LOCAL INTEREST

Misses Bessie Mechtly and Myrtle Klose of Adamsburg last week were entertained at Phillip Spaid's. The streets are now furnished with a full supply of street lamps which adds greatly to the comfort of night pedestrians. H. Harry Bower of Lewisburg, who has just received his degree from Bucknell University, spent last week at Middleburgh. Benneville Smith will represent the P. O. S. of A. Camp of this place at the State Convention to be held at Altoona in August. Charles Smith and Misses Nellie Smith and Nettie Specht of Adamsburg attended the ball game on Wednesday of last week. Use your voting coupons. The scholarships at Susquehanna University will be given away on the strength of these coupons. The Lewistown encampment opens on Saturday. A great many people from this county will visit the encampment on Sunday. Rev. D. E. McLain of this place and Rollin Bowersox of Paxtonville are among those attending the C. E. Convention at Washington, D. C. For SALE—A first class bicycle is offered for sale cheap. For particulars call at this office or address "J. J. S." Box 217, Middleburgh, Pa. Mrs. Jacob Broom, a sister of David Ocker, of this place was buried at Laurelton on Friday, July 3rd, aged 49 years, 6 months and 14 days. Many of the witnesses on the railroad side of the damage suit of A. W. Potter and Miss Mollie Burns were at the county seat last Friday. Mrs. Reuben Aumiller died at her husband's residence in Selingsgrove on Friday a week ago. She leaves a husband and a daughter to mourn her loss. Last Saturday Selingsgrove defeated Montgomery at base ball by a score of 6 to 13. Selingsgrove has not been defeated on her own grounds this year. H. Milton Amig of this place and Miss Sallie Reigle of Freeburg were married on Sunday morning, July 5th by Rev. Snable. The Post extends best wishes. Isaac Swarm, who resided two miles west of Middleburgh, died last week and was buried on Sunday. Rev. Buddinger officiated. He was about 65 years of age. J. M. Mullen, who accompanied the Lewistown cyclists on Sunday, had a break down at Fremont, walked back to this place and took the train home on Monday. The County Normal School under the direction of Superintendent Bowersox began at this place on Monday. Those who intend to teach should not fail to attend. Now the mail is being carried from Freeburg to Middleburgh instead of to Kreamer. John B. Weller has the contract to carry the mail over the new route for $145 per annum. G. Frank Grimm, of Kendall Green, D. C. has completed his course in the Deaf and Dumb institute at said place, graduating with honors. He is now at his parental home here. Prof. Geo. E. Fisher, Ph. B. who has lately been elected to the chair of science at Susquehanna University, started on Friday for Chautauqua, N. Y., to spend six weeks in special study for his new position. The Fourth of July was celebrated in grand old style at Selingsgrove. The rain interfered somewhat with the program, but that did not keep the American Eagle from screaming. The fire works were put off last Friday evening. A smooth, easy shave, genteel hair cut, or other tonsorial work, is always obtained at Soles' Barber Shop, in Wittenmyer's Building, opposite Post office. Go to Soles and you will make no mistake. Shaving soap, face cream, hair oil and egg-shampoo for sale. A. E. Soles.

A. M. Aurand and wife, J. B. Spangler, A. W. Aurand, Miss Effie Aurand and Mrs. J. A. Catherman of Adamsburg and the Editor of the Post were the county's representatives at Atlantic City on the Editorial excursion. C. O. Moyer has moved his jewelry store to Selingsgrove. He has placed a new advertisement in the Post and by it demonstrates that he learned to know a good medium in which to advertise his goods. Mr. Moyer visited our town last Thursday. Milton T. Orwig of Houtzdale, formerly of this place, rode on his wheel from Houtzdale via Lewistown and Middleburgh to Salem where his wife and children are visiting her mother's family. This is a very extensive ride for one day and an accomplishment that few will undertake. An exchange got into serious trouble recently by omitting two capital letters from the following interesting item: "Lewis, a popular young man of this community, and Miss Ida Jones, a long hollow school teacher, were married last week." The new officers of the P. O. S. of A. camp are as follows: President, L. G. Smith; Vice President, N. A. Bowers; Master of Forms, Harry C. Gubins; Conductor, F. K. Bowersox; Guard, J. F. Stetler; Trustee, Adam Showers; Delegate to State Convention, Banneville Smith; Alternate, L. G. Smith. The following teachers have been elected to serve in the Selingsgrove Schools: Prof. R. Loyd Schroyer, Principal; Asst., W. A. Moyer; grammar, C. O. Gaugler; Asst., A. E. Cooper; Intermediate, Della Burns; Primary, Anna Boyer; Nell Forgy and Lydia Fisher, tie. Island Grammar, C. D. Grissinger; Primary, Jennie Miller. D. N. App and G. C. Wagenseiler of Selingsgrove last week sold "Eanteo," to Dr. F. L. Smith of Lehighton, Pa. for $250. "Eanteo" is the bay gelding that Messrs. App and Wagenseiler bought at Harrisburg June 5th and trots in 2:30. Mr. App is a thorough horseman and has a reputation for keeping only the very best horses on hand to supply the many people who come to him to be suited. The improvements about the Central Hotel are now completed. Both the bar room and the sitting room have been enlarged. A new bar and a private drinking room has been put in. Both rooms have been newly painted and paper. Mr. Smith is a model hotel man and the increase of patronage is due to the careful attention paid to guests and the liberal use of printers' ink. Next Saturday the Newport base ball team will cross bats with the Selingsgrove team on the latter's grounds. The Newport team will be the strongest team to visit Selingsgrove this year, having played against Harrisburg last Saturday and neither side scored until the tenth inning. The game on Saturday will be called at 2 p. m. and should be witnessed by everybody. D. L. Krebs, of Snyder county, was sent to jail by Squire Vincent, of Northumberland, Wednesday evening. He was charged by Ella B. Cooner of stealing her pocket-book containing $2 in money. The pocket-book was worth one dollar. On Thursday morning Mrs. Frank, of Fourth and Chestnut streets, this city, swore out a warrant for Krebs before Squire Kelley for jumping a board bill.—Sunbury Democrat. The United Evangelical camp-meeting will commence on Tuesday, Aug. 18, 1896. It will be held in the grove on the opposite side of the Middlecreek to where it was held last year. The Middleburgh Base Ball team crossed bats at this place with a select nine from Selingsgrove on last Wednesday. The game was the first of the season and as neither side had much practice, brilliant plays were wanting. The players and score of runs was as follows: Middleburgh, Selingsgrove. Gilbert, A. R., 1b, 3 Puttill, c. Marks, 2b, 1 Koenig, c. 2b. Wittenmyer, p, 2 Rohrer, 3b. Matthews, 3b, 2 Foggy, 1b. Stetler, c, 0 Kessler, 1st. Clemen, cf, 0 Foster, 2d. Savelly, rf, 0 Warner, 3b. Gilbert, A. P., 2b, 0 Koller, 1b. Spangler, ss, 0 Koller, W. cf. 10 10. A Meteor's Flight. On Tuesday evening of last week a strange phenomenon that swept in glaring grandeur across the Eastern sky was noticed by residents of this place and vicinity. A long streak of brilliant light stretched across the sky. The light dwindled to a pale white light and finally disappeared. A loud report followed. Houses were shaken and windows rattled. The same phenomenon was noticed at Selingsgrove, Sunbury, Harrisburg, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Lock Haven and intervening points. A Great Paper. On our return from the seashore we found on our desk a copy of the Special Moving Edition of the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph. It was a massive edition the manager of which is our own Snyder county boy, William H. Miller. The Advertisements for this one day alone cost $22,000, the printing of and management of the entire issue in Mr. Miller's hands. The Baldwin Locomotive Works used a page of advertising and for this they paid $1000. Does it pay to advertise? Ask those people who have tried it. We congratulate Mr. Miller upon the successful completion of so arduous a task. For 25 Years. Rev. Haas of Selingsgrove served his charge for 25 years and on Saturday the members of his different churches met at the Reformed church and gave him a surprise reception. Prof. Wm. Moyer of Freeburg, in behalf of the parishioners presented the parson with a handsome gold watch. The divine responded in a neat speech accepting the token of esteem. He said that in these 25 years he preached over 500 funeral sermons while his membership aggregates only 400 persons. Rev. Haas said if he had been informed in time he might have presented more statistics. Luncheon was then served. The members congratulated the beloved pastor on his successful career and wished that their relations might continue for many more years. Lesh's Pen Picture of Himself. If Editor Lesh of the Selingsgrove Times would go to the seashore, with his stove pipe hat that ante-dates his populist ideas and even the Ben. Harrison hat he would hesitate to criticize a fellow scribe because he dressed for comfort. Besides if all the crash suits that are worn this season were made of "TOE" half of our population would have to be slaughtered to get "TOES" enough to make them. Perhaps Joe meant a "TOW" suit and only forgot to consult his dictionary. The experiences attributed to us were evidently those of his own, but we look to Burns for consolation: "Oh Wad, some power the gittie gie us, To see ourselves as thers see us."

ATLANTIC CITY. The Most Popular Watering Place in America is Visited by Pennsylvania Editors. A place with more varied amusements than Atlantic City is difficult to find. All grades and qualities of taste can be gratified. The most sedate and the most trivial disposition can find solace side by side in the city by the sea. No person is so poor and none so rich that he does not desire to inhale the cool and invigorating breezes from the briny deep. The esplanade is the thoroughfare for all pleasure seekers. Thronged with people all day long, the walk is the mecca for the straggler, slowly and quietly moving along, as well as for those who by their step show that pleasure is not their only purpose. Exhilarated by the bracing air from the sea the visitor is lifted above the dull and sordid cares of every-day life and transported with lightning rapidity to the realms of perfect bliss. The scenes and experiences of the aged are none the less free from frivolities than are those of more tender years. A plunge into the seething surf not only removes extraneous matter from the body but gives to it a wholesome and healthful change. The writer accompanied by the Editorial association reached this popular resort on Tuesday, June 29, having been taken from Philadelphia by one of the Pennsylvania Railroad's fast trains over the new Delaware River Bridge. The Grand Atlantic Hotel was our temporary abode. Having been erected during the last 90 days and then for the first time opened to the public. It is located 3 minutes walk from the beach and is elegantly fitted up. One can form some idea of the cost of the structure, when we say that the carpet alone cost $8000. Three days were spent very pleasantly in entertainment and amusement so varied that our space will not permit of all the details. Justice, however, demands attention to the Cleveland Minstrels, the Coal Mine and Reacker and Pharo's Daughter, entertainments to which our party were extended the usual courtesies. Bathing and watching were freely indulged. Fishing, driving and bicycle riding were other amusements. Friday most of the Editors deserted Atlantic City. Saturday the writer spent picnicking in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, where 10,000 others spent the great anniversary of American Independence. A sham battle was fought, bands played and a thousand and one other things were done. A visit to Memorial and Horticultural Halls were pleasures afforded the writer. Sunday was spent in Camden and Lincoln Park which is reached by boats running down the Delaware river. We have neither time nor space to dilate upon the details of the trip. In conclusion, however, we desire to thank J. R. Wood, General Passenger Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, for courtesies so generously extended. Notes. In Philadelphia we had the pleasure of seeing D. E. Kreamer, clerk of the Custom House, who with his new bride are living at 503 N. 4th Street. Also Dr. H. R. Swing and Samuel Fulton. In Camden we were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Maloney and daughter, the latter two being well known in Middleburgh, having two years ago spent the summer here. J. J. Mitchell, Kreamer, has been granted an increase of pension. Creighton Millhouse and wife of Reading spent several days with his parents in Swinford. We will offer all our silks 20 percent below regular price on Saturday, July 25th. S. Weis, Selingsgrove. Letters of Administration in the estate of G. M. Fisher were granted on Saturday to Ellsworth Aurand of Shamokin Dam.
