Mr. A. H. Crausby, of 158 Kerr St., Memphis, Tenn., says that his wife paid no attention to a small lump which appeared in her breast, but it soon de-veloped into a cancer of the worst type, and notwithstanding the treatment of the best physicians, it continued to spread and grow rapidly, eating two holes in her breast. The doctors soon pronounced her incurable. A celebrated New York specialist then treated her, but she continued to grow worse and when informed that both her aunt and grandmother had died from cancer he ave the case up as opeless. Someone then reand though little hope remained, she and commodious brick-building begun it, and an improvement was no-ticed. The cancer commenced to heal and when she had taken several bottles it disappeared entirely, and although several years have elapsed, not a sign of the disease has ever returned.

A Quarter of a Century.

Twenty-five years ago a young man come to this town and opened the New York Branch Store in the corner room now occupied by T. N. Heicher. We will remember the first job of work we did for the new firm. We little imagined when we delivered those circulars that we would do thousands of dollars worth of job work and advertising for that little store. The proprieter, Mr. S. Weis, now one of our most prosperous and respected citizens, had come to stay, and by attentive application to bus iness and honest dealing has suc ceeded beyond his most sanguine ex pectation, His business steadily in creasd and he enlarged his stock from year to year, until to-day he not only has the largest and best equipped dry goods store and fancy goods store in the town but in the county as well. From a small stock commended S.S.S., in one room he now has his large first floor to the garret. During the years he has been in our town he has married one of our town ladies, and two sons, excellent and intelligent young gentlemen, have blessed this happy union. Mr. Weis is the owner of three of the best brick properties is the town, besides other real estate. He is also one of the di rectors of the First National Bank of this place. Mr. Weis is a citizen the town may well be proud of, and we join with his many friends in wishing him many years of continued happiness and business prosperity. -Tribune.
