THE STATE CONVENTION

Candidates for Governor Gather to Give Delegates the Glad Hand.

BEACOM IS TO HAVE OPPOSITION.

A Startling Political Surprise in Philadelphia-A Quay Heeler Defeated by Cauley for auditor general is a forethe City Committee-The League a ing Lender.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Harrisburg, Aug. 24 .- As this letter is being written the advance guard of the delegates to the state convention which meets here on Thursday are gathering. Not only are the delegates gathering, but prospective candidates for governor next year are arriving with a view to giving the "glad hand" to the people's representatives who are here at this convention.

Congressman William R. Stone, who is Mr. Quay's particular choice for governor next year, has rooms at the Lochiel. Congressman Stone is warranted to be all Quay and a yard wide. Congressman C. W. Stone, of Warren, is regarded by the other candidates Leisenring has plenty of money, youth and ambition he will give some of the older ones a fine race for their money.

The Race For Governor.

It is a triffe early to discuss the gubernatorial contest of next year. As far as known there are today about 15 candidates in the field. This, it is understood, is a part of Senator Quay's scheme to secure support for his particular candidate. It is the old "favorite son" racket. It is the old, old scheme of having the counties or the congressional districts give a complimentary vote to some one of their prominent men, with the understanding that the bosses will gather in the delegates when the time comes. These "dummy" candidates are sometimes grievously disappointed, for they often get an enlarged head, and really believe that they are factors in the fight. and, sure enough candidates, when everybody knows that they are nothing more than stool pigeons for Senator Third ward, had twenty-five. Quay and his minor bosses. Quay at present is in Florida recuperating and taying plans to capture the state next year.

The state convention this week is not likely to develop any startling episodes. It will, in the main, be a fairly orderly body, with an absence of excitement, unless an attempt is made to introduce a slobbery resolution endorsing Quay and Penrose, and otherwise indulging in fulsome culogy of these gentlemen So far as Mr. Beacom is concerned he whil receive the nomination for state treasurer, as his reward for defeating Congressman Huff and pulling West moreland county into the Quay camp by the heels. Mr. Beacom has declared in an interview that Senator Quay did not promise him the nomination for state treasurer, and that he is, there fore, not under obligation to "the old To those who know the cir-ZRAT." cumstances such a declaration from Beacom is simply laughable. It is the fairest measure of the man that has yet been given. His attempt to throw off the Quay collar at this late day die's standing should permit himself to be used by the bosses in this way. The ne way he could revenge himself upon the machine and vindicate his own h esty of purpose would be turn his delegates against Quay's candidate and fight the bosses from now and forever

Hot Philadelphia Politics.

By long odds the most startling development in politics in Philadelphia recently occurred last week. Although it was a purely local affair it has created talk among politicians all over the state. It was the refusal of the Republican city committee to seat Harry Hunter, of unsavory fame, as a member of the committee from the Third ward.

Harry Hunter's Defeat.

Harry Hunter has the reputation of being the most unscrupulous ward leader in Philadelphia. While he has for three years past apparently trimalso has rooms at the Lochiel. He is med his sails to meet every political one of the dark horses in the race and gale, he has through it all been a subservient Quay follower. In the antiwith more or less anxiety. Hon, John Quay campaign of 1895 Hunter succeed-Leisenring is his own candidate. It is ed in fooling everybody by making a self projected boom, and as Mr. promises right and left until the final moment came, and then he showed his true colors by breaking all promises and going over to Quay. That breach of faith will ultimately cost Harry

Hunter his political life. Last week was the beginning of his end. It also showed what a weak and wretched thing the so-called leaders' league is. All along the belief has been expressed, and it has been stoutly maintained, that the Ward Leaders' league, the new combination of Philadelphia politicians for profit, was absolutely impregnable. Hunter was a member of this. He was one of its shining lights. He was a candidate for committeeman from his own ward. The Leaders' league counted twenty one votes out of thirty-seven in the committee. When it came to a vote on a committeeman for the Third ward Harry Hunter, of the Leaders' league had eight votes, while I. Newton Rob erts, a friend of David Martin and Harry Hunter's bitterest foe in the

This was a terrible blow to Hunter. He claimed that he had 21 votes pledged to him. Hunter forgot, however that he was receiving precisely the same treatment that he had accorded others at various times. Hunter's career is a record of broken political promises. This is the first great rebuff that he has ever received, and to add to its sting it was delivered by the hand of David Martin.

Martin the Coming Leader. This apparently local episode in Philadelphia Republican politics has a state wide significance. It has shown that the so-called Leaders' League of Philadelphia is nothing but a rope of sand. That it has no standing, but more than that-that its doom is now sealed. David Martin is still unquestionably the Republican leader in Philadelphia. His masterful hand pointed the way to the defeat of Hunter, and his voice is once more powerful in the councils of the party. Mr. Martin has been de- this congregation from its organiza rided, abused, villfied and most shame- tion. The records show that Ma fully libeled by the very men that he has made. He has never repli-

Mathias Schoch Descendants.

At an informal meeting of the de scendants of Mathias Schoch, through the Jacob Schoch branch of the family, it was resolved to hold a meeting of this line of the family in Selinsgrove on the 14th of Aug., to take steps looking towards a permanent organization.

At the meeting the following officers were elected : President, M. K. Schoch; Secretary, Ira C. Schoch; Treasurer, Henry Schoch.

At the meeting on the 14th inst. it was resolved that the Jacob Schoch heirs place a memorial window in the new church now building at Salem, in memory of Mathias and Jacob Schoch, who were promi nently connected with the history of thias Schoch, the great grand father

The Result of a Deal. Beacom's nomination, as every ward politician in the state knows, is the resuit of a deal. He was to have re ceived his payment as congressman at-large two years ago, but the scheme fell through, as a result of the Davenport row. James S. Beacom, more than any other man before the public today bears the Quay brand conspicuously and deeply. If elected he will not be permitted to call his mind his own. He will simply be the willing henchman of the bosses, and all the protestations of Beacom, all his present attempts to deny his master will not change public opinion one iota in this respect.

Of course it goes without saying That Beacom is not going to win without opposition. There is R. Hathaway Shindle, of York, also a candidate for state treasurer. He is a candidate on the Quay stool pigeon plan.

Shindle's Ridiculous Position. Mr. Shindle is another of those good natured dilletanti politicians who imagine that they are candidates. Mr. Shindie was put up simply to hold York county's delegates for Quay. After was a candidate in earnest. Then he began to work, but it has been all up hill. Quay never for a moment intended that he should come in sight of the state treasury, unless something happened to Beacom to prevent his nom-Ination. Mr. Shindle, who is an amia lithe, kindly gentleman, has permitted the bosses to "play horse" with him.

Et is alleged that Mr. Shindle has ac so far as to resurrect a decrepit Harrisburg newspaper, and has been biewing" some of his wealth in run-ing that paper in his interests. It is Government.
