Reception To Their Pastor.

Rev. Foster U. Gift was tendered a surprise reception last evening. He was decoyed to the house of John Stackhouse on Eighth street, and there was led into a room with all his congregation filling every available space. It was a complete surprise. Mr. Gift has labored faithfully in the Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, and to show their appreciation of his work the congregation presented him with a well filled purse. Mr. James Matter made the presentation. Rev. Mr. Gift replied in a few appropriate words. A quartette rendered excellent music. Of course refreshments were not lacking. It was a highly enjoyed evening throughout, and has proven the loyalty of the people of Grace Church to their pastor. Mr. Gift has been in the city but three months, and has held the church services in the Y. M. C. A. —Scranton Truth.
