FOR SALE.—The old established Merchants' House, 150 rooms, doing nice business. Furnished etc., $2500. Address, MERCHANTS' HOUSE, Phila., Pa.

Bird Adams and Charles Walker of New Berlin were released from jail on Tuesday, the grand jury having ignored the bill of indictment against them.

The State Department of Agriculture has named Beavertown, Jan. 14th and 15th and Freeburg, Jan. 17th and 18th as places and dates for holding Farmers' Institute.

If you want the best and latest style Ranges in the market, you can get just what you want by calling on W. E. Stahlnecker, opposite the jail at Middleburgh.

The book accounts and claims of the S. H. Yoder Estate are in my hands and the same must be paid. After this date all purchases must be paid for in cash. Oct. 5-4t. B. W. YODER.

No appointment has been made as pastor of the U. B. church at this place. Rev. Buddinger goes to Pine Grove. Rev. O. G. Romig and Rev. Wm. Lamey retain their positions.

The divorce suit of S. S. Schoch terminated very speedily on Tuesday evening. His wife did not appear against him and the divorce was speedily granted. Evidently a settlement preceded the trial.

A smooth, easy shave, genteel hair cut, or other tonsorial work, is always obtained at Soles' Barber Shop, in Wittenmyer's building, opposite Post office. Go to Soles and you will make no mistake, shaving soap, face cream, hair oil and egg-shampoo for sale. A. E. SOLES.

The November Magazine Number of The Outlook will contain an article by Mr. Hamilton W. Mabie, founded on the authorized biography of Lord Tennyson by his son, which has just appeared. A notably fine reproduction of Watts's famous painting of Tennyson, and other illustrations, will accompany the article. ($3 a year. The Outlook Company, 13 Astor Place, New York.)

H. P. Beaver, wife and daughter, Bertha, returned from Cammal, where they spent the summer. The former will return again and the family will remain all winter.

William E. Stahlnecker is prepared to keep you from freezing this winter. He has on hand a full supply of the latest style of Heaters. Call and see his stock opposite the jail.

At the Sheriff's sale on Saturday Matilda Reigle bought the limestone lot of John Zieber for $10. D. A. Kern bought Tracts No. 1 and 2 of Isaac Wagner for $1400. The Jesse Hackenburg tract was bought by Geo. I. Kline for $355.

On Wednesday morning Attorney Grimm received a notice from the Shamokin Gun Club with the notice about Mr. Grimm shooting eight squirrels, clipped from last week's Post. These were red squirrels, gentlemen. Attorney Grimm is not a violator of the law.

We want to inform the public that our stock of winter wraps will be ready for inspection this week. We will have a full line of the best and cheapest wraps to be had. Also a new line of Chinaware. Please give us a call. ULRICH & ORMAN, Selingsgrove, Pa.

G. C. Dreisbach, who has been spending most of his time for the past 18 months in and around Middleburgh, on Monday started for Georgia and Alabama by vehicle. He left Mt. Pleasant Mills on Monday morning and is traveling in the interest of the United States View Company.

Frank Magee and wife of Mazepa are the guests of Dr. Orwig this week. Mr. Magee has served as County Commissioner of Union county and was the Democratic chairman over there during the feast of distributing democratic pap and he helped himself to the position of Storekeeper and Guager at Reish's Distillery which position he held until the plant was destroyed by fire. He has the reputation of being the best Storekeeper and Guager in his district.

Our account of Constable Loss' adventure with Jno. Swartz, the bear (!) hunter, published in last week's Telegraph, appears in last Sunday's Phila. Press without credit to this paper, but as a special dispatch to the Press. This is encouraging, and proves conclusively that the Press has an energetic contributor at Selingsgrove, one who can tell good, interesting, truthful news when he sees it—so reliable and catchy that he cannot resist the temptation to steal it entire.—Mifflinburg Telegraph.

A REMARKABLE STORY.

Experience of a Man Who Threatened to Shoot the Almighty.

A few weeks ago a story was published in a number of newspapers concerning a man residing near Instantan, this State, who, it was said, had uttered a threat that he would shoot the Almighty. The story was that the man had raised his gun and pointed it toward the heavens, and that as he did so he was turned into stone and was unable to move. The story was generally discredited, but according to the Keytone Gazette, of Bellefonte, there is some truth in it. The Gazette of Friday contains the following in reference to the affair.

"Last week we published a statement about the Stone Man who defied the Deity by threatening to shoot his God. The story has been generally discredited but Dr. McEntire, of Howard, in order to find out what there really was in the story, wrote to the postmaster at Instantan, Pa., and in reply received two letters which we print below:

LETTER NO. 1. INSTANTAN, Pa., Sept. 21, 1897. G. W. McEntire, M. D., Howard,

Dear Sir—Your letter of the 18th inst. inquiring as to the truth of the several different reports running through the newspapers of our section of the State concerning a farmer being turned to stone, I will say in reply that a man by the name of Decker, living near here, is reported to have had an experience of that kind, but was in town yesterday looking very pale and scarcely able to walk. He denies the allegation but there are different people here who positively claim to have seen him, when he was in the position as reported by the papers. These people say that on account of some mysterious influence, they were unable to get close enough to make identification complete but they are positive he was the man. On the contrary, Decker is very quiet on the subject, and absolutely refuses to discuss it. One thing is very apparent, that before this was supposed to have happened, he was a very profane man, but now he is altogether changed, so much so, that any one having known him before, would not now recognize him at all. Trusting this explanation will gratify your curiosity, I remain,

Very Respectfully, A. C. QUIGLEY, Assistant P. M.

LETTER NO. 2. INSTANTAN, Pa., Sept. 22, '97. G. W. McEntire, M. D., Howard,

DEAR DOCTOR—As you have received my answer to your letter of the 18th inst., I have since learned more concerning the matter you wrote about. Decker has finally admitted that part of the matter said of him is true; in respect to making the threat and getting his gun and going into the orchard and pointing to the heavens. He says when he had his gun in position a feeling came over him that would be impossible to describe. The muscles of his body seemed to be paralyzed. He could not change his position. He tried to call for someone to help him, but could make no sound. There was but one person at the house, that being a small boy, and noticing his position, went toward him, but could not get within at least 100 feet of him. In regard to anyone trying to build a shed over him, he says that no attempt was made. He was in the position two nights and one day. He says that as long as he lives he will never utter another oath, but will try and serve his Maker to the best of his ability, from this time on. He says it was a direct warning from the other world.

You can give this publicly in your paper, Doctor, as it will be an accommodation to us, our mail is literally overrun with inquiries.

Very truly yours, A. C. QUIGLEY, Ass't P. M.

The Wintersteen Case.

An order of court has been made by Judge Ikeler, of Columbia county, for a special session of 2 weeks, beginning Tuesday, October 26, for which 48 traverse jurors have been summoned. The Waller-Wintersteen-Knorr dynamite case will then be re-tried by Judge Ermentrout, of Reading, who has written Judge Ikeler that he would come.

Judge Jeremiah O. Lyons of Mifflintown presided at our court Wednesday while Judge Crouse's case was on trial.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Reformed church will hold an Echo Meeting on Saturday evening. The other societies of the town will attend.

A phone has been placed in the Post printing office and those desiring work at short notice can place orders by wire. Any news occurring Tuesday night may be phoned to us early Wednesday morning.

"That the richest and largest deposits of gold that the earth has ever produced up to the present time have been found in the Alaska Klondyke country is now an established fact. We call your attention to the advertisement of the Alaska Klondyke Gold Mining Co. in another column." 10-7-6m.

The American Protective Tariff League has just issued another and very complete edition of our Tariff laws. The volume of 144 pages, gives the official text of the Dingley Tariff; complete comparison of the Dingley and Wilson law; and, index to all articles covered by the new Tariff. The book will be of great value for reference and for answering all questions regarding the Tariff question. It will be sent to any address for twenty-five cents. Ask for document No. 27, and address The American Tariff League, 135 West 23rd Street, New York.

During the past week there was entered upon the marriage license docket the name of a man 22 years of age to be married to a little girl only 14 years of age. The girl has the consent of her parents. The man makes an "x" instead of signing his name. Would this not seem to indicate that we need a law preventing children from getting married? A man so totally ignorant that he cannot write his name married to a little girl not yet out of short dresses! The clerk of the Orphans' court had no authority to refuse a license.
