Theresa Vaughn, the Famous Singer, Says Use Dr. Greene's Nervura.

She Advises All Who Are Sick, Weak, Nervous or Ailing to Use Dr. Greene's Nervura, The Grandest of Medicines.

MISS THERESA VAUGHN.

There are few more beautiful women or popular singers than Miss Theresa Vaughn, whose refined and exquisite singing in the burlesque, "1492," will long be remembered in every community. Her address is New York City, but she is known, respected and admired from one end of our country to the other, and her strong endorsement of the wonderful curative powers of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and her earnest advice for the tired out, the weak, the nervous, the run-down and debilitated, to use this grandest of all medicines, will be followed by everybody who needs a strengthening and invigorating remedy. She tells all to use it, because she knows it banishes all pain, cures the aching head and dragging back-ache, restores the over-taxed brain, nerves the weary limbs, strengthens the weak and shattered nerves, gives natural, refreshing sleep—in fact, makes all who use it strong and well. The remedy is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless and may be given to infants, children or the weakest invalids with positive assurance of beneficial results. Here is what she says: "The fatigue attendant upon public appearances has often caused me to suffer severely from nervousness, and I can truthfully say that I have found Dr. Greene's Nervura an infallible remedy. I was led into using it by seeing it in daily use in the families of my friends, and I can unhesitatingly recommend it, from my own experience, to all as a thoroughly reliable remedy for neuralgia and nervous diseases of all kinds." It would certainly seem that after such an endorsement by a lady so popular and so widely known, no one who suffers in the least from ill health could hesitate for a moment to take her advice and seek the cure which is sure and positive by using Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City. He has the largest practice in the world, and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience. The great reputation of Dr. Greene is a guarantee that his medicine will cure, and the fact that he can be consulted at any time free of charge, personally or by letter, gives absolute assurance of the beneficial action of this wonderful medicine.
