Money Put Into Circulation.

The Honesdale Herald recently received a $5 from a farmer for subscription account. The editor pasted a small tag on the bill for identification and immediately paid it out and detailed a reporter to keep track of the note for the rest of the day. The reporter followed the bill on its travels and at night reported that it had paid eighteen different debts—amounting in all to $90—and, strange to relate, was again in the possession of the farmer who paid it to the Herald man in the morning. This is another illustration of the fact that there is money enough if people would only pay what they owe, as near as possible, with what they have, instead of hoarding it.

Dr. Swallow's Testimony.

What Rev. Dr. Swallow gave in his testimony on Saturday:
Paying $400 for putting up a flag pole at Scotland school, altho another man offered to do it for $40;
Keeping a bar-room at the same school by its managers;
Giving official Boyer $25 bonus on a contract;
Getting five sets harness for two horses, cost $257;
Buying two horses for $330 for Scotland school which were not worth over $100.
And Swallow has more of these fellows to swallow.

Representative Herman Wins a Victory.

From Focht's Lewisburg News:
By a vote of 92 to 78 the House on Tuesday killed a bill increasing the minimum school term in the State from six to seven months. This measure has been up at every session for ten years and has always been knocked out by the rural members. Twelve years ago the term was increased from five to six months and no legislation on this point has since been enacted. Mr. Herman, of Snyder, led the opposition and won after a hard and determined fight. The bill was called up for third reading and final passage by Chairman Hammond, of the education committee. Mr. Seyfert, of Lancaster, started a long discussion with an earnest speech in favor of the proposition. He showed that twenty seven other states in the Union have longer school terms than Pennsylvania and that twenty eight per cent. of the schools in this State are only kept open six months a year. He spoke of the greatness of Pennsylvania in everything but her educational facilities and declared an increase of one month a year in the school term would make very little difference in the taxes. Mr. Herman replied to Mr. Seyfert and was followed by Mr. Martin, of Lawrence, and other rural members. The discussion lasted nearly two hours and was closed with an earnest plea for the bill by Chairman Hammond.

ARBOR DAYS FIXED.

Governor Hastings Issues the Necessary Proclamation.

Governor Hastings has fixed upon Friday, April 9th, and Friday, April 23d, as Arbor Days for this year.

In his proclamation, issued last week, the Governor gives some interesting facts concerning the benefits growing out of the observance of Arbor Days. He says: "The custom of annually fixing a day to be celebrated as Arbor Day has spread into every section of the country. The value of these celebrations has been abundantly manifest. In this State which claims the honor of having originated Arbor Day more than three hundred and fifty million trees were planted during the first five years.

"School grounds have adorned, the surroundings of the home have been beautified, public parks have been multiplied and the landscapes and charming scenery of Pennsylvania may yet be made still more attractive. We are rapidly passing from a destructive to a constructive policy. We have learned the lesson that trees and forests are essential to our continued prosperity and that he who plants a tree, whether boy or man, is a public benefactor."

The Fence Law.

The opinion handed down one day last week by Judge Savidge, of Sun burr, interpreting the fence law, is of great interest to every farmer in the state. A woman had brought suit against a neighbor for damage to her corn by his cattle. Judge Savidge said the law formerly re- quired a man to fence against his neighbor's cattle, but now every man must fence against his own cat- tle, and this he must do on all haz- ards, no matter if it takes a fence ten feet high. If one's cattle get out and do damage to his neighbor the owner of the cattle is liable for the damage done, unless it can be shown that the cattle were let out by a trespasser, in which case the party damaged would proceed against the wrong doer.

WOMAN'S LONG HOURS.

SHE TOILS AFTER MAN'S DAY'S WORK IS DONE.

What She Has to Contend With—Work That Sooner or Later Breaks Down Her Delicate Organism.

The great majority of women "work to live" and "live to work," and as the hands of the clock approach the hour of six, those employed in stores, offices, mills and factories, hail closing time with joy. They have won their day's bread, but some duties are yet to be performed, and many personal matters to be attended to. They have mending to do, and dresses or bonnets to make, and long into the night they toil, for they must look neat, and they have no time during the day to attend to personal matters.

Women, therefore, notwithstanding their delicate organism, work longer and more closely than men.

They do not promptly heed such signs as headache, backache, blues, pains in the groins, bearing-down, "all gone" feeling, nervousness, loss of sleep and appetite, whites, irregular or painful monthly periods, cold and swollen feet, etc., all symptoms of womb trouble, which, if not quickly checked, will launch them in a sea of misery.

There is but one absolute remedy for all those ills. Any woman who has to earn her own living will find it profitable to keep her system fortified with this tried and true woman's friend, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound speedily remove the cause and effects a lasting cure.

We are glad to produce such letters as the following from Miss M. G. McNamee, 114 Catherine St., Utica, N. Y.: "For months I had been afflicted with that tired feeling, no ambition, no appetite, and a heavy bearing-down feeling of the uterus. I began to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Soon those bad feelings passed away; I began to have more ambition, my appetite improved and I gained rapidly in every way, and now I am entirely well. I advise all my friends to use the Compound, it is woman's truest friend."
