INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE
For State Treasurer of Pennsylvania.

WILLIAM B. THOMPSON, the banker, is a man whose name is a household word in Western Pennsylvania. He was born in 1841 in Allegheny City, Pa. He is a self-made man, and is a typical American in every respect. He entered the public service of his native city and studied hard at the University of Pennsylvania, where he passed the examinations for admission to Washington and Jefferson College, Pa. He was admitted to the bar in 1868, and has since that time been engaged in the practice of his profession. He has been twice elected to the office of Mayor of Allegheny City, and has also served as a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, and is also a member of the American Bar Association. He is a man of high character and high ability, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office of State Treasurer.

Mr. Thompson has always been an active citizen, and during his career has been identified with every charitable and public enterprise which has been undertaken in Allegheny City. He has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Allegheny City Bank, and has also served as a member of the Board of Directors of the Allegheny City Gas Company. He is a man of high character and high ability, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office of State Treasurer.

The Independent party of the State Legislature in looking to the Republican party pledges for much needed reforms in the State has caused intense indignation all over the State, and in Pittsburgh as elsewhere in 1897, with a strong feeling of indignation against the Republican party. The Independent party of Pennsylvania is now in the midst of its campaign for the State Treasury, and is carrying the evidence in its own favor. It is a party of reform, and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office of State Treasurer.

Wm. B. Thompson, the candidate for State Treasurer, is the ablest candidate of the new party, and with the same ability, courage and independence that have marked his whole life, he has accepted and entered earnestly into the canvass for the office. Fitted particularly for the duties of State Treasurer by his training, and with a record for integrity and upright dealing that has endeared him to all who know him, he stands today before the people of Pennsylvania as a model candidate, and it has been truly said by the Pittsburgh press, that it will be the people of the State, and not Wm. B. Thompson, who will be the gainer by his election.

The Independent people of the State should remember this when they go to the polls on November 2, 1897, and vote to free the State Treasury from suspicion, by placing a man in charge whose life work and record puts him above suspicion. Literature covering the platform and plan of organization of the Independent party, and copies of the famous "20,000 Indemnity Bond" can be obtained by addressing HARRY E. ARMSTRONG, State Secretary Independent Party, No. 546 Wood street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

TROXELVILLE.
 The cry is now unto the squirrels, but many of the hunters were disappointed in their expectation of seeing the woods full. W. H. Herman started to Philadelphia Tuesday morning to buy a supply of Winter goods. Some of our boys contemplate being present at the foot-ball game that will be played at Selingsgrove next Saturday between the strong Williamsport Y. M. C. A. team and Susquehanna University eleven. Our teachers have under consideration the advisability of starting up a literary society. We hope that a true literary spirit will be an insuperable barrier to the intervention of any extraneous obstacle which might impede its progress. Irvin Fetterolf rented his blacksmith shop and dwelling house for the coming year, intending to quit his trade for at least a year. Henry Knepp of Siglerville was seen in our town last week. Miss Emma Swartz left on Monday for Philadelphia where she intends to stay until spring.

MANY THINK!
 when the Creator said to woman, "In sorrow shalt thou bring forth children," that a curse was pronounced against the human race, but the joy felt by every Mother when she first presses to her heart her babe, proves the contrary. Danger and suffering lurk in the pathway of the Expectant Mother, and should be avoided, that she may reach the hour when the hope of her heart is to be realized, in full vigor and strength.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

Killed by a Horse
 Jacob Wagner, aged 20 years, son of Charles Wagner of West Perry township, died on Monday morning from the effect of being killed by a horse. On Saturday morning young Wagner was harnessing one of John Gordon's horses 1 1/2 miles South-east of Richfield. The horse did not stand over promptly and Jacob hit the horse with a harness, and the horse kicked the boy squarely on the abdomen. The victim went to the house and got to bed himself. He did not seem to be feeling much the worse for his injuries until Sunday evening when it was discovered that he was really worse than his friends had thought. Dr. Rothrock of Fremont was summoned. It was too late. The work was done. About 20 minutes before seven on Monday morning he raised himself up and said he felt better. He fell back upon the pillow and by seven o'clock, the vital spark fled. He will be buried on Thursday. The horse that did the dirty work has always been known as a gentle horse and has never been known to kick or to harm any one.

MARRIED.
 Took an affidavit by phone. And Rosenbaum Got in Ahead of the Other Creditors. Vineland, N. J., Oct. 13.—What was in all probability the first affidavit by telephone in the State of New Jersey was taken yesterday. The clothing store of William Waiman was closed by the Sheriff yesterday, and there was a scramble of creditors to file their claims. Waiman wanted to confess judgment to M. Rosenbaum, of Philadelphia, but the law requires an affidavit. Attorney Loughran hit upon the telephone as a means of securing this affidavit, and it required little or no time to arrange with Justice of the Peace Bray. After Rosenbaum's voice had been identified by a friend here, and the contents of the affidavit read to him, Justice Bray, speaking over the telephone, asked: "Do you solemnly swear in the presence of Almighty God that the contents of the affidavit just read is true?" From Rosenbaum, at the other end of the wire, nearly 40 miles away, came back the answer "I do." The affidavit taken was then filed with the Court, judgment entered thereupon, the execution issued ahead of the other claimants, and Rosenbaum's money was saved.
