J. T. Hyatt as an Author.

In glancing over the pages of the September number of the Cosmopolitan, we find an article entitled, "The Ancient Capital of Cuba," written by the ready pen of John T. Hyatt, of Lewisburg vice consul from the United States to Cuba. Mr. Hyatt was at Bucknell when the writer was at college and the author then had the reputation of being one of the best orators in the Varsity. Now, he comes to the front with an eight page article in one of the leading magazines of the country. It is illustrated with nine engravings representing the scenes about the capital of the down-trodden Cubans. The article evinces extraordinary ability and discloses in a great degree the excellent diction of the author.

The descriptions are clear, concise and accurate. The author very minutely describes the industrial and social conditions of the inhabitants of island that has been made famous by Columbus on his second voyage to the new world. We congratulate Mr. Hyatt on his most excellent article, which launches him on a successful voyage of the literary stream.

Hick's Great Work.

Rev. I. R. Hicks, the celebrated storm prophet, of St. Louis, is now a household name in nearly every home in America. His wonderful Almanac predicts the weather for a year ahead more correctly and accurately than any other publication or any other system. The testimony of a large number of careful observers is that 99 per cent. of Hicks' predictions are fulfilled to the letter. His series of annual Almanacs are now well and favorably known in all parts of this country and in foreign lands. The new Almanac for 1895 is the most practical and instructive as well as the prettiest of this splendid series. It contains 100 pages, printed on fine book paper, with covers elegantly printed in colors. The matter, although scientific, is written in popular style, there being nothing difficult to understand about it. It is also finely illustrated. Don't confound this with some patent medicine pamphlet. It is nothing of the kind, but is a fine book, which sells at all news stands for 25c. This fine Almanac is given as a premium to every yearly subscriber to the Rev. I. R. Hicks' well-known and deservedly popular paper, WORD AND WORKS. This unique journal is a peerless educator of the masses, and is fast becoming a household guardian and necessity in the homes of America. Those who want to keep up with the advances and thought of the age in science, religion and all social, commercial, intellectual and domestic subjects, should subscribe for WORD AND WORKS. Subscription only $1.00 a year. You can send for both direct to WORD AND WORKS PUBLISHING CO., St. Louis, Mo. Single copies of WORD AND WORKS, 10 cents.

Late Literary News.

Hutyard Kipling makes his late appearance as a teller of Jungle Stories in the Cosmopolitan for October. "Mowgli Leaves the Jungle" is the title, and the curtain is drawn over one of the most charming conceits in literature. In the same number in which Mowgli makes his final adieu, appears for the first time before an American audience, the now-famed idea of "The Greatness of Man." A very important paper on "State Universities" is contributed to this number by Professor Ely. And among the story-tellers are Hopkinson Smith and Boyesen. No more beautiful work has ever appeared in any magazine than the marvelous illustrations of Cabrini used as a frontispiece and accompanying the prose poem by Mrs. Carver. Drake—who is said to be Kipling's favorite artist for his Jungle Stories—Carrie Beard, Osterlind, Denman, and Kemble, are among those who contribute a wealth of illustration to this number. The Cosmopolitan announces that it will begin the publication in January of THE AGRICULTURIST'S ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE, to be fully the equal of THE COSMOPOLITAN, but containing from sixteen to twenty pages by the ablest agricultural writers of the world, upon subjects of importance to the agriculturist, horticulturist, and stock-growing interests.

MT. PLEASANT MILLS.

The schools of Perry township opened on Monday, the 30th, ult.; H. C. Haas, proprietor of the Fremont Hotel, and W. S. Strawder, his hostler, spent several days at Mt. Patrick, on business, last week. P. A. Brosius and family and Mrs. Geo. A. Brosius spent Saturday and Sunday at Oakland Mills, Juniata county. Samuel Boyer and wife expect to spend the winter at Port Trevorton with their son, Geo. A. Boyer, who runs one of the leading hotels there. Miss Alice Lenich in company with Mrs. J. P. Naugle visited relatives near McAllisterville over Sunday. Mrs. Henry Harding returned on Friday from a several days' visit to Allentown. J. A. Shadle of the Excelsior View Company was delivering views several days last week. Geo. W. Garman left on Monday for Blacksburg, S. C. to work for the American View Co. We are sorry to lose such an industrious young man. John, Albert and Henry Basom of Richfield were noticed on our streets on Saturday evening. Abs. Roush has a new portico in front of his house. Many of our farmers are realizing the great productive value of lime on their land and in consequence a number of the old dilapidated lime kilns along the ridge north of town are being repaired and rebuilt. A large quantity of lime is now used greatly in preference to phosphate and other fertilizers which were so extensively used only a few years ago.

THEODORE.

PAXTONVILLE.

Mr. Isaiah Bowersox and family attended the Lewisburg Fair a few days last week. Fire broke out on Wm. McAfee's house on Sunday morning, but was readily discovered by one of the neighbors before it had done much damage. Charles Erdley's spent Sunday with Mother Bowersox. Mrs. H. H. Attig and J. W. Nerhood's visited friends in Juniata county last week. Miss Edith Mertz, after spending a week with Miss Annie Swengle returned home. Miss Daisy Gift left for Scranton on Tuesday morning where she expects to attend school this winter. We wish her success in getting Latin down to fine points. Charles Boyer and John Hasinger were down to the river fishing a few days last week and were successful in catching a nice lot of fish. Oliver McAfee added a new porch and out-kitchen to his house.

TROXELVILLE.

Thomas Jefferson Weikle—Our Farmers' Alliance Miller—is having his grist mill repaired in a substantial way. Some of our farmers are talking of husking corn this week. Tuesday the deer season opened. It appears that the deer are very scarce. I traveled over a large extent of territory during the huckleberry season, and not a single doe did I see. Bears are more plentiful and will afford lots of sport. Nathan Fetterolf has two apple trees in his orchard that are evidently not satisfied with bringing one crop of apples, as they are again in full bloom, and promise another crop. Emanuel G. Gilbert of this place has bought Daniel Weaver's farm of 72 acres near Port Ann, for $1400, and will take possession next Spring. Rev. W. M. Landis failed to meet his congregation on Sunday; sickness is the cause. Those of our people who attended the Union county fair, are loud in their praise of that institution. From now on to the 10th of December, Uncle Rob's address will be "Taylor House, Seven Mountains, West Beaver Township, Snyder county, Pennsylvania, U. S. A." CAL. JOE.

MIDDLE CREEK.

E. F. Goss and E. B. Steinger made a business trip to Middleburgh last week. Only a few from our end attended court last week. A large crowd attended the Middle-creek picnic which is becoming more popular every year. Visiting as follows on Saturday and Sunday: Mrs. Maggie Snook and Miss Gertie Knapp at Jesse Knapp's; Miss Ellen Weidman at H. W. Ush; Miss Amelia Steinger at Reuben Steinger's; Wm. Herbster at H. C. Kretz's; Miss Gertie Dreese and J. Wagner at W. H. Kline's. A very pleasant surprise party was given to Mrs. W. H. Kline on Saturday evening. About 30 were present. Many presents were given and excellent refreshments were served. Mrs. Wm. Steedly on the sick list. Edward Mitchell and wife are visiting with their son, James, at Williamsport. Chas. Heimbach and best girl were visiting friends in Union county over Sunday. Mrs. Polly Steinger of Lewisburg is visiting her son, Ezra. Sam. Shilling is the proud "daddy" of a bouncing big boy. Howard Vaughn and family of Union county were visiting friends in the vicinity last week. Miss Polly Knapp of Lewistown is visiting friends at present in this neighborhood. CARROL.

WEST BEAVER.

The picnic on last Saturday was a success in every way. Henry Houser attended the reunion of his brothers and sisters in Millin county last week, it being held at the old homestead. Wm. Kerns, the boiler at Swineford and Co.'s Stave Mill, had two fingers and a thumb saved off last week; cause, block turning. Howard Treaster's house was struck by lightning last week, the chimney being demolished and other slight damages done. Henry Treaster is improving slowly from his late sickness. The next gathering on the program, Bean Soup at McClure, Oct. 12. The birthday party held at Alexander Treaster's on last Saturday evening was well attended and lots of good things got in side of the many people present. J. Strunk spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Jos. Wagner. P. M. Treaster is home on a visit from Decatur where he has been engaged sawing lumber for J. O. Goss. Jim, you should not give the old man away in regard to shooting an old blind fence mouse. If Cleveland could not go to Atlanta to open the exposition, why did he not send a substitute? He always sent one to the South when he was wanted there during the Rebellion. BOB.

CHESTNUT RIDGE.

The most corn has been cut and some people are busy husking it. Many of the old and young attended the picnic west of Kratzerville under the impression that it was the closing picnic. The 7th of October Monroe Twp. schools open. John A. Lenig returned to his parental roof from Fort Wayne, Ind., where he was employed as hostler in a livery stable. Henry Zimmerman is on the sick list. The medical advisor is Dr. Herman. Miss Sarah Geisse was buried on the Kratzerville Cemetery on the 27, of Sept. Aged 67 years, 8 months and 5 days. Rev. Haas officiated. PUCK.

ADAMSBURG.

The I. O. O. F. Lodge is making preparations to attend the 50th anniversary of Odd fellowship in Juniata county, to be held at Millintown, Oct. 3rd. The Adamsburg Cornet Band has been engaged to furnish the music for the Lodge. The Lodge will go in as a body. Rev. J. C. Muma and daughter Emma, of Rebersburg spent a few days with friends at this place while en route to attend Synod. Rev. B. F. Kautz and delegate R. Dreese have returned from the meeting of Synod at Millintown; they report having had a very profitable time. The Junior C. E. Society held an entertainment on last Friday evening which was enjoyed by all present. All performed their parts admirably. Funeral of Mr. Yoder's child was held on Tuesday at half past eleven. Adam Smith and wife have gone to Altoona to visit friends. Daniel Dreese moved his family to Shenandoah. Last week Dr. A. M. Smith shipped his first car of iron ore after an illness of over a year. Mrs. Dr. A. M. Smith is visiting friends in Centre county for the last week and the Dr. seems very lonely.

MANY WOMEN SUFFER FROM LACK OF INFORMATION.

Doctors Are Too Reserved. A Woman Should Be Dealt With Openly.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

Women are often allowed by their physicians to suffer much from lack of information and anxiety. Many medical men are vain, and it is a struggle to acknowledge that they do not understand. Women do not investigate; they have faith in their doctor, and often wreck their lives through this unfortunate confidence.

In the treatment of female diseases men work from theory; and it is not to be expected that they can treat as intelligently those complaints from which they have never suffered, as a woman can who has made the organism and diseases of her sex a life study.

Women afflicted with female diseases are wise in communicating promptly with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Their distressed condition is due to womb trouble, and their symptoms tell the story. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one remedy that removes the cause, and restores health, courage, and happiness. The druggists sell more of it than all other female medicines. Why? The following short letter speaks for itself. Mrs. Parker is a very young wife; only twenty-one years old. She was suffering untold misery when she wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. See the result. "Can evidence be stronger than this? I deem it my duty to announce the fact to all my fellow-sufferers of all female complaints that your Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me of all the pains and suffering I was enduring when I wrote you last May. I followed your advice to the letter, and the result is wonderful."—Mrs. CHAS. PARKER, Little Falls, Minn. Any druggist has it.
