SELINGROVE.

John C. Kessler and wife are entertaining their uncle, Dr. Burd... Ammon Kempfer is confined to his bed with a dangerous attack of inflammation of the stomach... Carey Barrett and family moved to Milton last week, where Carey has secured employment in a flour mill... Schure's Dam is frozen over and good skating is the result... Geo. Lombard left for Philadelphia last week, at which place he will be employed at bridge building... Clell. Wenrich is able to be about again. During the early stages of his sickness it was feared he would lose the sight of an eye but happily this was not the case... Numerous candidates are beginning to soar through this vicinity... The people of Selingsrove and vicinity were treated to an entertainment by Welsh Bros. variety show on Monday evening... P. S. Albert and wife spent Monday at Kreamer... Mrs. James Herbst of Beavertown visited friends in town last week... Miss Mame Boyer is visiting friends in this place... Mrs. B. F. Gregory and Mrs. Oehsenford spent Sunday in Williamsport... Mrs. Melick was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Miles Wetzel during last week... Miss Minnie Row visited friends in Milton last Sunday.

J. M. Boyer, the boss civil engineer of Selingsrove on Monday took a complete survey of all mines at Adamsburg, spent Monday night in Selingsrove and on Tuesday was in Middleburgh as a witness. This is doing business on the "fly" and John knows how to do it.

Matilda Enham, Columbia, Pa., says: "That Bearing-Down Feeling and dizzy, faint, gasping attacks left me as soon as I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was sick with womb troubles so long I thought I never could get well."
