Bachelors' Reunion. On Nov. 4th at one o'clock the Bachelors' Association of Snyder county enjoyed a sumptuous banquet at the Eagle Hotel in Swineford. The party consisted of nine jovial fellows as follows: E. G. Shindel, Barber Simonton, Dr. J. C. Amig, A. E. Cooper and G. W. Wagenseller of Middleburgh; Prof. C. G. Hendricks, Bloomsburg; A. G. Bashoar, of Adamsburg; D. E. Kremer of Phila. and W. G. Von Neida of Selingsgrove. Letters of regret were read from Roscoe C. North and Prof. R. Lloyd Schroyer of Selingsgrove, G. B. M. Arnold of Adamsburg, J. N. Thompson Jr. the father of the Movement and Jay G. Weiser of Middleburgh. The last two mentioned have offered their fees for life membership in the organization. One can readily see, however, that white feathers are unbecoming to the average blue jay. The jovial party did full justice to the delicious viands set before them. No vows of celibacy were made; in fact the matter was not considered as there was no one present who objected to ladies' society and several of the party have already made vows of allegiance for life companionship with the ladies of their choice. E. G. Shindel muttered something about his appetite and then something additional which was interpreted as follows: "Unhappy he who lets a tender heart, bound to him by the ties of earliest love, fall from him, by his own neglect and die because it met no kindness." While this has been facetiously called the Bachelor's Banquet, it may result in the permanent organization of the progressive young men of the county to be called the "Clover Club of Snyder county." The suggestion met with the unanimous approval of those present. The object of the organization shall be to promote conviviality and good fellowship. The participants were all well pleased with the banquet and anxious to have a repetition of the same. A considerable sum of money has been lost by residents of Bellefonte through the failure of the different discretionary pool syndicates in Pittsburg. George M. Irwin & Co. notified all their holders here of the fact that they could not pay them back anything. The losses vary from $20 to $1,000 and the total amount is estimated at nearly $5,000. Mrs. Wm. Kiscadden, aged 70, of Bluehill was struck and killed about 9 o'clock Saturday morning by a south-bound Philadelphia and Reading passenger train. She was walking on the track on her way to Northumberland and was struck by the train as it was moving around a sharp curve. It is supposed the prevailing high wind prevented the unfortunate woman from hearing the approaching train.

Final Republican Rally. On last Friday the Republicans of the county were nearly all at Middleburgh. As early as eleven o'clock they began to come to town and after dinner delegations from nearly all parts of the county arrived. At 3 o'clock the club convention was called to order. G. W. Wagenseller was elected president. The following were elected secretaries: Frank Bowersox, Ner M. Middleburgh, J. A. Lombard, A. M. Aurand, H. B. Moyer. The address of welcome was delivered by G. W. Wagenseller Editor of the Post. Addresses were delivered by club representatives as follows: Freiburg, Dr. E. W. Toole; Salem, Wm. K. Miller, Esq.; Troxelville, Nor. M. Middleburgh. Other delegations came until 9 Republican Clubs were present. The special train from McClure arrived at 7 o'clock. The parade was formed near the depot under the directions of Dr. J. W. Orwig Chief Marshal. About 550 men were in line and the procession was the largest and most enthusiastic that has taken place in the county for many years. After parading the principle streets of town, the clubs were massed in front of the Washington House. Three ringing, roaring, rousing cheers were given for Hastings and the entire Republican ticket. The nine Republican Clubs present were from Adamsburg, Beavertown, Centerville, Freiburg, Middleburgh, McClure, Salem, Selingsgrove and Troxelville. The meeting was called to order by County Chairman, C. M. Arbogast. Wm. K. Miller was elected President of the meeting. The Editors of the Republican papers were elected secretaries and the long list of Vice Presidents were nominated and elected. Hon. Isaac B. Brown of Harrisburg was introduced and presented in a forcible manner the issues of the campaign. Hon. Chas. W. Herman then addressed the voters and explicitly showed that he proposes to vote and work for the people's interests while at Harrisburg as the member from Snyder county. Hon. J. S. Biery, ex-congressman of Allentown, was introduced. The speaker is an able and eloquent orator and for more than an hour he held the large audience attentively listening to his flights of oratory. The gathering was the largest and most successful that was held in the county this year. Everything passed off smoothly and harmoniously and the large majority is evidence of its success. NOTES. The Bands present were Middleburgh, Adamsburg, Beavertown, McClure, Troxelville and Chestnut Ridge, making six in all. The parade is said to have been the largest political parade ever held in Snyder county. The Chief Marshal's cavalry experience permitted the organization of the parade as a unit and to complete it without a single mishap or error. The Centerville club had the largest delegation in line and were preceded by their Drum corps. About 1500 people were in town during the mass meeting. Geo. Shindel, the Register and Recorder, deserves special credit for securing the special train.

HON. THAD. M. MAHON, our Congressman.

An Ohio farmer sold a farm for $12,000 and put the money in an unused chimney without telling his wife anything about it. On Wednesday a number of visitors called on his wife and she made a fire in the spare bedroom, where the money was hidden. The entire amount was burned. Fortunately for the old couple they had another farm left.
