

ance policies, all pensioners, and all others who have invested savings by loaning them directly or indirectly to suffer a loss of about half of every dollar which they own upon the plea that these dollars have a value twice as great as they ought to have. It is assumed, however, that the farmer will not lose, but will gain.

The farmers who follow Bryan have been deceived. While it is probable that those who would suffer the most severely are the workingmen, the farmers would stand very near them on any scale that should measure the misery of the people.

Undoubtenly the election of Bryan would be followed by a panie. This is admitted by the silverites themselves. There would be a destruction of confidence and a paralysis of credit. Would not this affect the farmer? Can the farmers isolate themselves and excape the effect of depression that is and must be felt by all other classes, speculators possibly excepted? Even if Bryan should be elected, at least eight months would clapse before the silver standard could be adopted by legislation. The panie which would follow his election would depress the prices of farm products; the paralysis of credit would deprive the grain grower of the sustaining power which 'carries" his crops after they have been harvested and facilitates an advantageous distribution of them throughout the year. "isidering toop, these crops in the home which and fall off, owing to the condition or ent workingmen.

those mortgages at 53 cents on the dollar. perhaps overlooking the fact that they are conspiring to rob the widow and the orphan? According to the government reports, the average life of a mortgage in this country on farm property is about four and one-half years. It is now stated by western men who appear to be familiar with the farm mortgage business that a majority of the farm mortgages in force are due; that is to say, that the terms of them have expired and that they continue in existence because the lendors are satisfled with the interest received.

Would these lenders, holding mortgages overdue, take no action if Bryan should be elected? Does not the western farmer see that they would demand payment and that they would foreclose if payment should not be made? Would not the election of Bryan be followed by a general resort to foreclosure proceedings on the part of mortgage holders who could legally take such a course? Would even the offer of a renewal of a mortgage upon terms binding the farmer to pay in gold prevent the lender from undertaking to reclaim his money? The Bryan platform calls for legislation which shall prevent the making of such agreements. Could the farmers fairly blame the lenders for desiring to recover their loaned money in 100 cent dollars before proposed and impending legisto tion should compel them to be satisfied with 53 cent dollars?

What would be the effect upon the farmers, whether silverites or advocates of honest money, of the inevitable panic conditions and this foreclosure movement? And if the silver standard should be adopred by legislation eight months or a year after the election of Bryan does the farmer think he could then horrow more money without great difficulty? Does he think, or the whole, that the agriculturists of the United States can gain anything by a policy of robbery and repudiation, which would make us detestable the world over;

There are many farmers-a great many, we believe-who see clearly how great would be the injury inflicted upon our agriculturists by the election of Bryan. These should strive to enlighten those tillers of the soil who have been misled by hired agents of the mine owners and other demngogues -- New York Times.

Keep it Before the People.

That the financial and business trouble in the country has occurred since Cleve-Innd's election. That it has been brought about by the policy of the Democratic administration there can be no doubt. It gave the country such a blow between the eyes that it has not yet fully recovered. And now the Democrats propose to give it another blow harder than the first. The first blow was by free trade, the next is to be by free silver. Will the country stand up and take it? We believe not. Yet it goes before the people and asks that it may be retained in power, admitting its present failure, but offering a change of mediit will buy about eighteen pounds. In 1873 a dollar woeld purchase only five yards of shirting; today it will buy about ten yards.

In 1875 a dollar would purchase about fourteen yards of print cloth; today it will buy over thirty yards.

In 1873 a dollar would purchase only a gallon and a half of molasses; today it will buy over three gallons.

In 1873 a dollar would purahase about three-quarters of a yard of two-ply ingrain carpeting; today it will buy two yards.

In 1873 a dollar would purchase only about twenty pounds of cut nails; today it will buy fifty pounds. Comparisons to the same effect might be made ad infinitum.

Yet free silver demagogues have the assurance to tell the "poor man" that the present dollar is solely in the interest of the "rich man," and that what the "poor man" needs is a dollar that will double his cost of living.

Fortunately the average "poor man" is not poor in common sense.

Don't Grow Careless.

not grow careless and indifferent in the present campaign simply because our state will give the Republican ticket a tremendous majority. There are issues at stake which vitally affect us. The Democrats have indorsed a platform which means, if it means anything, flat repudiation. The sturdy citizens of the grand old commonwealth of Pennsylvania should stamp their seal of disapproval on such a proposition. We are not ready to repudiate our debts simply to please a few rattlebrained theorists. Another thing which should be borne in mind by Pennsylvania Republicans. The representatives of the party in the national convention have pledged themselves in favor of a protective tariff which will cause the revival of the industries which have languished ever since the Democrats assumed control of the affairs of government. Republicans of Pennsylvania must arouse and organize in every district to defeat the party which has sold its hirthright for a mess of pottage, and has thereby driven from its ranks all the self respecting men who are opposed to repudiation and anarchy .- Hold-

People Won't Have It.

One of our best Indiana county farmers remarked the other day that three years ago, under the Mckinley tariff bill, he sold his wool at the rate of $2.23 for each sheep. Under the Democratic free trade arrangement this year he only got 75 cents a head. "That's the sort of "a change" the Democrats gave us four years ago. They now want us to try another experiment in the shape of free coluage. But the peo-nie won't have it.-Indiana Messenger.
