A New Novel by Rudyard Kipling

Rudyard Kipling is now putting the last touches on a fifty-thousandword novel dealing with the Gloucester fishermen and their life on the Grand Banks. It is written from close personal atudy of the scene and the people. It is American in its characters, and in its plot seafaring and adventurous. It breaks entirely new ground. The title is "Captains Courageous."

There has been a lively competition for the serial rights of "Captains Courageous." They have been secured for the United States by The S. S. McClure Co., and publication of the novel will begin in the November number of McCLURE'S MAGAzine.

Choir Convention.

The Ninth Annual Snyder County Choir Convention will convene on the usual grounds, one mile north of Freeburg, on Saturday, August 15, 1896. The annual address will be delivered by Rev. D. E. McLain, at 11 A. M. All the church choirs in the county are expected. Each Choir Master will arrange his program. The Mass Choruses from Professor Lorenz "Choir Leader," will be rendered, supported by players upon string and wind instruments. Part of the program will be reserved for vocal and instrumental soloists. Several bands will play during intermission. A cordial invitation is extended to lovers of music.

WILLIAM MOYER, Pres. W. FREYMAN, Sec.

Curtin Bowersox will run his cider mill on Wednesday and Thursday of each week for two weeks. After that it will be run every day except Saturday and Sunday.
