M. to select three persons to count the votes on August 10. Persons should be selected who were disinterested in the contest and who will be sure to be present on Saturday, August 10, when the votes shall be counted. Senator Quay wants the voters of Allegheny county to decide whether he or Gikeson should be chairman of the Republican State committee. As the delegates from that county have already been elected, and as Chris Magee, who is opposed to Quay, will have something to say about the matter, it is not probable that the voters will have a chance to vote their choice. Our readers may not be aware of the fact that at the last session of the legislature an amendment was passed to the marriage license law which was signed by the governor on June 18th. The amendment makes a marriage license now good in any county in the state, instead of simply in the county of issue. The party performing the ceremony must make the return to the officer who issued the license. It would be well for clergymen and others authorized by the law to perform marriages, to make a note of the above fact, as there is a heavy fine for a failure to properly report within thirty days all marriages performed. The act went into effect at once. In all other respects the law remains as it was.

HON. MATTHEW STANLEY QUAY.

"A Campaign of Assassination" Carried on by Men, whom Senator Quay raised to positions of Influence and Prominence. There is a vicious warfare being waged in Pennsylvania against Hon. Matthew Stanley Quay and the citizens of Snyder County are invited to consider the following facts in casting their votes at our Primary Nomination on August third when Senator Quay and Mr. Gikeson will run as candidates for Chairman of the State Central Committee. 1. Senator M. S. Quay has for eight years represented his state in the Senate of the United States at Washington, D. C., and within that time he has not performed a single act, not recorded a single vote, which can be criticised as having been against the interests of the citizens of his native State. 2. As a United States Senator he has by his great personal influence and political prominence secured the passage of more laws, which directly benefit our State and our Country, than has any Senator ever sent to Washington, from Pennsylvania. 3. As a Senator, Mr. Quay has always been found at his post of duty and has exercised a most patient, watchful and faithful care of the public, political and industrial interests of Pennsylvania and had it not been for his wide influence, his eminence as a statesman and as a Senator, this country never would have had the McKinley law passed through the Senate, an act which meant the saving of millions of dollars to the people of Pennsylvania and of the United States. 4. In 1888, one year after his election to the United States Senate, when other men who had been prominent in the political affairs of our Nation stood back and refused to lead the fight. Mr. Quay went to New York, accepted the Chairmanship of the Republican National Committee and won the election for President Benjamin Harrison. The people of Pennsylvania ought to be proud of such a man and Senator Quay to-day is recognized throughout the entire United States as the leading Republican Chiefitan who will be called to the front next year to manage the campaign for the election of a Republican President. 5. Senator Quay is a candidate for Chairman of the State Central Committee, and his success means the success of the Republican Party in 1896 and the election of a Republican President. His defeat would be a loss to our State and Nation which we could not repair and would be the greatest encouragement to the Democrats of the land. 6. What is this fight against Senator Quay? It is a selfish battle made against him by "Boss" Magee of Pittsburgh the campaign Lobbyist at Harrisburg and by "Bosses" Martin and Porter of Philadelphia. These City Combines are formed of the very worst and most corrupt politicians ever known and they want to defeat Senator Quay, who has always stood by the country districts, and they, themselves want to get the political control of Pennsylvania, and run our State as they run the large cities. Should these "Hog Combines" win, our State will be in the selfish grasp of the city politicians and the country districts will be "out in the cold." 7. Senator Quay himself favors the country because he lives in the country himself, and if we wish to maintain our Political Independence we must preserve our State against the corrupt influences of the large cities, drive back these hungry hounds and see to it that they do not defeat our very best friend, our great leader, Senator M. S. Quay. Let the Snyder county Republicans vote for Senator Quay and show these city chaps that they cannot boss our county. Attention, Republicans! In accordance to the call of the Chairman of the State Central Committee, "That the Delegate to the State Convention shall be chosen in the manner in which Candidates for the General Assembly are nominated," the Election will be held in the several Districts of Snyder County on Saturday Aug. 3, between 2 and 7 o'clock P. M. to elect a Delegate to State Convention and also submit to you the choice for Chairman of State Central Committee. CHAS. M. ARBOGAST, County Chairman. Some of Uncle Sam's Business. Complaints come from the patrons of the Shamokin Dam Post Office. For the past three or four months the good citizens of Monroe township, who have forwarded money to various places for merchandise, newspapers, etc., never received their goods. A note was sent to the Prothonotary of this County about six weeks ago with the fee for entering the same enclosed. Neither the note nor the money has turned up. It is a matter of justice to the Postmaster and his clerk to say that no suspicion rests on them. They themselves are the victims of these deprivations and are doing everything in their power to locate the thefts. "There is something rotten in Denmark." Stamps, knives, silks, and even money orders are missing. Of course the money orders have as yet not been used, but the persons who should have received them did not get them. We were in hopes that Uncle Sam would locate them ere this. Surely this should not require all this time. We trust the offenders will be speedily brought to justice. A dozen of the Middleburgh ladies propose to have a straw ride this Wednesday evening. W. J. Wagenseller of Selinsgrove, the father of the Editor of this paper, is lying at the point of death. He has not recognized any one for several days and is no longer able to speak. "MISTAKEN SOULS WHO DREAM OF BLISS."—The following marriage licenses have been granted since our last publication: Edward Erdley, Franklin Twp.; Annie M. Gilbert, Union; Jacob Walter, Monroe Twp.; Lulu Stroub, " " " " Harry Bobb, Shamokin Dam; Nora Meckley, " " " " Allen R. Knouse, Middlecreek Twp.; Emma V. Wetzel, " " " " Jacob Duttry, Wilberton, Pa.; Anna H. Gaugler, Port Trevorton; J. O. Herman, Edwardsville; M. M. Spangler, Union Twp. Elias Hummel, one of the most prominent citizens of this place died at his residence on Sunday noon. He had been sick for about a month. His ailment was due to Bright's disease of the kidneys and a complication of Heart Troubles. At the time of his death, Mr. Hummel was serving his second term as Justice of the Peace of the borough and was conducting a livery stable. The deceased was always genial and during his career had made many friends who now lament his death. He was buried on Wednesday and was 52 years of age.

EMBEZZLEMENT.

W. H. GOODLING OF FREEBURG VICTIM—SNYDER COUNTY TREASURER SEEBOLD. It leaked out last week that W. H. Goodling of Freeburg had skipped with seven or eight hundred dollars of County Treasurer Seebold's money. Mr. Goodling was in the employ of C. C. Seebold, musical instrument dealer at Sunbury and attended to the business while Mr. Seebold was in this county attending to his duties as County Treasurer and to the remodeling of the Washington House in this place. Goodling left on Tuesday two weeks ago, but Mr. Seebold did not regard this act with any suspicion as he had previously gone away without giving any notice of his departure. When nothing was heard of Goodling, Mr. Seebold's suspicions were aroused and he examined the books and finding many accounts standing open on the ledger he started on a collecting expedition. Invariably he found the persons held receipts signed by Goodling for the full amount due Mr. Seebold. After making a pretty thorough canvass it was learned that from seven to eight hundred dollars had been secured and held. The embezzlement is a great blow to Goodling's friends. Mr. Seebold always placed implicit confidence in him and at no time did the employer feel that the interests of his business were in jeopardy. Fell from a Bridge. On Saturday Mrs. P. L. Romig of Selinsgrove received a message that her husband had fallen from a bridge at Lynchburg, Virginia. He was hurt about the head. Mrs. Romig caught a late train at Selinsgrove Junction and hastened to her injured husband. She arrived there on Sunday afternoon. Perry L. Romig, the injured man, is a son of Isaac D. Romig and a brother of Chas. A. Romig both of whom were killed at Kreamer on the 25th of January last. This made the news of Mr. Romig's injuries far more doleful. It was feared that he had been killed but later telegraphic advices say that he is resting quietly with chances of recovery. Later, Wednesday morning a letter was received from Mrs. Romig stating that Mr. Romig's skull was fractured and that he has been unconscious since the accident. There is not much hope of recovery. Mrs. Elmira App, who had been visiting friends in Indiana is again among Snyder county friends. The Junior Christian Endeavor Society will hold a picnic Thursday of this week at Hile's Island. Mr. C. G. Strong, principal of the public schools at Anderson, Cal., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have found it an excellent remedy for lameness and slight wounds." Lameness usually results from a sprain, or other injury, or from rheumatism, for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm is especially intended and unequalled. It affords almost immediate relief and in a short time effects a permanent cure. For sale by J. W. Sampsell, Penns Creek, Pa. One night when Mr. Isaac Reese was stopping with me, says M. E. Hatch, a prominent merchant of Quartermaster, Washington, I heard him groaning. On going to his room I found him suffering from cramp colic. He was in such agony I feared he would die. I hastily gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was soon relieved and the first words he uttered were "what was that stuff you gave me?" I informed him. A few days ago we were talking about this attack and he said he was never without that remedy now. I have used it in my family for several years. I know its worth and do not hesitate to recommend it to my friends and customers. For sale by J. W. Sampsell, Penns Creek, Pa.
