A Beautiful Memorial.

On Tuesday last an unique memorial was placed on his burial lot at Selinsgrove by Rev. W. A. Haas, in memory of his departed wife, and son, consisting of a "Rock" of Quincy granite 4x3 feet 2.4, with a rustic cross 1.6x1.2x04 on top, also corresponding markers for each grave, purchased from William Moyer, weighing 4800 lbs., and was taken from the station by Messrs. Isaac and Irvin Romig, who with team and leverage placed it safely without a scratch upon its foundation. The rock is just as it came out of the quarry, without tool marks or polish except the two polished panels. On the front panel is cut:

SARAH A.,
Wife of Rev. W. A. Haas,
January 23, 1848.
March 23, 1893.

On the side panel:

GEO. HERMON HAAS.
June 10, 1871.
August 4, 1893.

The above design was original with Rev. Haas, and is expressive of his deep sense of the beautiful, and hallowed associations of a rock with a Christian's grave, arising from the fact that the rock or "stone" was rolled from the sepulchre when Christ arose and rested near the grave. This piece of beautiful artistic work will be much admired by the deceased.—Courier.

A Boarding House Thief.

On Tuesday last a young fellow calling himself George Mitchell, slender but not tall, dark complexion and a black moustache, representing that he had charge of a gang of Western Union telegraph linemen which he expected here, applied at Mrs. O'Dell's for boarding, stating that one of our merchants had recommended the place. As the house was full the hostess said she could not accommodate him. He said he did not care to go to a hotel and if it could possibly be arranged he would willingly pay in advance. After much persuasion George Dufe, a permanent boarder, consented to share his room with the stranger who seemed grateful for the accommodation. Next morning, after breakfast and the regular boarder had gone to work, the stranger visited the room, donned Dufe's overcoat, leaving his own, took his watch and $10.40, and left the house, forgetting to return. [illegible] he is an itinerant [illegible] he may be apprehended [illegible] list of victims grows larger. The Fa Press.

Palpitation of the Heart

Shortness of Breath, Swelling of Legs and Feet.

"For about four years I was troubled with palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath and swelling of the legs and feet. At times I would faint. I was treated by the best physicians in Savannah, Ga., with no relief. I then tried various Springs without benefit. Finally, I tried also his Nerve and Liver Pills. After beginning to take them I felt better! I continued taking them and I am now in better health than for many years. Since my recovery I have gained fifty pounds in weight. I hope this statement may be of value to some poor sufferer."

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

E. B. SUTTON, Ways Station, Ga.
