

CHRISTIAN ENDAVOR TOPICS.

TOPIC FOR SUNDAY, JUNE 21.

Subjects and Difficulties. (A Question Box Meeting Suggested.)

- 1. Peter's doubt. Matt. xiv. 25-32.
2. John's doubt. Matt. xi. 1-6.
3. Thomas' doubt. John xv. 24-29.
4. Mary's difficulty. Mark. xvi. 1-8.
5. Gilson's difficulty. Judg. vi. 11-21.
6. Elijah's difficulty. Kings xix. 9-18.

QUESTIONS AND DIFFICULTIES are sure to come the life of every Christian, in none of us...

Do you want to know whether or not you are a Christian? Do you want to know whether or not you are a Christian?

Do you want to know whether or not you are a Christian? Do you want to know whether or not you are a Christian?

Do you want to know whether or not you are a Christian? Do you want to know whether or not you are a Christian?

Do you want to know whether or not you are a Christian? Do you want to know whether or not you are a Christian?

Do you want to know whether or not you are a Christian? Do you want to know whether or not you are a Christian?

EPWORTH LEAGUE DEPARTMENT.

"CHRIST AND THE CHURCH."

- 21. Church Abuses.—Matthew 21. 12.
13. Mark 7. 1-13; Luke 6. 1-11.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

That which is good may be perverted, and that which is evil may be used for purposes displeasing to him.

SELECT RELIGIOUS READING.

THE HAUNTING PART.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

In the last analysis there is only one thing, after all, of which a human being is afraid—and that is his own past life, with its accruing results.

NEGATIVE TEMPERANCE TOPICS.

ONLY A BABY'S PRAYER.

"Now I lay me down to sleep"—'Twas just at even tide, A little freckled, chubby boy knelt by his mother's side.

He thought of how he used to kneel beside his little bed, And how his mother knelt there, too—alas!

He looked back o'er the vanished years when he was but a boy, So full of hope and innocence, his own dear mother's joy.

Since then the drinkard's cup has thrown its shadow o'er his life, It wrecks his years and crushed the hope of his devoted wife.

The wedded love was blighted and their home was filled with tears, And the future seemed to promise only dark and dreary years.

"God bless my papa dear to-night, an' mate him dood and true, Thus came the words from tender lips. His heart was stirred anew.

The mother hugs her little boy and checks a strayin' tear, The father's heart glows warm again with love for those so dear.

'Tis night again, and side by side they both kneel down and pray, Just as they used to do at home in times so far away.

The father's heart is true once more; his words are kind and mild, He kneels a ransomed man at last, led by a little child.

—Albert C. Smith, in Ram's Horn.

FRANCE'S DRINK BILL.

A statistician has been at the trouble to ascertain what quantity of wine, beer or alcoholic spirits is consumed annually by each inhabitant of France.

A litre is more than a quart, with the average of 254 litres a citizen, while the Department of the Var they are only one quart less.

The Manche Department comes out first, with the very respectable total of 419 litres of wine for each inhabitant, and all about the same quantity for the other departments.

The manhood of your sons or the womanhood of your daughters, if a maiden do not offer it to your male friends, and if tempted to do so just think for a moment of the terrible responsibility you assume.

Do not try to induce the man who, from sad experience, knows his weakness to break his pledge of resolution to abstain. This is often one thoughtless error, and a mistaken idea of friendship or sociability, and is a wrong.

Do not try to induce the man who, from sad experience, knows his weakness to break his pledge of resolution to abstain. This is often one thoughtless error, and a mistaken idea of friendship or sociability, and is a wrong.

Do not try to induce the man who, from sad experience, knows his weakness to break his pledge of resolution to abstain. This is often one thoughtless error, and a mistaken idea of friendship or sociability, and is a wrong.

Do not try to induce the man who, from sad experience, knows his weakness to break his pledge of resolution to abstain. This is often one thoughtless error, and a mistaken idea of friendship or sociability, and is a wrong.

Do not try to induce the man who, from sad experience, knows his weakness to break his pledge of resolution to abstain. This is often one thoughtless error, and a mistaken idea of friendship or sociability, and is a wrong.

Do not try to induce the man who, from sad experience, knows his weakness to break his pledge of resolution to abstain. This is often one thoughtless error, and a mistaken idea of friendship or sociability, and is a wrong.

Do not try to induce the man who, from sad experience, knows his weakness to break his pledge of resolution to abstain. This is often one thoughtless error, and a mistaken idea of friendship or sociability, and is a wrong.

Do not try to induce the man who, from sad experience, knows his weakness to break his pledge of resolution to abstain. This is often one thoughtless error, and a mistaken idea of friendship or sociability, and is a wrong.

KEYSTONE STATE NEWS CONDENSED.

37 STABBED A SUCCESSFUL RIVAL.

Two Young Men Engage in a Bloody Dispute Over a Girl.

At Hollidaysburg, John Lemon, aged 23 years, son of the late ex-Auditor General John A. Lemon, became involved in an altercation with John Formholtz, an associate, at the Brown row.

A score or more of heads were bruised as a result of a row between the two factions of the colored congregation of the Ebenezer church, Miller and Colwell streets, Pittsburgh.

The committee which is soliciting for the steel mill in Sharon is meeting with great success. Therefor, nearly $100,000 has been raised and it is expected that $50,000 more will be collected.

A valuable antiquarian find was made on the site of the old fort at Ligonia. A medal issued by William and Mary in 1690, in celebration of the battle of Byone, was unearthed.

The New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio railroad company has been ordered by the court at Mercer, to pay $2,000, with interest to Stewart & Shurt for the loss of 16 head of horses in the Hornesville wreck of a year ago.

Richard Lydick, leader of the famous gang that terrorized Indiana for 10 years, has been sentenced to 13 years in the penitentiary, and his confederates, "Sir Dick" Lydick and Leslie Cochran, were given 9 year terms.

William Sowers, a coal miner at Mosgrove, was belted by a train at Wick City. He had been drinking and evidently had lain down on the track. The young man's parents reside at Coyleville, Butler county.

C. G. Towells, a married man living near Franklin, assaulted Jesse Lymor, a 6-year-old girl, and was found guilty by the child's father before being taken to jail. Lymor was threatened by the angry neighbors.

A protest has been entered by manufacturing concerns at Jeannette against a change in the course of a stream flowing from that place to Irwin, proposed by the council of the latter town.

The body of Patrick Sigh, found floating in the river near Coleman station, on the Allegheny Valley railroad, makes the seventh victim of camping clubs in that vicinity within a week.

The new city hall at Monaca will be dedicated on July 4 with a big street parade by the fire department and other organizations, speeches, a big dinner and fireworks in the evening.

Frank James B. Nixon, of Beaver Falls, has investigated a crusade against signs of smoking and drinking in the streets of his city. Several articles to boys under six years of age.

Charles Gray, William May and Howard Smith who were arrested for robbing the postoffice at Snowsboro, Center county, have been held under $1,500 bail each for trial.

A petition has been presented in the Beaver county court asking for slowers to appraise the several bridges spanning the river with the object of having them made free.

The bakery and confectionery of Mrs. Sadie E. Blackburn, at West Newton, has been seized by the sheriff at the suit of J. B. Sechrist and will be sold June 18.

Over 3,000 people participated in the annual rally of the Allegheny County Junior Christian Endeavor societies at the exposition building.

The people of West Jeannette want the Pennsylvania railroad to do away with a dangerous crossing at Fourth street by making a tunnel.

Mrs. Ellen M. Robb, of New Castle, has filed an application for divorce from her husband, Andrew Robb, alleging cruelty and intemperance.

In the case of Thomas against the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Cambria county, tried at Ebensburg, a verdict of $2,000 was rendered.

Coroner McDowell, of Pittsburgh, had six cases of death from over-indulgence in beer and other intoxicants within the week.

Within the past two weeks 13 men and boys employed at Lowell & Layberger's lumber plant, at Penfield, have been injured.

Charles McDermott, a 13-year-old boy of Franklin, who cut his knee on a piece of glass three weeks ago, has died from lockjaw.

For the whole family

Lively Liver, Pure Blood, Beautiful Complexion, Perfect Health in

NEVER GRIPE NEVER SICKEN NEVER WEAKEN. 10c 25c

Purely vegetable, eat like candy, never fail to induce a natural action of the stomach, liver and bowels.

NO-TO-BAC GUARANTEED TOBACCO HABIT CURE

The Indestructible "Maywood" BICYCLE. THIS $75.00 COMPLETE BICYCLE WITH COUPON. $35

The "Maywood" is the strongest and simplest road and rider. Made of material that easily taken apart and put together; has few joints that cannot be broken even in an accident.

FRANK J. TOWELL, a married man living near Franklin, assaulted Jesse Lymor, a 6-year-old girl, and was found guilty by the child's father before being taken to jail.

A protest has been entered by manufacturing concerns at Jeannette against a change in the course of a stream flowing from that place to Irwin, proposed by the council of the latter town.

The body of Patrick Sigh, found floating in the river near Coleman station, on the Allegheny Valley railroad, makes the seventh victim of camping clubs in that vicinity within a week.

The new city hall at Monaca will be dedicated on July 4 with a big street parade by the fire department and other organizations, speeches, a big dinner and fireworks in the evening.

Frank James B. Nixon, of Beaver Falls, has investigated a crusade against signs of smoking and drinking in the streets of his city.

Charles Gray, William May and Howard Smith who were arrested for robbing the postoffice at Snowsboro, Center county, have been held under $1,500 bail each for trial.

A petition has been presented in the Beaver county court asking for slowers to appraise the several bridges spanning the river with the object of having them made free.

The bakery and confectionery of Mrs. Sadie E. Blackburn, at West Newton, has been seized by the sheriff at the suit of J. B. Sechrist and will be sold June 18.

Over 3,000 people participated in the annual rally of the Allegheny County Junior Christian Endeavor societies at the exposition building.

The people of West Jeannette want the Pennsylvania railroad to do away with a dangerous crossing at Fourth street by making a tunnel.

Mrs. Ellen M. Robb, of New Castle, has filed an application for divorce from her husband, Andrew Robb, alleging cruelty and intemperance.

In the case of Thomas against the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Cambria county, tried at Ebensburg, a verdict of $2,000 was rendered.

Coroner McDowell, of Pittsburgh, had six cases of death from over-indulgence in beer and other intoxicants within the week.

Within the past two weeks 13 men and boys employed at Lowell & Layberger's lumber plant, at Penfield, have been injured.

Charles McDermott, a 13-year-old boy of Franklin, who cut his knee on a piece of glass three weeks ago, has died from lockjaw.

good thinking to the minister at 30 much per thought, and the lady (Anglo Saxon; blaedfioe loaf-giver) in our modern complicated civilization delegates her material duties to a teacher, her domestic duties to a servant.

the burden of... her, a burden that is made up of the knowledge that the only moral training some of her fidgety little charges will receive, must be imparted by her, though quite foreign to the one duty she is paid for, then her condition is most pitiable.

ULTIMA BAKING POWDER PUREST AND BEST LESS THAN HALF THE PRICE OF OTHER BRANDS

R-I-P-A-N-S The modern standard Family Medicine: Cures the common every-day ills of humanity.

LARRABEE'S RHEUMATIC LINIMENT has enjoyed a constant patronage for over thirty years. It is wonderfully efficacious in all painful diseases, such as Rheumatism, Lumbago, Catarrh, Toothache, Neuralgia, Headache, and other ailments where pain is an attendant. Try it. A Drug Store or by mail on receipt of name, address and 5 cents.

The Bishop-sleeved shirt waist and five-gored skirt of navy blue.