ITEMS of LOCAL INTEREST

The green apple is always ripe for business. The court proceedings will be published next week. Miss Lottie Spangler of Verdilla is visiting relatives in town. Silklines reduced to 10 cents at Libbie Dunkelberger's Millinery. A light lunch establishment on Tenth street is known as the Sandwich Island. Prof. M. E. Musselman, the Union County pedagogue, dropped in to see us this week. Chas. Keller and wife of Adamsburg visited their relatives in Swinford, on Tuesday. Miss Vergie Sampsell of Centreville was the guest of Mrs. P. C. Hartman on Tuesday. J. Frederick Shaeffer of Sunbury transacted legal business in Middleburgh on Monday. The Pennsylvania State College Commencement will be held from June 9th to 12th. The scholarship contest is open to everybody. Don't be afraid to launch your ship. We are indebted to T. H. Harter for the privilege of using the cut of Abe Lazy in this issue. A new line of goods has just been received from New York, at L. Dunkelberger's Millinery. To stand by the right is the surest road to genuine prosperity after all, as the world's history clearly shows. Call on F. H. Maurer, New Berlin, to see the new spring goods that have just arrived from the Eastern cities. Jerome Thompson, Jr., Hon. Jay G. Weiser and ye editor spent the latter portion of last week in Philadelphia taking in the sights. The eighth Annual Convention of the Republican National League will meet in Music Hall, Cleveland, Ohio, June 19-21, 1895 at 10 o'clock A. M. William K. Miller, stenographer and type writer for the appropriation committee at Harrisburg, spent Sunday with Representative Herrman. The Muhlenburg College Commencement will be held at Allentown June 16-20, 1895. We are grateful to the president for an invitation. We are pleased to learn that our friend H. Newt. Nipple of Selinsgrove has secured a position in the Jefferson Medical College Hospital of Philadelphia. The C. E. Society of Hassinger's church will hold a festival at the church on Saturday evening, June first. The proceeds are to be used to purchase an organ. Salesmen Wanted.—To sell Non-Nicotine Midgets Cigars. Samples free. Salary or Commission. Good side line. Address, LANDIS & Co., Shippensburg, Pa. The Corner Stone of the United Evangelical Church of the Hummel's appointment will be laid on Sunday, June 2nd at 10 a. m. Prominent speakers will be present. BRICK FOR SALE.—Brick of the best quality for building and paving can be secured at reasonable rates by applying to CARBON SEEBOLD, Washington House, Middleburg, Pa. We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary copy of "The Varying Hare" or "White Rabbit" by Dr. B. H. Warren, State Ornithologist. Dr. Warren has no equal in his line of work. Prof. Wm. Moyer of Freeburg was in town on Tuesday and lifted his fifth commission as Justice of the Peace. He was commissioned a Notary Public by Gov. Curtin in 1864.

One way of elevating the stage is to have roof gardens. Mr. W. C. Farnsworth, of Halifax, who has been appointed corporation clerk in the State Department, will succeed Mr. Van Dyke on June 15th. Chas. L. Wetzel was nominated for County Surveyor and A. W. Potter was elected delegate to the State Convention by the Republican Standing Committee on Tuesday. A great many of our subscribers called to see us this week and left us a little oil of gladness. We are thankful to them for their prompt attention to our notice in last week's issue. Wanted.—Every smoker to send us 7 two-ct. stamps to help pay postage packing etc., and we will mail box of our Non-Nicotine Midgets Cigars. Only one box to one address. Address, LANDIS & Co., Shippensburg, Pa. A. W. Potter Esq., visited Middleburgh on Tuesday for the first time since the ill-fated visit of Jan. 24-5. His faithful attendant Carol Bolig and his son John cared for him while here. He attended court a while and seemed to greatly enjoy the trip. PICTURES! PICTURES!—During the early part of June I will visit Middleburgh and call upon the citizens to show them samples of the finest work on crayon portraits. I have placed a few portraits and in every instance the portrait must be satisfactory before any money is required. C. E. Coxson, Millinburg, Pa. The Roll of Honor is published in this issue. If you have paid your subscription during the last five weeks, you should have credit in the Roll of Honor and also upon the label of your paper. If the credits are incorrect, kindly inform us at once. At the Sheriff's sale last week Emanuel Benfer bought the Percival Leitzel tract for $600. Tobias Reitz purchased the Jacob Erb tract for $300. S. H. Stroub purchased Lydia Bilger's Tract No. 1 for $1000 and J. O. Goss, Tract No. 2 for $200. Joseph Walter and K. C. Walter purchased Allen Schoch's farm for $4900 plus a dower of $5000. Dr. Adam C. Spangler has our thanks for an invitation to attend the graduating exercises of the Dental Department of the University of Pennsylvania to be held in the Academy of Music, Thursday morning June 13th, at eleven o'clock. The invitations are neat and handsome. Our congratulations are extended to the young doctor. The peculiar decision of Judge Biddle, of Cumberland county, regarding the publication of marriage licenses, has caused the introduction of a bill in the Legislature, making the license register open to the public, and there is no doubt of its becoming a law. Had the ruling of Judge Biddle been allowed to stand one of the main reasons for passing the marriage license law would have been a nullity. At a recent meeting of the Managers it was decided to hold the 22nd Annual Grangers' Picnic Exhibition at Williams' Grove, Cumberland County, Pa., August 26th to 31st, 1895, inclusive. It was decided to make quite a number of improvements to the buildings and grounds. For full particulars relative to Cottages, Tents, Exhibit Space and Privileges address R. H. THOMAS, General Manager, Mechanicsburg, Pa. Capt. Rhodes, one of the representatives of Northumberland county, is making an excellent record for himself at Harrisburg. He introduced the bill asking for $10,000 to institute a hospital at Sunbury and the committee has reported favorably for $8,000. This is doing remarkably well considering that all appropriations are cut short. The captain is the soldier's friend and is a partner in business with John D. Bogar of Port Treverton.

Resolutions Endorsing the Action of the Legislature in Defeating the Apportionment Bills. The following resolutions were unanimously passed at a meeting of the Republican County Standing Committee held at Middleburgh, on the 28th instant. WHEREAS, measures were introduced into the Legislature, looking towards the dismemberment of our Judicial, Congressional and Senatorial Districts, and WHEREAS, the Republicans of Snyder County are opposed to the reapportionment of the State as proposed by the bills introduced; Therefore be it Resolved, that we thank our State Senator, Hon. William H. Hackenberg and our Representative, Hon. Chas. W. Herman, as well as all the Senators and Representatives of the 18th Congressional and 27th Senatorial District, for their unanimous and determined opposition to the measure, which added so greatly to the defeat of the bills on the 21st inst. Resolved, that our Representatives and Senators of the 18th Congressional and 27th Senatorial Districts be urged to use their earnest endeavors to prevent a reconsideration of any apportionment measures at this session. Resolved, that copies of these resolutions be forwarded to Senator Hackenberg and Representative Herman, and by them presented to their colleagues of the 18th Congressional and 27th Senatorial Districts. Late Literary News. Rudyard Kipling will shortly return to India where he will prepare, for the Cosmopolitan, twelve articles to appear in the American and English editions of that magazine. India is one of the most interesting of countries, and Mr. Kipling is able to write of it as no one else. His work will be looked forward to with world-wide expectation. Perhaps the most beautiful series of pictures ever presented of the Rocky mountain will be found in a collection of fourteen original paintings, executed by Thomas Moran for the May Cosmopolitan. To those who have been in the Rockies, this issue of the Cosmopolitan will be a souvenir worthy of preservation. This number contains fifty-two original drawings, by Thomas Moran, Oliver Herford, Dan Beard, H. M. Eaton, F. G. Attwood, F. O. Small, F. Lix, J. H. Dolph, and Rosina Emmet Sherwood, besides six reproductions of famous recent works of art, and forty other interesting illustrations—ninety-eight in all. Though the Cosmopolitan sells for but fifteen cents, probably no magazine in the world will present for May so great a number of illustrations specially designed for its pages by famous illustrators. The fiction in this number is by F. Hopkinson Smith, Gustav Kobbe, W. Clark Russell, Edgar W. Nye, and T. C. Crawford. Chas. A. Stewart D. D. S. and Chas. W. Wagner of Washington rode on their bicycles to this office last week. They called at this place while we were at Philadelphia. Come again, gentlemen, perhaps we will be at home next time. A WOMAN WHO WILL WORK WANTED in every county to introduce the Celebrated "Hygeia" Waists for all ages. This Waist supercedes the corset, and has received the unanimous approval of the leading physicians of America. $3.00 outfit free. Any energetic woman can make from $15 to $50 weekly. Send for circulars and terms. HYGEIA MFG CO., 4-11-3m. 378 Canal St., New York. I AM STILL ALIVE.—The time has come when every body should get a gallon of Marks' Pure Rye Whiskey for use during the summer. These goods are better for you than medicine. I have on hand a fine stock all my own manufacture and I guarantee these goods are not drugged. J. L. MARKS, Middleburgh, Pa.

The above cut represents Abe Lazy, the original tramp, the man who served for half a century as a terror to women and children and a living demonstration that the world owes every man a living. He is dead now, died in the insane asylum at Harrisburg a short time ago, not that he was insane, but because no one wanted to care for him any more. His body was sent as a subject for the dissecting table in Philadelphia where he probably rendered his first service to mankind. The picture was taken in Middleburgh in 1890, in a tin type for which he consented to sit after a considerable coaxing and a liberal portion of tobacco from the writer (then editor of the Middleburgh Post), and is probably the only one in existence of the famous old vagabond. At that time he was living with a family in Richfield, Pa., by the name of Winey, who had taken pity on the decrepit old vagrant and furnished him with a home. His passion for tramping, however, had not forsaken him, and although he was compelled to use two canes, and his gate was painful and slow—at best less than a mile an hour—he kept up his nomadic life, almost as helpless as a child and yet independent as a hog on the ice. He had been against the world and the world seemed set against him. He had often felt the sting of the cartwhip wielded by the hand of an indignant parent whose domain he had invaded and insulted the family or destroyed their property to vent his spleen. He had a long memory and was as cunning as a fox. One merit may be accorded to him. He never spoke unkindly of anybody but pretended to have forgotten the name of every individual whom he judged as having gotten even with him during his incessant ramblings. Obstinate as an army mule he would never do what you requested of him, and the least offence would render him sour and sullen. The picture represents him just as we picked him up from the street. His pockets were crammed full of old magazines and periodicals—for the simple reason, we presume, because we had urged him to take the latter. We insisted upon him taking off his hat, remove his papers and button his coat to have his picture taken. His reply was: "Y-y-youngoto—!" Abe Lazy was a character the like of which we do not think exists. He was known all over Central Penn., as "Old Abe Lazy" forty years ago, and no one has ever been able to learn his age or parentage, but it is said, although without any known authority, that his original name was Lawrence, and that he came from a wealthy family. His depositions in Penns Valley alone would fill a volume, and, if as Shakespeare says, "the good men do is buried with their bones," Old Abe Lazy will not be crowded for room in his coffin.—Bellefonte Gazette. The Democratic committee met on Tuesday and elected A. W. Auckler, chairman.

A Large Death Record. On Friday evening Philip Swineford, an aged and respected citizen of this borough passed to his reward. While he had been weak from age, he was not sick. He had been enjoying his usual health, and did not show any signs of sickness. He had been conversing with his son, James, a few minutes before he was found dead. A coroner's jury was appointed by Elias Hummel, Justice of the Peace, consisting of Arthur Beaver, Gabriel Beaver, Howard Folk, Harry Reigle, Irwin Bowersox and C. F. Stetler. The jury rendered a verdict of death caused by a stroke of apoplexy. The deceased had a similar stroke three years ago. The remains were laid to rest on Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock. Mr. Swineford for his entire life lived in this place and died at the good old age of 66 years. We regret to chronicle the death of Hon. S. H. Yoder, mention of whose sickness was made in our last issue. He had been ailing for but little over two weeks and he met his end on Tuesday morning. He served one term as Associate Judge of our courts and at the time of his death was a director of the First National Bank of this place. He has been engaged in the milling business for a number of years. He enjoyed an extensive acquaintance over the entire county and was honored and respected by all who knew him. In business and in public life he was an untiring and a progressive man. His purpose and straightforwardness were to the fate that awaits us all. The funeral of Ex-Judge Yoder will take place from his late residence at eleven o'clock on Thursday morning. He will be buried by Lafayette Lodge, No. 194, Free and Accepted Masons according to ancient customs and landmarks of the fraternity. Mrs. Catherine Walter died at her late residence in this place on Saturday morning having attained the age of 89 years. Her husband, David Walter died about 25 years ago. She was buried on Wednesday in Mensch's graveyard in Union County. Among the numerous deaths that have occurred since our last issue is that of John Musser of Franklin Township. He was a good citizen and his friends and neighbors in his death lose a warm friend and an ardent advocate of the right. A Vulcanizer Explodes. On Monday as Dr. J. W. Orwig was making a set of teeth his Vulcanizer exploded causing considerable damage, though, fortunately no one was hurt. The Vulcanizer had been used a long time and the threads had been worn off a great deal and when the pressure became very great, the lid was forced off and thrown up against the ceiling knocking three holes in the ceiling and battering the heavy brass lid. The pressure downward was equally as great and crushed the support beneath. Three large window panes were broken either from the concussion or from the rapid escape of steam which forced the air out against the panes and caused them to give away. The doctor had just been in his laboratory to examine the Vulcanizer and walked out when the explosion occurred that was heard for nearly a square. It is exceedingly fortunate that no one was near as the momentum of the lid, had it hit any one, would have laid the victim in his grave. KANTZ. The Kantz Cornet Band will hold a festival June 1... Mrs. S. Holtzaple and Mrs. Nicholas were at home visiting their parents... Amon Fisher is happy because it's a girl. JOLLY BOYS.
