

SELINGROVE.

Oh, the inconsistency of mortal. We have a young merchant in this place, who on the glorious Fourth bedecks himself in patriotic colors, fills himself with red lemonade, and whoops and yells in a way that causes the Eagle to be envious, lest it should lose its laurels. Now as the Holiday season approaches this is all changed and his true spirit is told by the ensign of Great Britain which holds the most conspicuous position in his window. James C. Deekard, a former proprietor of the National hotel, but who now resides in Baltimore, spent several days among friends in town. G. W. Keller spent Sunday with his family at his East End residence. W. H. Davis, the veteran showman, accompanied by his wife, is in town. Rev. Barb of Hagerstown, preached in the Ev. Lutheran church last Sunday, both morning and evening. Mr. Shields, the noted baritone player, and Miss Nora Marks of this place were married on Sunday. The young couple left on Monday for Philadelphia at which place they will reside. Mrs. J. A. Lombard is home from an extended visit in W. Va. Grandmother McKelvey, formerly of this place died suddenly at her son's residence at Riverside. She was brought here for burial on Tuesday. Evangelist Shelton is holding revival services at the Methodist church.

ALINE.

Protracted meeting at St. Thomas church closed on Thursday evening. But the meeting at the Troutman's church, is still in progress. Jumbo was in quite an excitement, being informed that his meat was stolen. He declared that he would shoot the next thief he would chance to see. After a close investigation of the matter, he found that his wife had freed the same fouse of its contents. The Sunday school of the United Evangelical church is making preparations to have a Christmas entertainment. Rev. Haines, father of Jacob Haines, accompanied by his wife were the guests of Jacob Haines on Sunday. He preached a very interesting sermon in the United Evangelical church on Sunday forenoon and will preach again on Saturday evening, Dec. 21 at 7 p. m.

Hoping the support of the constituents of the Grand Old Party. I am, very respectfully, P. SCOTT RITTER.

Editor Post.—Please announce my name as a candidate for County Treasurer at the primary election to be held February 18, 1896. Penn Township is always sure to poll a large republican vote and is entitled to a share of the patronage, including a hearty support. I am, very respectfully, IRWIN F. LAUDENSLAGER, Penn Township.

FOR DELEGATE. Editor Post.—Please announce my name as a candidate for Delegate to the National Convention, subject to the district conference. Respy's Yours, A. M. ACRAND.

STATE SENATOR.

To MY FELLOW REPUBLICANS:—I herewith most respectfully submit myself as a candidate for State Senator, subject to the rules and decisions of the Republican Party. In this connection I desire to state, that if nominated and elected to the honorable position, I pledge myself to represent my constituents to the best of my ability. It shall be my highest ambition to represent them honestly and faithfully. My party loyalty has never been brought into question; the regular nominees of the party have always received my ardent and unqualified support. In no political campaign have I ever deserted the standard of Republicanism, and when it suffered defeat it was through no agency of mine, and as I have stood in the past I pledge myself for the future. I have served my country on the tented field when with hundreds of thousands of brave and patriotic American citizens, we offered our young manhood upon the country's altar and many of them sealed their devotion to the cause of liberty and union with their best blood. Without egotism I can say my war record is a good one, and I am proud to say that I was a soldier in the war for the Union. I have twice accepted the senatorial standard in the Senate, though I polled many more votes than the state ticket the Democratic majority was too strong to overcome. I was nominated as a forlorn hope, accepted the trust and now that the majority is Republican in the district, I feel that my claims for the nomination at this time should be considered by all, and my years are such that if I am ever to represent the district in the Senate, this will be the time.—Earnestly soliciting the support of my fellow citizens I have the honor to remain, Yours, very truly, B. F. WAGENSELLER.

Editor Post.—Having been honored by the Republicans of Snyder county with the nomination for State Senator in 1892, for which I am very grateful, and having used every honorable means at the district conference, including the wearing of the longest and hardest fought coat, I feel that I am entitled to the honor of being re-nominated in our Senatorial district. At last conceding to the claims of Northumberland county, which were first in Northumberland county, never had a nomination in the district second. That Northumberland county polls more Republican votes than Union and Snyder together. And realizing the fact that a nomination must be made soon, or the chances of the whole district would be jeopardized and by the advice of friends and representative Republicans of Snyder county, who attended the conference, and also from Republicans from all parts of the county, who knew the situation, I instructed my conference to vote for my present Senator, the Hon. Wm. H. Hackenbush, which would bring our county in line for the district nomination in 1896. The time is approaching when the Republicans of Snyder county will be called on to make another nomination, and knowing the fact that Union and Northumberland counties have each been honored, and each by the conference of Snyder county, it is quite natural to suppose Snyder county's choice should get the district nomination, never having heard of any disapproval of my course in 1892, but on the other hand having been commended, I would respectfully ask the Republicans of Snyder County to give me a second nomination, subject to the rules of our party, and if elected, will use every endeavor to serve my constituents to the best of my ability. Respectfully Submitted, ED. M. HUMMEL.
