-union in this place on Oct. 16th and 17th. The most extensive preparations are being made for a grand patriotic display and nothing will be left undone that will tend to make the veterans feel at home. Flags will be suspended across the streets at various places and houses will be decorated, and arranged in our country's colors. Citizens of the town should see that their houses are properly decorated. The committee of arrangements have engaged excellent talent to speak on this occasion and all stranger's will be warmly welcomed. A large number of people will be in attendance.