

Editor Displeased the Public.

A Body of Business Men in South Dakota Destroy the Outfit of a Newspaper.

MITCHELL, S. D., Feb. 24.—The entire outfit of the Mitchell Mail—paper, presses, type and other paraphernalia—was today taken into the street and publicly burned by an orderly and well-behaved body of business men.

The editor of the paper, Robert McBride, has for a long time been attacking various public institutions and prominent people, notably the late John D. Lawler, president of the First National Bank. Several years ago McBride married Mr. Lawler's sister-in-law, the wealthy daughter of General Sturgis, United States army. After a few years Mrs. McBride secured a divorce and McBride then began his attacks upon the business and personal character of Mr. Lawler.

Much indignation was aroused and Saturday night citizens met McBride and offered to buy out his plant if he would go elsewhere. He agreed, but later decided to withdraw from the bargain. The citizens thereupon appointed one of their number to act as agent for McBride and then paid the money agreed upon and then took the property out and destroyed it, as stated. The committee is now looking for McBride to suggest that he remove elsewhere.

KREAMER.

A new snaitly has arrived in the house of Geo. Stuck; Geo. wears a broad smile because it is a boy. The Evangelical church has closed its meetings which lasted about three weeks. We are glad to state that Miss Verdine Fields, who has had inflammatory rheumatism for the last eight weeks, is able to be up and about, but not able to leave the house yet. A. C. Smith has opened a general store and solicits the public patronage. Master Smith Reihl of Lewisburg has come to this place to clerk in A. C. Smith's store. The following were visitors to our town since our last writing: Misses Mable Seafried and Edna Smith of Selinsgrove, Mrs. Barb Yoder of Globe Mills, Miss Lottie Spangler of Verdilla, Prof. F. C. Fisher of Bucknell, Lewisburg and Elm, Tomp and Mr. Livingstone of Selinsgrove. Mrs. Miles Wetzel and daughter Annie of Selinsgrove spent Saturday with Henry Wetzel and wife of this place.

Jephthah and His Daughter.

On Friday and Saturday evenings of this week the popular cantata, "Jephthah and his Daughter," will be rendered in the Court House by a chorus of 50 voices for the benefit of the Lutheran Sunday School. A great deal of time and talent has been devoted to the preparation of this most excellent production and it is deserving of a most liberal patronage. The following is the CAST OF CHARACTERS.

Not to be Trifled With.

Will people never learn that a "cold" is an accident to be dreaded, and that when it occurs treatment should be promptly applied? There is no knowing where the trouble will end; and while complete recovery is the rule, the exceptions are terribly frequent, and thousands upon thousands of fatal illnesses occur every year ushered in by a little injudicious exposure and seemingly trifling symptoms. Beyond this, there are to day countless invalids who can trace their complaints to "colds," which at the time of occurrence gave no concern and were therefore neglected. When troubled with a cold use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is prompt and effectual. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all druggists.

MERITED REWARD.

SALES OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

Unequaled in the History of Medicine. Honesty, Excellence, Faithfulness Filly Rewarded.

NEVER TO OUR LADY READERS

Never in the history of medicine has the demand for one particular remedy for female diseases equalled that attained by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and never in the history of Mrs. Pinkham's wonderful Compound has the demand for it been so great as it is today.

from the Gulf to the St. Lawrence, coast the glad tidings of woman's suffering relieved by it; and thousands upon thousands of letters are pouring in from grateful women, saying that it will and does positively cure those painful

Ailments of Women.

It will cure the worst forms of female complaints, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb, and consequent spinal weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the change of life. Every time it will cure

Backache.

It has cured more cases of leucorrhoea by removing the cause, than any remedy the world has ever known; it is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in an early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills work in unison with the Compound, and are a sure cure for constipation and sick-headache. Mrs. Pinkham's Sanative Wash is frequently found of great value for local application. Correspondence is freely solicited by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., and the strictest confidence assured. All druggists sell the Compound in three forms, — Liquid, Pills, and Lozenges.
