Union County Democrats.

The Democrats of Union county

art W. Barber ownship, their Assembly, vice cis E. Brown who declined. This was a proper act on the part of Union's Democracy, but how about the resolutions they have adopted? The Committee had the nerve, in the face of the silent factories and cold furnaces, almost in sight of the convention, to claim that the Democrats saved the country from ruin and destruction. They restored it as it were. They say: "For them [the people] we have fought a good fight; to them we have kept the faith; of them we have no fear." When they say they have kept the faith, we presume they thought it necessary to insert that clause to cover up the broken pledges. The voters of Union county are too intelligent to be hoodwinked in that way.

When they finished covering up the sins and errors of the party, they had to assail the record of B.
K. Focht, the "Member from Union." After all their desperate efforts to scrape up some charge against him, they found his record written in bold characters upon the hearts of the people whose votes in November will tell the tale of honest conviction and honest representation.
The people were hoodwinked in 1892 and they are not going to allow it to occur so soon again. The people were never so anxious to vote as they are now and they don't propose to jeopardize any of their interests to gratify personal ambition.
B. K. Focht and the entire republican ticket will carry Union county with a larger majority than has been given for many years.

Singerly Admits Defeat.

The Philadelphia Record, edited by William M. Singerly, is sad because McAleer was turned down for Congress by the Democrats of the Third district, it being one of the conditions of Mr. Singerly's accepting the Democratic nomination for Governor that McAleer should be nominated. In the Record's Thursday morning Candidate Singerly practically withdraws from the ticket.
Just what he says is as follows:
TO THE STATE DEMOCRACY.

"The action of the Democrats who controlled the convention in the Third Congress district yesterday, it may as well be confessed now as sixty days hence, will thoroughly demoralize, dishearten and defeat Democratic effort to poll a full vote in the city in November.

That district was the key to the situation in Philadelphia, and Democrats throughout the State are entitled to a candid admission of the failure of the organization here to bring about harmonious action, and the necessary consequences of failure.
"From this time forth the canvass should be waged throughout the State with a view to the election of as many Congressmen, Senators, Representatives and county officials as possible, without special effort for the State ticket. Effort should be concentrated at those points where it may prove effectual. The State ticket has been doomed by the practical abandonment of organized action in Philadelphia, where 100,000 Democrats have allowed themselves to be handcuffed and delivered into the control of a few contemptible ringsters, roosters and ruffians."

How Is It?
The well intentioned citizen who has not yet decided how to vote at the coming election may well consider his ground. I hope he will inquire of himself how he likes the conditions since the Republican party has gone out of power. How has it been with him individually? Has he had steady employment? Is he paid the old Republican wage rate? Does he find the cost of living cheaper and the ability to meet that cost better?
Is his business prosperous? Is he as contented and confident of the future as before? When he has answered to himself these vital questions let him, on his way to the polls, pass the silent mill, the cold furnace, the broken bank, the deserted forge; let him pass by poverty and want, business paralyzed and confidence vanished and then record his judgment of the responsibility for these conditions and his hope for the future in the ballot which he places in the box.—From speech of General Hastings at the League of Clubs convention.
