Good for old and young. We know of no better tonic for the system than Hires Improved Rootbeer. It is delicious, effervescent, sparkling, appetizing, and a helper of temperance. Satisfying the thirst, enriching the blood, and fortifying the system against the advances of disease. A package makes five gallons. Sold everywhere. The tired paraders will find it very refreshing during the Campaign marches.

Corn now fills a prominent place on the average bill of fare. Most people like it. Some like it on the cob, others off it, and there are others who relish it when it is in the liquid form. The latter plan isn't good for the people. It is like so much dynamite. It will blow up a man's home in a short metre order, and generally the man goes up in the explosion. Better stick to the cob.

The Oyster season is here again. The court advertising will be found in this issue.

Leshner for Congress.

The Democratic Convention on Monday nominated John V. Leshner for Congress. Mr. Leshner is a promising young man, of sterling qualities and an upright disposition. He was educated at Bucknell University and has during his course been considered one of the best foot-ball players in the state. He is a level-headed fellow, an able debater and were it not for his being a Democrat and a free silverite, he might some day win fame in our national legislative halls. We hope, however he may some day change his mind and be bestowed with the honor he so richly merits.

THE PRIZES AWARDED.

$200 WORTH OF SCHOLARSHIPS AT SUSQUEHANNA UNIVERSITY GIVEN AWAY.

A. C. Bowersox of Penns Creek Wins First Prize, E. F. Snyder, of New Berlin, Second, and J. H. Kreitzer, McKees Falls Third.

The Post's third great scholarship contest is closed and three more winners are happy that they can secure at least a start on an educational career that may mean a great deal to them in after life. While the contest was not as spirited and the rivalry and contention was not bitter, the contestants to a large extent confined their work among the people of their own vicinity. This accounts for the small number of votes cast.

The vote resulted as follows:

A. C. Bowersox, Penns Creek, 851
E. F. Snyder, New Berlin, 631
J. H. Kreitzer, McKees Falls, 547
J. E. Schaeffer, Port Treverton, 501
W. I. Keller, Adamsburg, 154
Joe Bowersox, Middleburgh, 2

This entitles Arthur C. Bowersox to Free Tuition, Initiation fee in Literary Society, Use of Library, Books, and Reading Room for 39 weeks or one complete scholastic year at Susquehanna University, Selingsgrove, Pa. E. F. Snyder is awarded $100.

He is awarded $100 for his services above for 15 weeks or one scholastic term. This makes a total of 81 weeks' tuition, etc., or a value of about $200.

Prizes given away in previous contests amounted to $280 or the value of the prizes in the three contests aggregate $480.

The Post believes in higher education and already a full half dozen persons have been winners of scholarship prizes.

Susquehanna University on Thursday of this week opens its 3rd year as a college, but the institution has been doing faithful service since 1856 or a period of 40 years. At the head of the institution stands that venerable educator, Dr. J. R. Dimm, as president of the institution, who has spent the best years of his life in his earnest endeavors to build up the institution to be an honor to God and a credit to mankind. Closely allied to him in his work are Profs. T. C. Houtz, J. I. Woodruff, Jacob Yutzy and G. E. Fisher who stand in the front rank as educators of this century. In sending these young men to Susquehanna University, we have the solid satisfaction of knowing that they are placed in safe hands and that their educational welfare will be carefully nurtured. Susquehanna University has entered upon a new era of prosperity and the teaching here imparted will have its influence for many generations.
