A BURDEN TO THE HELPLESS.

to the Old Soldiers Under a System That Proposes to Reduce the Purchasing Power of Their Pensions-A Thing That Appeals to the Pocketbook of Every Man in the State.

Every human and patriotic citizen looks with the utmost satisfaction upon the munificent provision which the nation has made for the old soldiers, says the Chambersburg Public Opinion. Actual want is relieved, as well as substantial honor conferred, by the pensions granted to the disabled men who bore the brunt of the batith relatives at Freeburg tle in the contest for the life of the nation. Doubtless there have been pensions given to unworthy and undeserving men, and the bounty of the nation has been abused. but no right minded and good hearted citizen would consent to any substantial reduction of the pensions on account of ing to Akron she spent this abuse, or for any other reason. The system is approved alike by the patriotic sentiment and best judgment of the great body of the citizens. The payment of the pensions to the old soldiers is beyond question one of the great financial burdens of the nation, but if it were tenfold weightler it would be cheerfully borne, because it is the meet ing of a just, humane and patriotic obligation. Citizens would be unworthy participants of the inestimable benefits conferred upon them by a redeemed and reestablished government if they were unmindful of the cost of the republic in the sacrifice and labors of these men who stood by it in the hour of its peril.

Any direct and avowed proposition to scale the pensions would invoke the disfavor of the people, and the party advancing such a proposal would be rebuked by a most decisive majority of the voters. The pensions are not now in danger from any avowed opposition to them, but in an indirect way they are seriously threatened. The free coinage of silver, if it is adopted, will result in the scaling of the pensions almost one-half. When the silver dollar, with fifty-three cents worth of bullion in it, comes to be the standard and measure of value, as must inevitably by the result under the free coinage of silver, then the pensioner will be paid the same number of dollars, but the new dollars will be only about one-half the value to him of the old dollars which were exchangable for gold.

Under this change of standard there is no compensation to the pensioner for his loss. In the world of trade the change of standard inherent in the system of free coinage of silver is not so important, inasmuch as prices will be changed in all comat campmeeting . . . I. The only way in which he could be made whole in the change of standard, would be by a general law increasing all pendons one hundred per cent. The prospect for one night last week for the the passage of such a law is very slender. of which be offers a liberal The difficulty of passing new pension laws involving even the slightest advance in pensions is well known. The Williams and suffering are inevitable under a picnic is well represented change which reduces the purchasing power of their pensions. Surely patriotic men will hesitate and refuse to vote for a change which involves such burdens to the helpless and deserving pensioners.

> A MOTTO FOR WORKINGMEN "We Don't Want Any Fifty-three Cont Dollars in This Town."

> "We don't want any 53 cent dollars in this town!

The voice that thus greeted the Bryan procession as it made its way through Huntingdon, Pa., gave utterance to an undying truth.

The sentiment was true in Huntingdon and it is true in New York.

We don't want any 53 cent dollars in this town to pay to our policemen, our firemen, our street cleaners, our laborers on the public works of the city, our wage earners of all kinds and conditions.

The sort of dollar that the city of New York wants for its workingmen is the 100 cent dollar.

William Jennings Bryan and his supporters, on the other hand, propose to pay wages in a cheapened dollar, a dollar with 47 cents of its value clipped off. "Of all the people interested in silver," says Bland of Missouri, "the agricultural people and the laboring people are the ones who have the most at stake.'

And he should have added that they are the ones who will suffer most if free silver shall prevail.

"We don't want any 53-cent dollars in this town" is an excellent election motto for every New York workingman who does for every New York workingman who does not want to see his earnings diminished by the success of the free silverites.—New York Sun.

Whether in the form of pill powder or liquid, the doctor's prescription for blood diseases is always the samemercury or potash. These drugs bottle up the poison and dry it up in the system, but they also dry up the marrow in the bones at the same time.

The suppleness and elasticity of the joints give way to a stiffness, the racking pains of rheumatism. The form gradually bends, the bones ache, while decrepitude and helplessness prematurely take possession of the body, and it is but a short step to a pair of crutches. Then comes falling of the hair and decay of the bones,—a control of the same and decay of the bones,—a control of the same and decay of the bones,—a control of the same and decay of the bones,—a control of the same and decay of the bones,—a control of the same and decay of the bones,—a control of the same and decay of the bones,—a control of the same and the same and decay of the bones,—a control of the same and t the hair and decay of the bones, - a condition truly horrible.

POTASH MERCURY

Contagious Blood Poison-the curse of mankind-is the most horrible of all diseases, and has al-ways baffled the doctors. Their potash and mercury bottle up the poison, but it always breaks forth again attack-ing some delicate organ, frequently the mouth and throat, filling them with eating sores. S.S.S., is the only known cure for this disease. It is guaranteed purely vege table, and one thousand dollars reward is offered for proof to the contrary. It never fails to cure Contagious Blood Poison, Scrofula, Eczema, Rheumatism, Cancer, or any other disease of the blood. If you have a blood disease, take a remedy which will not injure you. Beware of mercury; don't do violence to your system. Don't get bottled up! Our books sent free to any address.
