

TROXELVILLE.

On Nov. 6th Robert Middlewarth and company finished up their season's threshing, and report having threshed 34,167 bushels of grain. What team can beat that? Last Thursday Mrs. Sarah Erb, widow of Israel Erb was buried in the Union Cemetery at this place. About four years ago, Israel Erb died on Cherry Hill, in Philadelphia, and was buried on the same God's acre. Our schools are now open five weeks and show a higher percentage of average attendance than ever before. This speaks well for the teachers, as well as for the board of directors. Last Friday while James A. Wagner was out gunning, a little accident happened that wrecked the right side of his big snapper. He is always in the habit of charging his gun heavily (it is one of the blunder buss kind) and on seeing a big pheasant, he drew a bead on it and "let'er fly" and the recoil of the gun did its dirty work, and did it well too. The hammer of the gun caught him in the right nostril, and slit it out, besides rebbing him of considerable skin from the nose. Jim did not pick up the pheasant; but he took his bleeding nose in his hand and walked off home as fast as his "pins" could carry him and got his good wife to dress his wound. He is, at this writing, able to smoke his corn cob again. CAL. JOE.

Old Age Elopers.

Last Wednesday night Jerome Zimmerman of Loganton, aged 59 years, forsook his wife and seven children and eloped with Mrs. Susan Parker, aged about 55, of the same place who also forsook a husband and two sons. They went to Lock Haven, bought two tickets for Atchinson, Kansas, and boarded the train for that place. In Pittsburgh they were arrested and brought back to Lock Haven and lodged in jail. Surely age has taken the wings of youth in a sensational elopement only to have the honeymoon ruthlessly spoiled. From a letter written to Jeweler Moyer of this place we learn that Zimmerman took $300 of his wife's money along.

SHERIFF.

EDMON POOR.—Please announce the name of Charles E. Sampsel of Centre township as a candidate for sheriff subject to the vote of Republican primary election. Hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you personally, before the close of the campaign, I remain, yours truly, CHARLES E. SAMPEL.

DONATION.

On Nov. 9, the dear, good people of Kratzerville, 25 in number, and the kind friends of Middleburgh, gave us a fine donation. They came in a procession and began to carry in flour, meat, potatoes, groceries and horse feed, to the value of some $40. After partaking of a good dinner, we spent a few hours pleasantly together. The pastor read in prayer and made a few remarks which was followed by an address by Prof. Bowersox. They all departed to their homes well pleased.

May the Lord richly bless the kind donors. We return our sincere thanks. Come again. J. H. HERTZ, Pastor.

B. O. Kessler of Selinsgrove was a Middleburgh visitor on Tuesday.

The card of Chas. E. Sampsel, a candidate for sheriff, will be found in this issue.

On account of the serious illness of Miss Stapleton's father, the class in elocution will be postponed.

P. C. Hartman, the proprietor of the Centreville House, was in town on Tuesday looking hale and hearty.

Boyd Stetler held the lucky number and drew the quilt chanced off at the chapel Tuesday evening. 160 was the drawing number.

B. H. Custer has a huckster wagon for sale. It can be used for one or two horses. For further information inquire of Mr. Custer. 3t

The Editor acknowledges the receipt of an invitation from the American Club to attend their Annual Assembly to be held in Armony Hall, Sunbury, Pa., Wednesday evening, Nov. 27th.

Prof. McKeen, the blind musician gave a concert in the Lutheran church last Thursday evening. The entertainment was a very creditable affair and was well attended.

The State organizer of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will speak at the Lutheran church this (Wednesday) evening. Her address will take the place of the regular prayer meeting service.

The shanty at Henry Dietrich's saw mill, located on Mrs. Breon's land about 1 1/2 miles south of New Berlin was destroyed by fire on Sunday evening about 6 o'clock. Five saws, two sinks, stove and other material to the amount of over $100, was burned. Suspicion rests upon some one who is very familiar with the surroundings.

By the recent law passed by the legislature, the teachers' permanent certificate committee in each county will be composed of three persons, one of whom is to be a lady teacher and the entire committee to be appointed by the state superintendent of public instruction.

A gentleman in Millin county desires to have a girl from 7 to 10 years of age to raise and educate. He is willing to raise one and agree to keep her until she is of age or until she desires to leave. The gentleman can give good reference. For further information, apply at this office.

Sunday afternoon William Fager and wife, of Lebo, Perry county, left their home in charge of the children while they went out to visit relatives. Boyd, aged 14 years, was playing in the yard with his father's shotgun. Just as his pretty little sister Dolly, 7 years of age, opened the door the gun exploded and the charge tore away one side of the child's face, killing her instantly. Part of the shot went through the room and seriously wounded Catharine, another sister, aged 16 years.

The Washington Post has been looking over the old Pennsylvania laws, and prints the following one relating to low necked dresses, which may interest some of our party going town girls. "If any white female of ten years or upwards shall appear in any public street, lane, highway, church, court-house, tavern, ball room, theatre, or other place of public resort, with naked shoulders (i. e. low-necked dresses) being able to purchase the necessary clothing, she shall forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one nor more than two hundred dollars."

An effort is being made to have a public thoroughfare opened from West Pine street in this borough, to be a continuance of the street between the property of Mrs. James K. Davis and the estate of Wm. J. Gortner, dec'd, to intersect the public road leading from this place to New Berlin, at or near where the road leaves the direct course and turns down to "book's" bank. If this contemplated road should be opened, it would cut off a considerable hill, and make a direct road for all persons going west of town. We hope that the viewers appointed by the Court, will see their way clear to report in favor of opening the road. —Selinsgrove Tribune.
