

BEAVERTOWN.

Mrs. J. M. Kline is down with typhoid fever. Katie, a nine year old daughter of John Aigler, is a victim of scarlet fever. Ner. Fees, whose barn was this summer struck by lightning and consumed, erected a new barn on the site of the old one. Miss Maggie Davis, after spending several weeks here, has returned to her home in Philadelphia. Chas. L. Wetzel and family spent Sunday in Union Co. Benj. Heimbach and wife of New Berlin recently visited friends in town. WILD ROSES.

TROXELVILLE.

Mrs. Simon Sipe is on the sick-list. The majority of our farmers are through husking corn. Our threshers have finished up their work last week, and the crew is now so fat that they "wabble." Our Hastings' Club will go to Middleburgh on the 2nd. This coming Thursday evening, the Club will have a demonstration at this place, when R. F. Smith will unravel the tariff question, and N. M. Middlesworth will address the meeting in "Pennsylvania Dutch." Jacob Bingham bought the town property of Tillie Heintz at Sheriff's Sale on Saturday; and Jacob D. Shrader bought the farming land east of town. Last Friday, the Troxelville hunting club killed their second bear for this season: it was a regular "Jumbo," and was shot by that expert rifle-shot, Frank Ettinger. Bears seem to be plentiful but the deer are everlastingly scarce. We were out two days, seven men in the party, and not a sign of a deer was seen by any one of us. Cal. Joe.

SELINGROVE.

Parents should keep a better watch over their children than they do. It would be safe to say that if a careful investigation were made it would be discovered that five-sixths of all the boys over 8 years of age in the Public schools of Selingsgrove smoke cigars, cigarettes or chew tobacco. It is natural for parents to say, "My boy would not, I can trust him," and to find out when too late that their trusted offspring is only human, and on account of its not having the correct training during childhood becomes one of the vast majority of inebriated and criminals. A number of Selingsgrove democrats, headed by Col. Wm. Holtzworth went to Sunbury last Saturday to see "Bill" Singler. We don't know what was wrong but one of the number lost his collar. Rev. Schnable of Freeburg was in town last week. Dr. E. W. Tool and family drove through town on Saturday. A. W. Potter, Esq. went to Philadelphia to see the McClellan monument unveiled. H. L. Phillips, the tailor, is in Philadelphia. We noticed several old soldiers from out of town, were here putting their money in circulation. Miss Rose Ayers of Middleburgh was seen on our streets on Saturday. Liveryman "Jonie" Miller drove to Danville on Saturday and traded horses. By all appearance "Jonie" has the best of the bargain. Geo. G. Schure of New Berlin was in town Tuesday. The Owls will circulate next Friday evening. J. Arthur Frontz spent a few days in town. Mrs. F. J. Schoch and daughter Eva were to Sunbury Tuesday afternoon. H. E. Davis of Sunbury was in town Monday. Dr. W. H. Ulsh, formerly of this place, but now of Hazleton, in company with Dr. Longshore, spent Sunday with his parents. -Yor Know.
