Ritter is Nominated.

On Saturday P. Scott Ritter, of Shamokin Dam was nominated for Sheriff on the Republican ticket with a plurality of 101 over Geo. W. Row, of Penn Township, and 180 over ex-Sheriff Bolender of this place. Nearly 2000 votes were polled which is an excessively large vote for this time of the year when there is only one position to be filled.

This completes the Republican ticket in this county. It is composed of strong, clean and loyal republicans who affords a formidable array of men who will carry out principle. Mr. Ritter is well known all over the county and he needs no introduction at our hands. In another column we publish a detailed statement of the votes cast for the three candidates at both the February and at Saturday's election.

Mahon on the Soldier.

Congressman Mahon made a savage attack in Congress a few days ago on the Pension Department. The following is a small portion of quite a lengthy speech:

"After the conduct of the Pension Office during the past two years, if there is a solitary soldier who served in the war and who still has faith in the Democratic party, he has more faith than Abraham ever had. Yes, sir, he has more faith than a baldheaded man who would step into a barber's shop and buy a hair restorer from a baldheaded barber. He has more faith than a fellow who would eat old chestnuts in a dark room.

I do not believe in a system which permits the Government to thus treat the defenders of the flag. I condemn with all the earnestness of my nature a system that puts this stigma of fraud upon my comrades in that great war which preserved the Union. Thousands of as brave men as ever wore a uniform have been summarily dropped from the rolls and disgraced before the eyes of their fellow citizens, and the work of the executioner still goes on.

If an undeserving soldier is on the pension roll today, and the Administration has reason to believe he is there unlawfully, let the Administration confront him with the evidence in its hands and permit the old soldier to meet his accuser, a privilege which is religiously accorded the most depraved criminal in the land. He is permitted to meet his accuser in open court. Shall the veteran have less consideration at the hands of the Government which he helped to save? Grant him this plan, legal right, and if upon full trial it is the judgment of the Administration that he has no right to receive a pension and does not fall within the provisions of the pension law, every soldier and every other patriotic citizen will respect the verdict.

I protest against the presumption of fraud being put upon the men who preserved this country by a member of an Administration who had no part in the great work of its preservation. I protest against this cruel stigma being placed upon them. I protest against this disgrace being put upon their wives and their children who have esteemed the honorable record of their protector as the dearest heirloom of the generations to come. These men who were willing to die for their country must not be left helpless and defenseless by their country. The patriotic people of the country have not thought of deserting them, and will not permit their honor to be impeached.

The amount paid for pensions matters little. The soldiers of the Union did not count the cost when they offered their lives as a free gift to their country. The nation which owes its existence to their valor and their devotion should not make return with a niggard's hand. The people have decreed that no veteran and no veteran's widow shall want for the necessities of life or tread the stony path that leads to the almshouse. The Administration whose constant aim is to lessen the veteran's bounty and whose proudest achievement is the snatching of a pension from an old soldier's trembling hand has earned the condemnation and contempt of every royal citizen.

In ancient days the men who saved the life of a Roman citizen was entitled to wear, as a badge of honor, a laurel wreath. The soldiers of the Union saved the life of the Republic; and the pension voted by a grateful country is their badge of honor. The men who seek to take it from them by tricks and quibbles, who garb their malice under their treachery with the pretense of patriotism are guilty of baseness which makes the crime of the highway robber seem honorable by comparison. The nation reveres the veterans who preserved it. The American people will neither forgive nor forget injustice to the defenders of the American Republic."

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery, it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Graybill, Garman & Co., Richfield and all druggists. Regular size 50c, and $1.00.

A Literary Sensation.

On Thursday, the 28th inst., "The Philadelphia Press" will begin the publication of a new prize story entitled, "Under Three Flags." It is vouchered for as one of the most attractive serials to come to light during recent years, and it is predicted that its appearance will be one of the literary sensations of the year. Interest is added by the offer of "The Press" to distribute $1,000 in prizes to women who will guess the mystery which will be disclosed in the final chapters. Everybody will want to read the story, and all should do so, but only women may guess.

THE BUCKNELL SEMI-CENTENNIAL

The next commencement, which takes place June 19-24, is the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the institution. In order that the occasion may be appropriately celebrated and that the semi-centennial may become a prominent part in the history of the university, large efforts have been put forth to make the occasion one of great interest to all the friends of the university.

On Sunday morning of commencement week President Harris will deliver the historical address in the Baptist church. Rev. E. H. Johnson, D. D., of Crozer Theological Seminary, will preach the sermon before the Pennsylvania Baptist Education Society, in the evening. The oration before the literary societies will be pronounced by President William R. Harper, LL. D., of the University of Chicago. The address to the Alumni will be delivered by Professor Milton Evans, D. D., of Crozer Theological Seminary. The Alumni poem will be read by Mr. C. J. Wolfe, of Lewisburg. Kerr B. Tupper, D. D., of Philadelphia, will deliver the address to the College graduating class and H. L. Wayland, D. D., of the New York Examiner, will be the principal speaker at the corporation dinner. Miss Lucia M' Priest of Boston, will be the speaker before the Alumnae of the Institute, on Monday afternoon.

A history of the University will also be published in honor of the occasion.

The music will be in charge of Dr. Aviragnet, whose success in bringing together musicians of great ability insures all commencement visitors that the music at the coming anniversary will be of a high order.

Special railroad rates will be secured and arrangement will be made with the hotels and boarding houses for the accommodation of the many visitors expected.

The college graduating class this year numbers 35 members. The graduates from the Institute School of Music number twenty. Large classes usually mean a large commencement. The large classes graduating this year and the commencement being the half-way mark in the university's century will attract a large crowd there next June.

Mr. D. P. Davis, a prominent liveryman and merchant of Goshen, Va., has this to say on the subject of rheumatism: "I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, as I know from personal experience that it will do all that is claimed for it. A year ago this spring my brother was laid up in bed with inflammatory rheumatism and suffered intensely. The first application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm eased the pain and the use of one bottle completely cured him. For sale by all druggists."

Moved! Moved!

J. L. Marks has moved his residence. It is now between the railroad and Ush's mill. You can locate it by a platform in front of it. The platform has three planks in it, all different. One is a high tariff plank, one a tariff reform plank, one a silver 16 to 1 plank. You can still get that good old all rye whiskey all the same. 5-14-3t.

How to Treat a Wife.

(From Pacific Health Journal) First, get a wife; second, be patient. You may have great trials and perplexities in your business, but do not therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may have trials, which, though of less magnitude, may be hard for her to bear. A kind word, a tender look, will do wonders in chasing from her brow all clouds of gloom.—To this we would add always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. It is the best and is sure to be needed sooner or later. Your wife will then know that you really care for her and wish to protect her health.

Cancer Of the Face.

Mrs. Laura E. Mims, of Smithville, Ga., says: "A small pimple of a strawberry color appeared on my cheek; it soon began to grow rapidly, notwithstanding all efforts to check it. My eye became terribly inflamed, and was so swollen that for quite a while I could not see. The doctors said I had Cancer of the most malignant type, and after exhausting their efforts without doing me any good, they gave up the case as hopeless. When informed that my father had died from the same disease, they said I must die, as hereditary Cancer was incurable. At this crisis, I was advised to try S.S.S., and in a short while the Cancer began to discharge and continued to do so for three months, then it began to heal. I continued the medicine a while longer until the Cancer disappeared entirely. This was several years ago and there has been no return of the disease."
