A Clock for the Court House

A court house without a clock in the steeple is a rare thing. Yet when we look up at the steeple of the Snyder county court house we behdid the blank faces where a clock by the presence of a clock, we beand vicinity, but the prople of the this state of affairs continue ?

entire county will be b enefitted by having a clock in the .yourt house. In the first place it will bring the Snyder county court house more nearly on an equalit y with our neighboring county court houses. In the second place, we would mention the fact that ever y day there are people at the coun ty seat from various parts of the co anty and during court weeks all part s of the county are represented her e. In view of these facts the people of the county should bear at least a portion of the expense. If the commissioners of the county will agree to start the subscription list with a reasonable sum, the people of Mid dleburgh will raise the balance. The Middleburg Pour in behalf of the cit izens of Middleburgh presents this proposition which will be submitted to all the newspapers of the county so that all the people may know its nature. This will afford the commissioners the privilege of acting intelligently upon the expenditure of this sum. We present this matter to the readers of the Post and to the readers of all the other county papers that we may have a full and free discussion of the subject.

state, being representatives of both factions and a sense of ordinary selfrespect and propriety would suggest a different mode of operation on the part of the state chairman. A majority of the committee, however, can call that body without the consent of the chairman and this they propose to do. The committee will meet next Monday and the con-House next Wednesday. A great many Snyder county republicans, including Joe Lesher, will be present at the convention.

From the latest information it appears that Senator Quay, the exponent of purity in politics, will win the day.

Gilkeson's New Lesson.

B. F. Gilkeson evidently learned a lesson from the Snyder county Republican committee. In some of the papers of last week he is quoted as saying that he refused to give a letter for publication on the ground that he did not approve of making public a private letter without the consent of the writer. Evidently Mr. Gilkeson has learned a lesson from Snyder county Republicans.

The sentiment above expressed was violated by Mr. Gilkeson in reference to chairman Arbogast's letter and is in strict harmony with the spirit of the Snyder county resolutions. If Mr. Gilkeson does not get any support from Snyder county, he gets good advice and what is more, he follows it.

Three Good Ones Stolen From Exchanges.
A Stroudsburg editor says one of Henry Bragger's cows recently gave birth to a creature that has the body and legs of a calf and the front feet of a goose, with claws and toes. It also has wings and has a bill. It has been discovered that although the Paxton furnaces at Harrisburg were banked over two years ago a fire was still burning there on Saturday, when workmen began cleaning the furnace, says the Huntingdon Local Neus.

return judges and passes judgment on them as follows :

At the primary A. W. Potter, Esq., was elected delegate. He had been previously chosen by the county committee, which was irregular, hence the necessity for a primary, on which topic Mr. Gilkeson, chairman of the committee, to which Mr. Gilkeson, we are informed, responded that there was no need of a primary, which reply stamps him unfit for State Chairman, as his own call for the State convention (published in another column) anabraces this rule of the party:

That the delegates to the State Convention shall be chosen in the manner in which candidates for the General Assembly are nominated.

Has his advice been followed. Snyder's delegate would have been pitched out of the convention ; also, the people over there would not have had an opportunity of declaring for Quay by 923 majority over Gilkeson. to prevent these expressions of loyalty to the Genator was the Gilkeson idea, but it was hardly thought possible that he would advice violation of a party rule to accomplish it. He certainly should not be chosen State Chairman. We need in that posi-tion a man who will enforce the party rules and command the respect and confidence and earnest effort of all the party workers. Senator Quay will do that in large degree, and perforce, will be chosen chairman.

Not Very Modest.

And now Corporal Gilkeson is adding insult to injury. The majority of the members of the State Committee have called upon Chairman Gilkeson to convene the committee next Monday for the purpose of making up the roll of the convention. It is customary for the chairman and the secretary to make up the roll of the convention. This is all right when there is no contest but when convention, as their election was ilthe chairman himself is involved in a conflict with a faction of the party it is a matter of modesty to allow the committee to make up the roll the ignominy of being willing to ter.
