

THEY SPEAK FOR QUAY.

The following responses were given when asked their opinions on the State Chairmanship fight. The interviews were given two weeks before Saturday's election and for want of space could not be published before. The interviews are as follows:—

Ex-Sheriff Bolender is of the following opinion: I think any man who occupies the highest political position within the gift of the people, ought to be satisfied and let other matters alone. The Governor received a splendid majority, but he has no right to forsake the people who elected him to engage in a political quarrel. I am for Quay.

Ex-Prothonotary Wittenmyer says: I am for Quay, first last and all the time and I believe our people will sustain him in his efforts to be made State Chairman. In my opinion the Governor should have kept hands off. He has made a mistake. J. D. Winters: It is dead wrong for our Governor to mingle in such matters. He ought to get out of the fight.

Beneville Smith: Let us nominate McKinley for President. That will settle the whole matter.

Sheriff Specht has this to say about the fight: I think the Governor should have kept his hands off. I believe Martin and Magee are running away with him. It was a bad piece of business for the Governor to get mixed up in any fight and he should have kept out of it.

While I deprecate any bossism, it will be better for the party in the State and better for the people if Matthew S. Quay should gain a victory over the faction that is opposed to him at this time. There is no doubt but that Governor Hastings is a man of very high aspirations and he doubtless thought he could earlier realize them by linking himself with Philadelphia and Pittsburgh combines and if that faction succeeds, the seeds of political corruption which now are and have been flourishing in the city of Philadelphia will be more or less strewn and scattered all over our state to the detriment of our party and incidentally of the people at large. My sympathies are with Senator Quay, and it is a pity that a man like Governor Hastings should find himself in league with a faction which in the end will politically destroy him.

Dr. A. M. Smith Beaver Springs. In the present contest I cannot favor the Administration. I think Senator Quay has done too much for the Republican party to be set aside for a man like M. E. Gilkeson. I like Governor Hastings very much personally but when he goes in to fight the battles for one of his favorites in his administration family, I believe he is over reaching himself. I regard Senator Quay as a part of the very bone and sinew of the Republican party and for these reasons I can earnestly support him in his present fight. I am for Quay and I believe the people in my section of the county are for him.

Hon. Charles Miller of Penn Twp. says: I have not paid much attention to this fight between Senator Quay and Mr. Gilkeson, I don't know anything about Gilkeson, never knew there was such a man prominent in the State until Quay had him appointed to an office under Pres. Harrison and since then I believe he has been made Bank Commissioner in Harrisburg and the State pays him six thousand dollars a year to perform the duties of his position.

It seems to me he ought to resign that office if he wants to become Chairman of the State Committee, for a sworn official of the Commonwealth owes it to himself and to the people whom he is expected to serve, not to neglect his responsible duties for political honors.

For Colonel Quay, I can say that I have known him personally for twenty years. He is the most modest and quiet man in the State. I have always thought he was bashful and he talks in a very low voice. I never believed that Quay would fight the Governor and I do not understand that there is any contest between them now. It is between Quay and Gilkeson. It is not Quay's method to fight any man who is endeavoring to serve the people, for I think Quay is one of the ablest men in the United States Senate and his stand there in helping to pass the McKinley law entitles him to the support of every man who prefers his own country to England.

I think he has done more for the people in Pennsylvania than we have ever done for him and I believe the Republicans of Snyder county would rather have him for Chairman of the State Central Committee than anybody else. They ought to remember that we are going to elect seven Judges of the Superior Court and a State Treasurer and we need a good Chairman. Quay ought to be elected and I think the Republicans in the State will see to it that he is.

Committed Suicide.

The lifeless body of Stephen Boaler, of Williamsport, was given in charge of J. Howard Arbogast, undertaker, by P. B. Moyer, one of the Overseers of the Poor of Washington township Monday afternoon. Boaler was seen on our streets in the early part of the afternoon and several hours later when B. F. Arnold had occasion to go to Joseph Moyer's woods for posts he discovered that Boaler had hung himself at the fence along the public road leading from Freeburg to Middleburgh. The authorities were informed when Justice D. S. Boyer empanelled the following jury: Beni F. Arnold, J. S. Hendricks, Fred E. Hilbish, Geo. W. Holtzapple, P. B. Moyer and Jere Charles, who rendered a verdict that Stephen Boaler came to his death by his own hands. Upon his person were found a knife and a flask of whiskey. In his vest, which lay along the public road near the residence of S. G. Hilbish, were found $2.41 in money. The remains of Boaler were interred in the cemetery a mile north of Freeburg Tuesday evening which was witnessed by a number of our people. An item in one of the papers, dated Williamsport, July 15, gives the following: "Stephen Boaler an umbrella mender, died at the Almshouse, Williamsport, last night, aged 50 years. Boaler and his father, who is 81 years, was known as 'Moody and Sankey.' They had a route covering Lycoming, Union, Snyder, Mifflin, Juniata, Perry and Dauphin counties, which they traversed for many years. They have walked 93,360 miles in thirty-three years in plying their vocation."

One night when Mr. Isaac Reese was stopping with me, says M. F. Hatch, a prominent merchant of Quartermaster, Washington, I heard him groaning. On going to his room I found him suffering from cramp colic. He was in such agony I feared he would die. I hastily gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was soon relieved and the first words he uttered were "what was that stuff you gave me?" I informed him. A few days ago we were talking about this attack and he said he was never without that remedy now. I have used it in my family for several years. I know its worth and do not hesitate to recommend it to my friends and customers. For sale by J. W. Samsell, Penns Creek, Pa.
