

A NEW BOOK

Sent Free to Catarah Patients for a Short Time—A Holiday Gift.

Everybody interested in the subject of catarah and other winter diseases will be glad to learn that The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, O., is sending, free of charge, an illustrated book of sixty-four pages on the subject of catarah. This book contains illustrations showing the brain, the nasal passages, throat, lungs, trachea, bronchial tubes, stomach, liver, middle ear, etc. There are four full-page illustrations, showing the circulation, nervous system, glandular system and the vital organs. The book is a complete guide to the prevention and cure of chronic catarah and all diseases of winter. Colds, coughs, consumption, dyspepsia, la grippe, bronchitis, and pneumonia are described and treated. Diseases of the kidneys, liver, lungs, ear, eyes and pelvic organs are illustrated, explained, and the treatment given. Every family ought to have a copy of this book at once. Thousands of dollars and thousands of lives can be saved by studying it and practicing what it teaches. It will teach mothers how to take care of themselves and shield their families from disease. Write name and address plainly.

Be sure to have a bottle of Pe-ru-na in the house, as the cold weather is already upon us. This remedy, wisely used, will prevent colds, coughs, and other ills of cold weather, and is the greatest catarah remedy of the age.

CHESTNUT RIDGE.

The Evangelicals are having a successful revival in the Kratzerville church. Some 29 penitent mourners have found peace with their God and the end is not yet. The above speaks well for the Dubbitses and shows that God is with them. Dr. Percival Herman was on a hunting expedition up in the mountains but we have not heard how many deer he saw. John Dirk the Lumber king of Chestnut Ridge has his saw-mill located in Henry Wetzel's woods where it is in full blast. The butchering season is drawing to a close and the largest pig killed so far to my knowledge weighed 436 and its mate 394 owned by Irvin Nerhood of Kratzerville. Mabel Lenig paid a visit to her former school mates in Bullfrog Valley.

ADAMSBURG.

It seems that cold winter has come at last. The earth is covered with snow. Kate Ush had a paralytic stroke on Sunday night. Her recovery is doubtful. Chas. P. Shirey was married to Miss Sallie Yutz of Union county. A daughter was born to Jacob A. and Minnie B. Laub. Consequently they feel happy. Reports have it that we shall have a wedding between this and new year. Our public school teachers were spending a week at Middleburgh very profitably, and have now again taken up their duties for the winter. The new inspiration does better work. E. Leisering of near Shamokin has sent 2 teams to this place to haul props from Jack's Mountain. "Lud" has gone to Lewisburg where he is engaged as hostler for ex-judge Bucher. Kamber Binghamman, who had gone to Ohio last March, has returned. J. I. Binghamman, the hydraulic cider press agent, has gone to Cogan Station on business. Henry Treaster has moved into his new house. Jere Hackenberg is putting up the rough-wall for his house. The Helfrick family, who are down with Typhoid fever, are improving. Bertha Crouse spent a few days at this place. Misses Estella and Myra Romig spent last week in Middleburgh taking in the institute.

MIDDLE CREEK.

A thin coat of snow, on mother earth, caused many a cotton-tail to lose his life on Monday morning. Jas. W. Klingler and wife were treated to a calithumpian serenade on Saturday. In return, the boys too were treated, when some got so Jolly. A number of our young folks attended institute last week. A Christmas entertainment will be held at the St. Paul's Evan. Lutheran church on Christmas evening. Father Jacob Kemberling was buried on Tuesday on the St. Paul's cemetery. Mr. Kemberling was one of the oldest residents of West Beaver Township.

KREAMER.

It has pleased the Alwise God to call from our midst and from her suffering on Saturday afternoon an aged and respected citizen in the person of Mrs. Eli Keeler. Mrs. Keeler had been sick for about two years. She leaves a devoted husband, three sons and one daughter to mourn her loss. Mrs. Keeler will be missed by her neighbors and many friends, as she was kind and loving to all with whom she came in contact. She was buried Wednesday in Zieher's grave yard. James Row and family were the guests of A. C. Smith's on Sunday. Miss Carrie Reitz of McClure and Miss Sallie Ush of Middlecreek were the guests of Misses Walter over Sunday.
