

Post's Scholarship Prizes.

FREE TUITION, Heat, Furnished Room, Institution fee in Literary Societies, Use of Library, books and Reading Room for 51 weeks at The Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, Pa., will be divided among three persons to be selected by the readers of this paper.

FIRST PRIZE.
The person receiving the most votes will be entitled to a scholarship of one year or 39 weeks including Tuition, Furnished Room and everything mentioned above.

SECOND PRIZE.
The person receiving the next highest number of votes will receive the second prize, being a scholarship for two terms or 27 weeks at the same place. This includes Tuition, Furnished Room and everything mentioned above.

THIRD PRIZE.
The person standing third in the contest will receive the third prize being a scholarship for 15 weeks and includes everything above mentioned.

These prizes are worth $200 and can not be secured for less money; any where except at Susquehanna University. This institution has as strong a faculty as can be found in the state.

This offer reflects our former magnanimous offer and should bring to the front persons who are anxious to better prepare themselves for life's great duty. Every issue of the Post contains a blank ballot or voting coupon. Any person can vote as often as he or she pleases, but the ballot used the voting coupon below or a premium coupon issued by the editor of this paper for services rendered in its behalf. Twenty-four premium coupons will be issued for every new subscriber to the Post. Should any of the subscribers of the Post feel sufficiently interested in the welfare of any contestant and pay up all arrears of subscription and one year in advance the subscriber is entitled to eighteen premium coupons or 12 votes for every month paid in advance. The premium coupons will be enclosed to whomsoever the subscriber names. It must be understood that no contestant is authorized to dupe subscribers for money. Subscribers will confer a favor by reporting any persons who do not conform to this offer.

NOTE 1. Changing the name from one person to another will not be considered getting a new subscriber.

NOTE 2. Twenty premium coupons (equal to 20 votes) in the contest will be given for every dollar's worth of job work or new advertising matter that is brought to this office.

The majority of the people have been well cared for, but early in the week the supply of articles was exhausted, and the members of the committee were unable to secure a new stock, although they had money with which to buy.

The House of Delegates passed a bill appropriating $100,000 for the relief of the tornado sufferers, with but one dissenting vote. A movement has been inaugurated to raise a fund of $200,000 or more to aid those who lost their homes to enable them to rebuild.

At the first meeting, an impromptu one held at the Xenia hotel, $25,000 was contributed by prominent business men, and this will be increased. It is proposed to loan tornado sufferers money on second mortgage.

S. D. Webster, general claim agent of the Terminal Railroad Association, announces that the upper roadway of the bridge has been completed so as to admit the passage of foot passengers. The roadway was torn up a distance of 150 feet. Part of the debris was piled up on the railroad tracks, and all the next day after the storm was occupied in clearing away the rocks and other wreckage. When this was finished the trains were allowed to cross. The work of erecting a temporary roadway and supports were then commenced. This has been carried steadily ever since, but the work progressed slowly owing to the fact that the workmen were obliged to keep the railroad tracks clear.

OVER 1,000 DERIVISHES KILLED.

Their Force Completely Routed in a Battle at Firket.

The Marquis of Lansdowne, Secretary of State for War, has received a telegram dated Akasha, June 7, from Sir Herbert Kitchener, Commander-in-Chief of the Egyptian army, saying:

"We surprised the enemy at dawn at Firket. They resisted gallantly, holding the hills and village, but were completely defeated and their retreat cut off."

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Cailhouette, druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Graybill, Garman & Co., Richfield, or all other drug stores.

New Music Just Out.

"Nantasket Beach Waltz" and "My Heart's Delight Good Night," the latter a song, are among the latest music published by the National Music company of Chicago. They are the compositions of Sibyl Harker Kerlin, of Storm Lake, Iowa, and from an examination of advanced sheets we find them musical gems, which give promise of great popularity. While they are very pretty pieces they are not difficult, therefore they will fill a demand that is constantly being made by thousands of piano players and singers all over the land. Any music dealer can furnish them. Price 50 cents each.

Mothers will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy especially valuable for croup and whooping cough. It will give prompt relief and is safe and pleasant. We have sold it for several years and it has never failed to give the most perfect satisfaction. G. W. Richards, Duquesne, Pa. Sold by all druggists.

Living Topics Magazine

A really unique publication, of rare interest and value to all intelligent readers, as a free sample copy which the publisher offers will quickly convince you. It deals only with such facts in current events and the world's progress in all departments of knowledge as one would expect to find recorded in a first-class encyclopedia were it up-to-date—which no encyclopedia is or possibly can be, because of its magnitude and cost; and yet the average reader inquires more concerning things of the past three years than concerning the preceding three centuries. Topics are treated in alphabetical order, and as often as the alphabet is covered a new series will begin and the same course be resumed. The first series will be completed within the present year—approximately 1,000 pages, all for the surprisingly low price of $1.00. John B. Alden, Publisher, New York.

Mr. James Perrine, an old soldier residing at Monroe, Mich., was severely afflicted with rheumatism but received prompt relief from pain by using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "At times my back would ache so badly that I could hardly rise up. If I had not gotten relief I would not be here to write these few lines. Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done me a great deal of good and I feel very thankful for it. For sale by all drug gists."

Ursinus College Catalogue.

The catalogue of Ursinus College for the year 1895-96, which has just been published, bears evidence of the growing prosperity of the institution.

The publication is a handsome book of 106 pages, well edited and thoroughly up to date in its arrangement and in the work which it announces.

The Faculty consists of twenty Professors and Instructors, who represent education at Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Johns Hopkins and Clark Universities and six American colleges. Four courses of study are offered, all leading to the A. B. degree, designated as Classical, Mathematical-Physical, Chemical-Biological and Modern Languages.

The number of students enrolled is 194, of whom 66 are in the College, 31 in the School of Theology, and 98 in the Academy.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the Liver and Kidneys and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion and is pronounced by all who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at Graybill, Garman & Co., Richfield, Drug Store.

A Kind Donor.

The members of St. Matthew's Ev. Luth. church at McClure, Rev. O. S. Scheirer, pastor, were highly pleased on Sunday with the kindness that was shown to them by one of its members. The pastor in the name of Mr. A. K. Middleswarth, the kind donor, presented to the Church Council and members three fine pulp chairs. The gift is highly appreciated by all as a token of great regard. May the richest blessing of God rest upon this kind donor, and may the good Lord give him a place in His kingdom in the wish and prayer of this congregation. By order of
