Mrs. Elmira App, who is the widow of M. U. App, late of Monroe township, this county, has recently been married to David Reed of Cassville, Adams county, Michigan. They are making their home at the latter place and the many friends of the bride join the Post in wishing them much happiness.
Why they say it. You hear it on all sides—this, that, or the other bicycle is "just as good as a Columbia." No one allowed to sell Columbias hereabout but us. Other dealers must do business. Hence the continued comparison of their wheels with Columbia Bicycle Standard of the world. W. D. Baker is our sole agent for Snyder county. A complete line of sample wheels now on view at 234 Pine St., Selinsgrove, Pa. Write for catalogue, it is the handsomest ever issued.

FARM FOR SALE.—The heirs of Henry Rearith will sell at the court house on Saturday, May 2nd, 1896, the 100 acre farm, situate 3 miles west of Middleburgh. For particulars call on or address, Wm. Romig, Agent for heirs, Middleburgh, Pa. tf.
How about that Snyder county telephone? We would remind the company that they hold a charter from the state and the people expect them to build the line making connections at Sunbury with points in Northumberland and Union counties.
A good showing is recorded in religious circles in the East End of the county. On Sunday the Reformed church of Selinsgrove admitted 12 persons, the 2nd Lutheran 18, and the First Lutheran 19. The Lutheran congregation at Salem added 30 members.
Susquehanna University at Selinsgrove opened on Tuesday after their Easter vacation. Quite a number of new students were enrolled and the school is giving abundant evidences of prosperity. We may have more to say about the growth of this institution in a later issue.
Rev. Dr. J. T. Little, who spoke Tuesday evening, March 31, to the Christian Endeavorers of Freeburg and vicinity, is in the 28th year of his successful pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Hokendauqua, Pa., and has also preached 24 years at Fullerton, Pa.

Joe Bowersox now poses as the champion clock doctor. His clock would not run and he conceived the idea that the building was not level. He raised the one end of the building in order to make the clock level and now the clock is running all right. Moral: It is easier to move a house than to unscrew a clock from the wall.
On Saturday evening in Selinsgrove we accidentally dropped in to see our friend, Solly Oppenheimer, the hustling clothing dealer of the East End. We saw Solly send out one customer after another with their arms full of new suits, shoes and Gents' Furnishing Goods. The reason Solly can do this is because he believes in "Quick Sales and Small Profits."
SUMMER SCHOOL.—A summer school will be held in Swineford, Pa., beginning April 29, 1896, to continue a term of eight weeks. Pupils of all school ages and grades will be received and carefully instructed. Prices very reasonable and within reach of all. Kindly soliciting the patronage of the public. I am yours respectfully, R. G. BOWERSOX.
John Arbogast, father of the Dutchman, of this place, one day last week celebrated his eightieth birthday, and in honor of the event shot a crow through the head with a rifle, at a distance of about one hundred and fifty yards. This he did without the aid of glasses. If any other county has a man of equal age who can beat this act of marksmanship, we would like to hear of it.—Selinsgrove Tribune.
Miss Jessie Reller, who at the time of her residence in Selinsgrove was the most popular soloists in Snyder county, was married recently in St. Louis to F. F. Amsden. The ceremony was performed in the bridal parlors of the Planter's Hotel by the Rev. J. H. Barrows of Chicago. The groom is a graduate of Lehigh University, was at one time chemist at the North Lebanon Furnaces, but is now the Superintendent of Missouri Furnace Company's Works in Carondelet. The many friends of Miss Reller in Snyder county wish her much happiness in her nuptial state.

DEATH'S HARVEST.
Engelbert Denz, for many years a jeweler in Selinsgrove, died last week from the effects of a stroke. He lived in that place about forty years and at the time of his death was 70 years of age. He leaves a widow and five children. The deceased was buried on Sunday, Rev. Yutzy officiating.
Isaac Noll, a highly respected citizen of Penn Township, residing near Schoch's Mill, died last week and was buried at Selinsgrove on Monday. Mr. Noll was about 80 years of age and enjoyed the high esteem of his neighbors.
Mrs. Rosanna Laudenslager, relict of Andrew Laudenslager, died on Saturday at her residence near Selinsgrove. Her husband died in December. The deceased was 69 years of age and was buried on Tuesday. Mrs. L. is the mother of Irwin F. Laudenslager, the candidate for County Treasurer in the last campaign. Only a few days ago the family moved from Schoch's Mills to the suburbs of Selinsgrove where the death took place.
Miss Katie Blecker, a young daughter of Philip Blecker, died on Monday morning at four o'clock. She had been hopelessly ill for several days. The deceased was a young lady of amiable disposition, diligent and aggressive in her vocation and the possessor of many other good qualities. She leaves her many friends here to join the companionship of others in a richer and a better world.
Joseph Roush died at Freeburg last Thursday at the age of 61 years. He was kicked by a horse two weeks ago, the cause of which resulted in gangrene and death. He was buried on Tuesday.
The mortal remains of Mary Ann Heckman, wife of Daniel Heckman, of Washington township, were laid to rest in Fairview Cemetery, Friday afternoon. She had suffered from rheumatism, and had been ill but a short time previous to her death. She was a daughter of the late Peter Moyer, who died near York several years ago.—She was aged 57 years, 2 months and 17 days. She was a consistent member of the Reformed congregation of Freeburg, and the funeral discourse was preached by her pastor, Rev. W. A. Haas.—Courier.
The New Electric Railway.
Maj. E. C. Hamilton was in Middleburgh on Good Friday. The Major had been suffering for eleven weeks with Bright's Disease and after an operation performed in Philadelphia for that malady he became completely restored to health. In reply to questions he told a Post reporter that both the Electric Railway from Sunbury to Selinsgrove and the bridge across the Susquehanna would be built. "We are ready to begin," said the Major, "as soon as we get the right of way. We had everything else ready when I took sick and nothing has been done since. The bridge stock is profitable; one man wants $75,000 worth of bridge bonds." This seems to look promising both for the bridge and the railway.
For the Farmer's Family, $25.00 in Gold.
To the person whose home is on the farm, and who writes on one of our cards the greatest number of times this sentence, "Osborne Implements succeed where others fail," we will give $15.00 in gold. For the second best card $10.00 in gold. In case of a tie the card received first has the preference. Send two cent stamp at once for one of these cards and enter the contest, which closes 6 p. m., May 11, 1896. Address, D. M. Osborne & Co., Auburn, N. Y., Manufacturers of Farm Implements.

DEATH'S HARVEST.
Gives Credit to Snyder County.
T. H. Harter, Editor of the Bellefonte Gazette, purchased a property in that town last week for $4,250.00. Evidently Editor Harter has a warm spot yet for Snyder county as in last week's issue he says:
"The Centre Democrat thinks that Republican journalism must pay in Centre county since the editor of the Gazette has bought a home. No doubt it does or we wouldn't stay. Fortunately, however, the money that bought it came with the flitting from Snyder county."
Change of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's Office.
On account of the rearrangement of street numbers in Pittsburg by the city authorities, the office of Mr. Thomas E. Watt, Passenger Agent Western District, Pennsylvania Railroad, as well as the city ticket office, corner of Fifth Avenue and Smithfield Street, Pittsburg, will be changed on April 15 from No. 110, present number, to No. 360 Fifth Avenue.
The Tables Turned.
Centre Hall Reporter.
"The Latest one on Snyder county is this: A fellow from the west end ridges, with his son Jakey, started with a load of railroad ties for the station at Middleburgh, a distance of 7 miles. On a telegraph post near the station was a collector's poster, headed, in big letters, "Notice." Says the old man, "Jakey, wot reads lat big letters on dat pole?" Jakey sp' "No, (no), no, (no), no, (no), 'Er, er, 'er, dey don't wont no more ties and we'll just turn round an' haul 'm home again," says the old man, and back they hauled the ties."
We have thoroughly investigated this matter and find that the man above referred to moved to this county from Centre only a few weeks ago. He came from the section known as "Dumheit Brush Valley." After residing in Snyder County for a short time the family who no doubt become thoroughly civilized and the education of this man and his son Jakey be brought to the high standard so well maintained here, and where ignorance and desperadoism are unknown.—Adamsburg Herald.
People who appreciate a first class mechanic will do well to leave the repairing of watches, clocks and jewelry in the hands of C. O. Moyer, First National Bank Building. He has the latest improved tools and is capable of doing the finest work in his line using nothing but genuine American material. Gold and Silver soldering a specialty. tf.
The Freeburg Courier last week appeared as a Saturday paper with the name of Edwin S. Willis and Son as publishers. Our best wishes and fraternal regards are extended to the new firm who are deserving of the most liberal public patronage. It is with profound regret that we part with H. B. and C. F. Moyer, who now retire from the editorial field with the kindest feeling of their newspaper brethren, but we extend a happy welcome to the new firm who enter the arena with most favorable prospects.
Attorney General McCormick has given the State College and University Council an opinion in which he decides that the following institutions mentioned in a communication of the council to his department have the right to confer degrees: Juniata College, Beaver county; Bryn Mar College, Temple College, at Philadelphia; Grove City College, Mercer county; Pennsylvania College for Women, Allegheny county, and Susquehanna University, Selin's Grove. He takes the position that institutions chartered by the Courts under the act of 1874 have the right to confer degrees if they comply with the act of June 26, 1895. The same opinion holds with respect to those incorporated prior to 1874.

H. H. Grimm placed 2000 trout in Erb's run last week and will put 10 cans of Rock Bass in Middlecreek on Thursday. It is to be hoped that fishing out of season and dynamiting will be stopped at once, or all efforts to stock our streams is useless.
The Middleburgh Post comes to the front in good time and advocates the organization of an agricultural society in Snyder county. Such an institution would draw off a little attention from politics which at times gets mighty hot across Chestnut Ridge.—Lewisburg News.
