Fulton of Philadelphia visited the Editor at the Central Hotel on Sunday. Dr. Swing is one of the most 33 promising dentists of the city of brotherly love and Mr. Fulton is stenographer and type writer and bridge inspection of the Penna, Railroad. Both are jolly fellows and are higly please.1 with their brief visit to our county seat.

It is said that a member of the recounty pulled the legs of various candidates to the tune of $60,00, 3 boxes of cigar; and several railroad tickets. This s: the same fellow who wanted to assuss the congressman $500 for his cantpaign in the fall of 1894. Such felo ws bring the standing committee hto disrepute.
