A VETERAN'S WIFE Afected With Heart Disease and Given Up to Die. Haved in a Wonderful Way. From the Press, Ulica, N. Y.

There is no one better known or resp in the village of Brookfield, Madison Co.. New York, than Mrs. John Fisk, the wife of an old resident and veteran of the war of the Rebellion. In April of this year, Mrs. Fisk lay at death's door from neuralgia and heart disease, the family physician having recommended her to settle all her worldly affairs, as she was liable to be taken at any minute, and inquiring friends expected at each visit

But Mrs. Fisk, to the surprise of her neighbors and physicians, suddenly began to mend, and now she is as strong and healthy a woman of her advanced age (76 years) as can be found, and really does not appear nearly as old as she is. The following is her own story of how she was cured:

own story of how she was cured: "I consider it is a duty to myself and the community to tell of my extraordinary re-covery from what was thought by my physi-cians, my husband and friends to be a fatal illness. I had long been suffering from neuralgin in its worst form, enduring agoness that only those who have undersome such that only those who have undering agoines that only those who have underigene such torments know, until my heart became so affected functionally and organically, that the doctor said I was liable at any time to pass away. He had done all in his power for me, and I thank him much for his kindass and attention, and believe him to be a good, althful physician. I was not disposed to die, however, if I could help it, and he having done all he could, I felt at liberty to use any other means that held out a chance of life, and determined to try a remedy that had been recommended by a friend who had been at death's door from rhaumatism and heart disease, but who now is in good

"Whatever doubt I may have had as to this remedy's efficacy in a dissimilar disease, to that from which he had suffere I, was dispelled on reading in the Press of a rass iden-tical with my own being cured, with the name and address of the person who had been so becalted. So my husband who now was anxious that I should at once take the treatment, purchased for me a box of Dr. Williams Pink Pills, I took them according to directions, and within a very short time the plans began to disappear, my heart's ac-tions become normal, and four weeks ago I ceased taking them, as I am entirely cured, and able to do my housework as well as when I was a young woman.

TEXT: "She, supposing Him to be the gar-dener."-John xx., 15.

Here are Mary Magdalene and Christ, just after His resurrection. For 4000 years a grim and ghastly tyrant had been killing people and dragging them into his cold paltion and all parton and all confort and all heaven into one word of four letters, "Mary" Mark you, Christ did not appear to some Bible Elizabeth or Bible Hannah or Bible Esther or Bible Deborah or Bible Yashpoppie and cragging them into his coid par-ace. He had a passion for human skulls, For torty centuries he had been unhindered in his work. He had taken down kings and queens and conquerors and those without "inme. In that cold palace there were shelves of skulls and pulars of skulls and plars of skulls and areas the challeng at the altars of skulis and even the challees at the table were made of bleached skulis. There is a man seven deviled-tevil of avarice, devil of pride, devil of hate, devil of indolence, devil of falsehood, devil of strong drink, devil of impurity. Got can skeleton of Abei he had added the skeletons skeleton of Abei he had added the skeletons of all the ages, and no one had disputed his right until one Good Friday, about 1867 years ago, as near as I can calculate it, a Mighty Stringer came to the door of that awful place, rolled back the door, and went in and seizing the tyrant, threw him to the awint place, rolled back the door, and went in, and seizing the tyrant, threw him to the pavement and put upon the tyrant's neck the heel of triumph. Then the Mighty Stranger, exploring all the ghastly furniture of the place and walkchasm from blaff to bluff. I passed over it without any auxiety. Why? Because twen-ty-two locomotives and twenty-two cars laden with gravel had tested the bridge, thousands of people standing on the Can-adian side, thousands standing on the Ameriing through the labyrinths, and opening the dark cellars of mystery and tarrying under a roof the ribs of which were made of human bones-tarrying for two nights and a day, the nights very dark and the day very dis-mal, He seized the two chief pillars of that awful palace and rocked them until it began to fall, and then, laying hold of the penderous front gate, hoisted it from its hinges and ous front gate, noised it from its hinges and marshed forth erving, "I am the resurros-tion." Motherhood.

A mother who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of ,a good constitution. The child fairly drinks in health from its mother's robust constitution before birth, and from a healthy mother's milk after.

Is not that an incentive to prepare for a healthy maternity?

Do you know the meaning of what is popularly called those "long-, ings," or cravings, which beset so many women during pregnancy?

There is something lacking in the mother's blood. Nature cries out and will be satisfied at all hazards. One woman wants sour things, another wants sweets, another wants salt things, and so on.

The real need all the time is to enrich the blood so as to supply nourishment for another life, and to build up the entire generative system, so that the birth may be possible and successful.

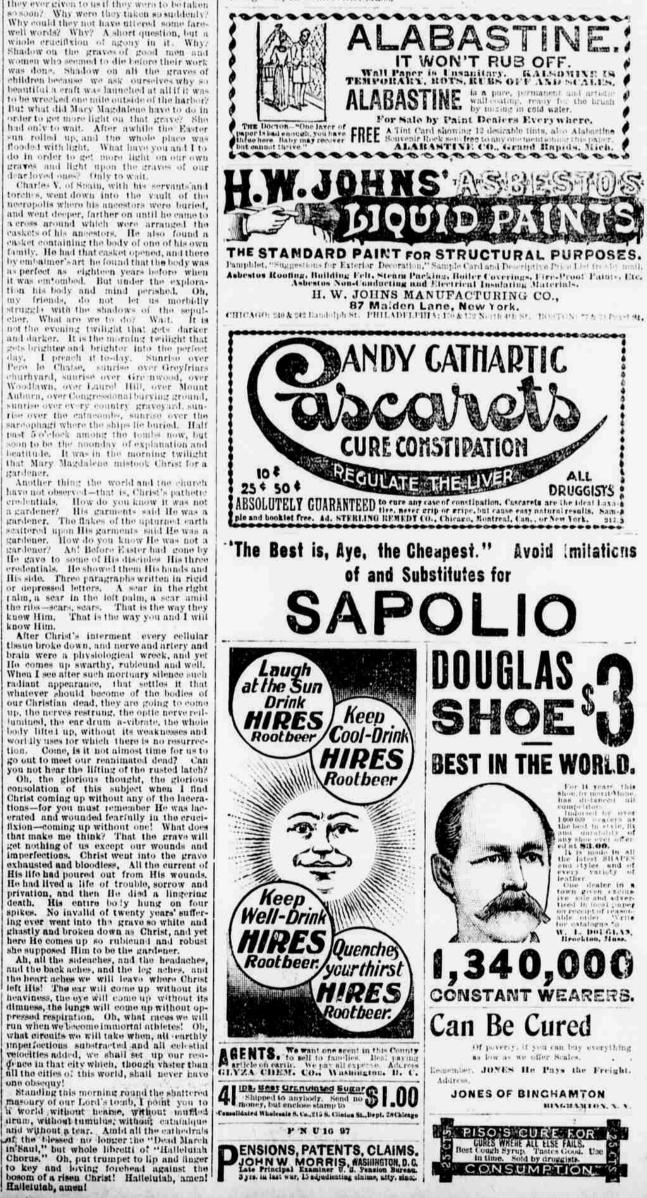

If expectant mothers would fort-Hy themselves with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for twenty years has sustained thousands of women in this condition, there would be fewer disappointments at birth, and they would not experience those annoying "longines

In the following letter to Mrs. Finkham, Mrs. Whitney d monstrates the power of the Compound in such cases, She says:

"From the time I was sixteen years old till I was twenty-three. I was troubled with weakness of the kidners and terrible pains when my monthly periods came on. I made up my migd to try Lydia E. My baby is now seven months old and is as healthy and hearty as one could wish.
