

Harry W. Hummel's handsome residence at Northumberland was entered some time during the night. Mrs. Hummel arose at daybreak and on looking around the lower part of the house found everything in utter confusion, drawers pulled out, and everything thoroughly ransacked. Mr. Hummel on going to bed had left the safe open. In the morning he found that a money box containing seventy-five cents in change had been taken, and the empty box was found in the rear of the house. Access was undoubtedly obtained through the hall window, and no clue is held as to the identity of the robbers. The silver was left untouched.—Sunbury Democrat.

One night when Mr. Isaac Reese was stopping with me, says M. F. Haleb, a prominent merchant of Quakertown, Washington. I heard him groaning. On going to his room I found him suffering from cramp colic. He was in such agony I feared he would die. I hastily gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was soon relieved and the first words he uttered were "what was that stuff you gave me?" I informed him. A few days ago we were talking about this attack and he said he was never without that remedy now. I have used it in my family for several years. I know its worth and do not hesitate to recommend it to my friends and customers. For sale by J. W. Sauppell, Penns Creek, Pa.
