J. H. Long and Harvey Grissinger of Selinsgrove rode their bicycles to the county seat on Friday morning of last week and made a pleasant call at this office.

W. H. Smith, proprietor of the Central Hotel has put up a new high fence around his lot in rear of his hotel stable and is making improvements to his stable.

Jacob Tharp of Selinsgrove, threshed 1680 bushels of oats in nine hours, for Norman App. This we think is the largest days threshing in the county this season.

Winey E. Custer, who had been living with J. M. Steininger on the French Falls, Tuesday moved into the residence built by him near the bridge along the creek.

The trial of Melvin St. Clair, the young tough who murdered George Catherman at Milton, last summer, will come up at the December term of Court at Sunbury. Court opens there Dec. 7.

Editor A. M. Auranl of the Adamsburg Herald made a pleasant fraternal call at this office Wednesday of last week. He reports things for the postmaster at Adamsburg pointing his way.

The ladies of the Lutheran Mite Society of Middleburgh will hold a Birthday Social in honor of Mr. Jacob Walter, the oldest member of the congregation, New Year evening, at the Lutheran church.

Allen S. Pawling of Lewisburg is in town over Sunday visiting Hon. G. A. Schoch and wife. Mr. Pawling is an applicant for the position of Second Assistant Postmaster General of the United States.

On Monday J. F. Stetler of this place, Dr. F. J. Wagenseller of Selinsgrove, B. F. Herman of Kratzville, County Commissioner Phares Herman and others whose names we have not learned, started for a two week's hunting trip.

Lu B. Caka and wife will give a delightful entertainment next Thursday evening in the Court House. They are great artists in a new entertainment. The Philadelphia Inquirer says their entertainment elicits the most hearty applause.

M. L. Miller of Selinsgrove last week erected on the Middleburgh cemetery a large monument of dark blue marble to the memory of Phillip Swineford, deceased. Mr. Miller does good work and his monuments are a credit to the artist.

Last week's Lewisburg Journal says: Mr. Fred Bowser's home, near the Seminary, narrowly escaped being destroyed by fire last week. A fire was discovered on the third floor about 2 p. m. which destroyed a large chest of bed clothing.

Last week's Millinburg Times says: Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Beaver of Middleburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Fred- eric Dagle of Northumberland county and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dagle of Northumberland were the guests of James Beaver and family on Thanksgiving day.

BAR MEETING.—The members of the Snyder County Bar Association will meet in the Court House at Middleburgh, Saturday, December 5th, 1896, at 11 o'clock A. M. By order of

A. W. POTTER, Vice Pres., JAY G. WEISER, Sec.

Henry B. Longsdorf, R. R. Boss, Herndon; J. McClell, Em'l Berry, Eliza Berry and Wm. Berry were granted original pensions through G. W. Long, Att'y, of Selinsgrove. Three pensions were granted in the same family at the same time.

A smooth, easy shave, gentled hair cut, or other tonsorial work, is always obtained at Soles' Barber Shop, in Wittenmyer's Building, opposite Post office. Go to Soles and you will make no mistake. Shaving soap, face cream, hair oil and egg-shampoo for sale. A. E. Soles.

The people of Indiana, not content with having given us James Whitcomb Riley, announces that a second poet has risen from Hoosier soil, and at present they are both writing a great deal concerning him. The new poet is Alfred Ellison, and he has a distinction which Riley has not; he is a judge of one of the Courts of Anderson. Therefore, he affixes the title of "Honorable" to his name.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

The "Golden Queen", the beautiful driving mare owned by the Editor of the Post, was sold last week to Jonas Trexler of Shamokin Dam, a lover of fine horses. For the past month the mare had been under the care of D. N. App of Monroe township, one of the best horsemen of the county, who, by the way, always has a supply of good horses on hand for sale. What Mr. App tells a customer about a horse can always be accepted as the truth.

The President has appointed H. F. Mann postmaster at Sunbury, Pa.

Miss Mame Clelan, who is working at Sunbury, visited her parents at this place recently.

John A. Adams of Waynesboro, a student of Susquehanna University, spent his Thanksgiving vacation with Chas. Marks in Brooklyn.

W. L. Donachy and C. B. Griffin, the overseers of the poor of Lewisburg, were in town on Tuesday to settle up expenses of M. L. Wagner's funeral.

Jerome K. Jerome's last story, previous to his engagement to write two plays, has been secured by The Ladies Home Journal, and is to be printed in its January issue. It is called "An Item of Fashionable Intelligence," and deals with life in the higher social circles of London.

The K. L. of C. E. of Paxtonville did not hold their Conundrum "T" last Saturday evening on account of the rain, but we will hold it next Saturday evening, December 5th. In connection with the supper we will have literary exercises which will be free to all. We kindly invite all to come and enjoy a good feast. Supper can be had any time after 5 o'clock p. m. Comm.

Dr. Talmage, speaking of the country newspaper, says: "A newspaper whose columns overflow with advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as a newspaper well patronized, and its power should be appreciated.

The season for church socials in country towns is here again, and the search after some unique and orthodox method of attracting the members into this money-making scheme has begun. The photographic social seems to be the latest, and every lady is requested to bring a photograph of herself taken in childhood. These are all shuffled together, and as each gentleman draws one he is expected to guess the original, and rejoice in paying for her supper.

There is one county where the people must be happy, since they held no election for President, having forgotten all about it. No election was held in Charlton county, Georgia, because the people there did not know a presidential election was to be held. The Okkefeenokee swamp covers most of the territory, but there are several towns in the county. Traders' Hill being the county seat. Happy people, who won't let politics and elections bother them.

Dr. Hollenbach of Carlisle a medicine peddler, who travels through Snyder county, got full of fire water one day of last week and stopped for the night at Meiserville with Charles Forry where he undertook to run the house. He moved about the bar room, flourishing a revolver in each hand and threatening the landlord. Finally the wild doctor was overpowered and arrested, but when about to be taken to jail he came to his senses and begged off like a child, promising never to return to the county again. He paid all the costs and left immediately.—Selinsgrove Times.

Moorhead's Lecture.

Rev. I. N. Moorhead will lecture Tuesday night on "From a Cabin to the White House." Read the words of the white:

"The lecture on the life of Abraham Lincoln, delivered by Rev. I. N. Moorhead in the opera house, on the evening of April 14th, 1896, upon the occasion of the birthday anniversary of our Martyred President, was a rare treat. The lecture showed much research into the life and works of President Lincoln. It was both intellectual and entertaining, and was delivered with force and energy, such as mark all the oratorical efforts of Rev. Moorhead. The audience was held spell bound during the whole lecture. Mr. Moorhead is a logician, rhetorician and an orator, which qualities truly fit him for the platform."

From the Evening Star.

Rev. I. N. Moorhead, of the Methodist Church delivered a masterly oration on the life and character of Abraham Lincoln. It was a striking eulogy that presented its own reason for the need of praises. Lincoln was easily greatest of great men in possessing at once all the qualities of soul and heart that are both simple and noble—honesty, simplicity, steadfastness, integrity, gentleness. From the exordium to the peroration, there was not a moment when the interest could abate.

Death Brings Relief.

On Tuesday morning at eight o'clock the angel of death removed from the sorrow of this world all that is immortal of Mrs. A. H. Smith (nee Grace Neff) the devoted wife of the Editor of the Elizabethville Echo. She was born September 13th, 1872, and hence at the time of her death was 24 years, 2 months and 18 days. The cause of death was consumption.

The deceased is a daughter of Rev. I. P. Neff, who for a number of years was the pastor of the Lutheran church at this place. She is a sister of Mrs. A. S. Beaver of this place with whom she had been staying since last May.

Mrs. Smith was a Christian young lady and a singer whose ability was not equalled by any local talent. Death, though regretted by her many friends, comes as a sweet solace to her and affords a splendid relief from almost constant suffering.

The funeral will take place on Friday morning at 11 o'clock. Burial in Middleburgh.

Earnest-Schoch.

Hattie May, daughter of Geo. W. Schoch, and Franklin Earnest, both of Millinburg, were married May 27, 1896, at Camden, N. J. It has just been announced. The Millinburg Times remarks: The above announcements were received through the mail Tuesday morning and caused considerable excitement. The bride is the only daughter of Editor Schoch, the groom is the second son of Rev. Dr. Earnest. Why these young people should choose to keep their marriage a secret for nearly 6 months, we do not know, and it is none of our business, either.

Union C. E. Services.

The Union Thanksgiving services, conducted under the auspices of the Young People's societies of Christian Endeavor, was held in the Lutheran church at this place on the evening of Thanksgiving Day and the program as published in the Post last week was ably carried out. A special effort will be made to effect an organized union of the local societies. This is for the duplicate purpose of strengthening the bonds of christian fellowship and to prepare for the county convention to be held at the county seat a year hence.

Bolender-Meiser.

On Thanksgiving Day at the residence of James Diemer in Swinford, Harry Bolender, son of Ex-Treasurer Charles Bolender was married to Miss Kate Meiser a daughter to J. S. Meiser, who is a merchant at Globe Mills. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. E. McLain, pastor of the Lutheran church of this place. The groom is a young man of good habits and an industrious disposition while the bride enjoys the distinction of being one of the most popular young ladies in that part of the county. The Post extends congratulations.

B. F. Walter's Fall.

The latter part of last week B. F. Walter, who resides on Pawling's farm at Globe Mills, while walking about on the second floor of Yoder's Mill and imagining that he was on first floor, stepped out of the second story. His collar bone was broken and was hurt internally. We learn that Mr. Walter is improving as well as can be expected.

FREEBURG.

Our Sunday School has voted to observe the coming Christmas with a tree and a treat for the members of the school. A Christmas service has been selected and solicitors appointed to raise money to pay expenses of the festival. Our children are already happy in anticipation of what is to come. Miss Haines of Beavertown arrived in town and attended Sunday school last Sunday.

A number of our citizens had their horses clipped by Dr. Pottiger. They all seemed to have changed their color and to trot with more nimble steps and have a more lofty carriage. Mrs. Sarah Lark of Beavertown came here last Saturday. This is her native town having been born and raised at this place. She noticed many changes, the new public school building, Musical College, opera house, and many newly painted houses. Mrs. F. C. Moyer is her oldest sister and Prof. D. S. Boyer her youngest brother. Henry J. Boyer living at Chicago and Wm. S. Boyer, Esq., at Gratz compose the five remaining of the family of John Boyer. Before she came here she spent several weeks with her son H. L. Lark, Esq., a successful attorney living at Millersburg. Her numerous friends here are delighted with her visit and show her all the kindness in their power. She has a very retentive memory and being rich in words her accounts of former days are very interesting. She will remain till after the Holidays. Judge Brown lost a valuable horse and Samuel Moyer a cow. Butchering is the order of the day.

ADAMSBURG.

Protracted meeting is well attended. Mrs. D. J. Dreese and children, also Miss Anna Steele of Chillisquaque were visiting friends at this place last week. George Bierly of Lewistown visited his lady friend on Sunday. James Dreese and Mrs. Emma Strouh of Lewistown were united in the holy bonds of matrimony on Thanksgiving. Mrs. Emma Heller of Saxony has been staying at J. L. Buzaman's for some time past. H. I. Romig gave a "dinner" to his Sunday School class on Thanksgiving. Ira Smith of Philadelphia visited his parents last week. Rev. Harry Landis of Saxony spent a few days under the parental roof.

(Too late for last issue.)

On Sunday evening the M. E. church started protractive meeting. Mrs. J. N. Romig of McAllisterville visited the family of H. I. Romig last week. Henry Koch and wife of Centre county are visiting friends in this vicinity. Prof. F. C. Bowersox paid our schools a short visit on Monday. Miss Estella Romig attended the Y. P. S. C. E. convention at Sunbury. Levi Swanger and Mrs. Shirk were united in the holy bonds of matrimony on Sunday evening. Mrs. Michael Dreese and two children accompanied by Chas. Dreese of Holstead, Kansas, are visiting their numerous friends in and about our burg. Prof. Francis Shambach of Reedsville is visiting here at present. Lieut. Wagenseller paid our merchants a call last week. Mr. Wagenseller is an active worker in the Sunday school. Mrs. Ott and Mr. Honeycutt of Chambersburg are visiting here.

Judge Ellison's Lecture.

Judge Alfred Ellison had an audience at the Christian church last night of which any lecturer might have been proud, and which was a deserved compliment to him as a citizen. This was his first delivery of his lecture, "Kings and Queens." It was a remarkable bright, breezy presentation of the familiar aspects of character which lecturers prefer, because they are about the only topics in which all audiences are equally interested. The sallies of wit and pertinent illustrations that relieved the graver discussions of life and character were often admirable and were most cordially received by the audience, which was unmistakably friendly. The lecture was more rapidly delivered than is the custom of the professional platform orator, and the audience was carried through the consideration of topics grave and gay, so that the hour and a quarter occupied seemed even briefer. The hearty round of applause that greeted the conclusion was alike a tribute to the personal popularity of the speaker and the entertainment he had afforded his hearers.—Anderson Morning Herald.

The wife of Mr. D. Robinson, a prominent lumberman of Hatwick, N. Y., was sick with rheumatism for five months. In speaking of it, Mr. Robinson says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that gave her any rest from pain. For the relief of pain it cannot be beat." Many very bad cases of rheumatism have been cured by it. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by all Druggists.
