Obituary of Mrs. Swengle.

On Monday night, Aug. 26th at 11:30 o'clock, the spirit of Mrs. Jemima Swengle, wife of Rev. J. G. M. Swengle, took its flight to its eternal rest. A little over a year ago, Rev. Swengle moved with his family to Winfield, Union county, Pa., and since last holidays Mrs. Swengle had been an invalid suffering from what she supposed might be malaria.

About the 10th of June, she became bedfast and was at once placed under the constant care of a physician. Her ailments seemingly were complicated and baffled medical skill and by July 21st, it was found necessary to open an abscess in her side, an operation which would afford relief for a short time but would speedily terminate in death. Everything that medical skill and loving hands could do were of no avail and contrary to the expectations of physicians and friends she lingered through days and weeks of suffering until death released her from her suffering to enter where sorrow and pains are never known.

She was resigned at all times although she suffered intensely, no one can tell how much. Yet amid all her suffering she was happy in the hope of an eternal rest and several times the spirit triumphed over the pain stricken body and she would rejoice as one who had received special blessing from her Master. During her illness, she would sing at times. "It is well with my soul" and requested it to be sung at her funeral services. As she neared to borderland of the celestial-city, she seemed to communicate with the spirits beyond and spoke of her beautiful crown of gold and her golden harp and in the joy that surrounded her she would say, "Oh, how grand it is to be a Christian."

The words, "Homeward" and "Upward" were on her lips until she breathed her last. Just before closing her eyes in death she told her family that she was going to heaven and asked them all to meet her there. Had God so willed it, she might have spent many useful years yet for she was but 47 yrs. 3mo. and 29 days, but she died peacefully in the Lord and leaves a husband, three daughters, and two sons to mourn her loss. She was interred in Driesbach Cemetery. Rev. A. E. Goble officiated assisted by Rev. S. S. Kohler, and Rev. W. W. Rhoads.

Mrs. Sarah Lepley, wife of the late Joseph Lepley, died on Saturday night a week ago sometime after midnight and seemingly succumbed to the fatal hand of death without a pain. A little after midnight she conversed with her daughter, Ada, and on Sunday morning was found in her bed sleeping the sweet sleep of death.

Heart trouble is the supposed cause of her death and she leaves eight children to mourn her loss; three daughters and five sons, three of whom are ministers of the gospel. She was within 8 days of 71 years of age and on Thursday morning last was interred in New Berlin Cemetery, Rev. Wm. Schoch, her pastor, officiating. A. M. W.

"What I Eat Does me no Good." How often this expression is heard—Life destroying dyspepsia has told on you when you feel thus, and should not be trifled with. There is but one remedy that can permanently cure you, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y., a vegetable compound endorsed by the medical profession. Druggists sell it.

New Goods at Wittenmyer's. Last August while working in the harvest field I became overheated, was suddenly attacked with cramps and was nearly dead. Mr. Cummings, the druggist, gave me Diarrhoea Remedy which completely relieved me. I now keep a bottle of the remedy handy. A. M. BUNNELL, Cenierville, Wash. For sale by J. W. Sampsell, Penns Creek, Pa.

MT. PLEASANT MILLS.

Michael Groff and wife of Ephrata, Lancaster county, are visiting at C. F. Boyer's. We are always glad to meet as genial a person as Mr. Groff. Geo. A. Boyer of Port Trevorton was visiting here on Sunday. While returning home from the Camp fire at Mahantongo on Saturday, Henry Howell and Miss Della M. Brosius had the misfortune of upsetting. Miss B. was hurt about the head and at intervals is unconscious, while Mr. H. came out unhurt. This should be a warning not to let women drive. Miss Annie E. Schnee returned from an extended visit to Northumberland county and Miss Ella Shadle from Kantz. A. G. Gorman and Wilson D. Snyder started on a cycling tour to Lebanon county, on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Dr. W. W. Lougaere is on the sick list. John Stuck, who had his arm badly lacerated on Hoover's Shingle mill recently, is doing very well under the careful treatment of Dr. M. Rothrock. THEADORE.

McClure Picnic.

The first Evangelical S. S. Picnic of McClure, Pa., held in Howell's grove, on the 14, inst., was more than an ordinary success. People flocked in from far and near such places as Pittsburg, Lewistown, Middleburgh, Beavertown, Troxelville and elsewhere. At 9:30 o'clock A. M. the School formed into a parade with the McClure Cornet Band in the lead. When the grove was reached every body was seated. The exercises then followed. During the day were excellent music by the band and good singing by the school. Addresses were delivered by Revs. Joseph, Herz, and Weidenmyer, who more than kept the people bound by soul cheering instructions. Mrs. Mayer of Pittsburg also delivered an excellent address on the subject of Temperance.

The refreshments were of a choice variety served in abundance and all placed on two long tables of which the writer thinks nearly all on the ground partook. Prof. Billhardt and "Dutchy" also assisted in demolishing the same. A collection of $5.60 was given to the band who rendered choice music. The Sunday School deserves special credit for its good showing.

DIED. On Sept. 11, near Freeburg, Elsie Mabel, infant daughter of Peter and Mary Uplinger, aged 3 months and 16 days.

Mrs. S. A. Kell, Pomona, Cal., had the bad luck to sprain her ankle. "I tried several liniments," she says, "but was not cured until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. That remedy cured me and I take pleasure in recommending it and testifying to its efficiency." This medicine is also of great value for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the chest, pleurisy and all deep seated and muscular pains. For sale by J. W. Sampsell, Penns Creek, Pa.
